FIRST UPSET IN WOMEN'S GOLF PLAY

Mrs. W. G. Silver, One of the Favorites, Put Out in First Round.

Stiff wind and a dry course, which made the fair green lighting fast, gave the women entered in the state golf tournament at the Field club a difficult round to play yesterday.

The biggest surprise of the morning was the defeat in the first round of Mrs. Walter G. Silver, runner-up in last year's tournament, who was eliminated in the first round by Mrs. Felix Despecher, playing under the colors of the Council Bluffs Rowing association.

As has been expected, Miss Louise Pound of Lincoln had little trouble in winning her first match. She defeated Mrs. Karl Lininger, 6 up and 4 to play.

Mrs. E. H. Sprague had a sharp tussle with Mrs. L. S. Wernher, finally winning out, 2 up.

One of the features of the tournament so far has been the play of Miss Alice McKenzie, who has only been interested in golf a few weeks. She qualified in the third flight, and ran away with her first round match yesterday. She is considered a possible winner in her division.

Play will be continued at 9 o'clock this morning. Consolation events have been arranged for all players who lost in their first round yesterday.

Mrs. Sprague will meet with sharp competition, playing Mrs. H. L. Arnold of the Omaha Field club, while Miss Pound will meet Mrs. Felix Despecher.
