

U. S. BUYS THREE DANISH ISLANDS

White House Says Deal for Group East of Porto Rico is Practically Completed.

WILL SIGN TREATY TODAY

Washington, July 25.—Official announcement was made at the White House today that negotiations have practically been completed for the purchase of the Danish West Indies by the United States from Denmark for $25,000,000.

A treaty closing the transaction probably will be signed today and sent immediately to the senate.

While details of the treaty were not given out it is understood that the United States would come into complete possession of the islands. Word has been received from Denmark that the treaty is practically certain of being ratified by the Danish Parliament.

Chairman Stone of the senate foreign relations committee said President Wilson today, but said afterwards he had not discussed the purchase of the Danish West Indies and knew nothing of the question. It is understood that the government hopes the treaty will be ratified during the present session of congress.

The three islands of the Danish West Indies, St. Croix, St. Thomas and St. John, lie due east of Porto Rico and their value to the United States is strategic from a military point of view.

REPUBLICANS AS ONE BEHIND THE OLD PARTY FLAG

(Continued From Page One.) in November. He said that the large number in attendance and the enthusiasm shown was an inspiration which indicated the victory which was sure to come. He said it was important that the republican party should have charge of the government during the reconstruction period which is sure to come at the close of the European war.

Judge Sutton said he was strong for state-wide prohibition, and it made no difference to him whether he was talking in Custer or Douglas county he should advocate state-wide prohibition.

He advocated a state reformatory for young offenders instead of putting them in the penitentiary with the old-timers. John L. Kennedy, candidate for the United States senate, received a splendid ovation when called to the platform. He said it seemed good for brethren to dwell together in unity. "Our little differences of four years ago have not weakened the republican party, but have strengthened it. The democratic party is trying to build up a great navy," continued Mr. Kennedy, "but the republican party will build up a great merchant marine, which will fly the American flag and place our merchant ships upon the high seas."

Assets and Liabilities. "The republican party knows the difference between assets and liabilities," said Mr. Kennedy. He challenged any friend of the administration to show one act of the administration during the three years' controversy with Mexico that had been beneficial to either the United States or Mexico.

Messages were read from Congressman C. F. Reavis and National Committeeman R. B. Howell. Both assured the convention that the republican party had made no mistake in the selection of Charles E. Hughes as the standard bearer of the party, and the latter censured the democratic party bitterly for its handling of the Mexican situation.

W. E. Andrews of Hastings was called to the platform. Ten years ago Mr. Andrews presided at the last nominating convention of the republican party, and in reviewing that episode he said it seemed good to once more face a republican convention in Nebraska. As solicitor of the United States treasury during two of the three years of the democratic administration he gave that party a caustic scoring for the methods used in handling the business of the country.

George Seymour of Elgin and others addressed the convention, awaiting the report of the resolutions committee.

Ben S. Baker of Omaha and W. P. Warner of Dakota City, candidates for congress, addressed the convention as did also ex-Governor Aldrich and Mr. Devoe, candidate for attorney general.

When Chairman Pollard finally reported the resolutions, they were unanimously adopted and adjournment followed after announcing the meeting of the state committee.

Iowa Man Dead. Shenandoah, Ia., July 25.—(Special Telegram.)—O. H. Frank, 68, a leader in public life, who served three terms as Page county treasurer, was representative in the legislature in 1895 and later mayor of Shenandoah, died at 11 o'clock this morning after a year's illness. He is survived by his wife and five children.

Just Apply This Paste and the Hairs Will Vanish

(Boudoir Secrets.)

The judicious use of a delatone paste insures any woman a clear, hairless skin. To prepare the paste, mix a little of the powdered delatone with some water, then apply to the objectionable hairs for 2 or 3 minutes. When the paste is removed, and the skin washed, every trace of hair will have vanished. No pain attends the use of the delatone and it will not mar the most sensitive skin, but to insure results, see that you get real delatone.—Advertisement.

Platform Adopted by Nebraska Republicans

The united republicans of Nebraska in delegate convention assembled at firm our faith in the principles of our party and pledge our allegiance to its cause in state and nation. At this great epoch in the history of our country we hold it to be the duty of all good citizens to stand firmly for the common welfare, acknowledging fealty to no country other than the United States and paying homage to no flag but the Stars and Stripes. The republican party has a proud record in preserving the nation's honor under Lincoln, Grant and McKinley; it will undertake as heavy responsibilities with confidence under the leadership of Charles E. Hughes. On the strength of his past record we draw inspiration from the leadership of our presidential standard bearer and find in his high ideals and conscientious devotion to duty the best guarantee of a capable, courageous, unselfish, far-seeing and patriotic chief executive. Such as our nation needs now more than ever before.

We endorse in its entirety the national platform of the republican party adopted at Chicago and especially approve the plank on Americanism, preparedness and protection. We believe the direct primary law to be a sound principle of government. We are not insensible, however, to the imperfections which have developed in the practical operation of the present law, and we recommend that the law be amended in such form as will make it more in accord with representative government and more responsive to public will.

We favor action by the next legislature, giving the voters of the state an opportunity to pass upon the question of holding a convention to revise our present constitution.

We join in the demand for good roads and pledge our best efforts for road improvement. The first essential step is the creation of a state highway commission with power to outline a system of state roads and to secure their construction and proper maintenance and also to insure correlation of the roads under jurisdiction of local authorities. Nebraska should promptly qualify for its quota of the national good roads appropriations, and see to it that all state and national funds expended for road improvements are applied for the benefit of the whole state and so expended as to secure full value returned without waste, graft or favoritism. As a part of the good roads program we favor elimination of toll bridges, so that the use of the highways from one end of the state to the other shall be free to all.

We favor the development and extension of department of journalism in our state university into a comprehensive school, which will afford greater opportunities to young men and women for efficient training in a profession of great importance to the welfare of the public.

We favor the establishment of state custodial farms for minor offenders, which shall provide a variety of employment and treatment calculated to reclaim the wards of the state and to restore them to society.

While recognizing the soundness of the expression of the republican national platform on the subject of regulation of transportation, we call attention to the fact that federal control is only contemplated therein, after such legislation or amendment to the constitution of the United States is enacted as may be necessary for broadening its scope and increasing the efficiency of the Interstate Commerce commission. We are proud of the work accomplished by the Nebraska state railway commission under an amendment to our constitution and laws enacted by republican legislatures. We endorse the sentiment of our candidate for president uttered while a member of the supreme court of the United States, that in the absence of federal action the states have a right to exercise authority over transportation within their borders so long as they do not unnecessarily interfere with interstate commerce.

The world war, with its immeasurable cost in life and treasure has emphasized the necessity of maintaining order in the world through a determination of international controversies by an appeal to reason instead of by an appeal to arms. To this end we propose that, immediately upon the conclusion of the present war, the United States take the initiative by inviting the other great powers to join with our country in the establishment of a league of nations pledged to maintain peace by requiring, through use of their joint economic and military forces, the submission of their non-justiciable controversies to an international council of conciliation for recommendation and of their justiciable controversies to a world court for determination, before they resort to war.

We believe the time has come when the state as such should enter upon ing the efficiency of the Interstate Commerce commission. We are proud of the work accomplished by the Nebraska state railway commission under an amendment to our constitution and laws enacted by republican legislatures. We endorse the sentiment of our candidate for president uttered while a member of the supreme court of the United States, that in the absence of federal action the states have a right to exercise authority over transportation within their borders so long as they do not unnecessarily interfere with interstate commerce.

Republican Press Association Starts With Good Swing

Lincoln, July 25.—(Special.)—Auspicious for the republican campaign is the organization today of the Nebraska Republican Press association by ninety-four republican editors of which more than fifty were present in person. The purpose as stated in the constitution is "to secure co-operative effort for republican success in state and nation" and the plan outlined contemplates more team work and activity. The officers with executive committee from each congressional district, all unanimously chosen are: President—Victor Rosewater of The Omaha Bee. Vice President—Will Owen Jones, Lincoln Journal. Treasurer—A. F. Buechler, Grand Island Independent. J. H. Sweet, Nebraska City Press. Vac Buresh, Omaha Pokrok Zapadu. N. A. Huse, Norfolk News. Clark Perkins, Aurora Republican. Adam Breed, Hastings Tribune. W. W. Haskell, Ord Quiz.

Chicago Boy Dies of Lockjaw. Chicago, July 25.—William A. Ulrey, aged 15, is dead at his home here today as the result of lockjaw from wounds said to have been incurred when he was struck down with a pair of heavy green shears at the Raddie and Cycle club about a week ago. Nicholas Meigs, a gardener, has been ordered held to the grand jury on charges of manslaughter. Ulrey died yesterday.

Careless Use of Soap Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary purified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless) and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp moist and the hair fine and silky bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get multified coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Adv.

SUBSEA WILL SAIL AT PROPER TIME

Captain Koenig Says Delay in Start Not Due to Any Cause for Alarm.

ALLIED SHIPS ON WATCH

Baltimore, Md., July 25.—"Circumstances, conditions over which we have no control, are keeping us in Baltimore. There is no cause for alarm from any source. At the proper time we will get away; there is a time for everything."

Thus did Captain Paul Koenig, commander of the German submarine Deutschland, explain his presence in Baltimore today, when asked what is delaying the sailing.

It was said today on good authority that Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, and Prince von Hatzfeldt of the embassy staff will come to Baltimore tomorrow evening to be entertained by Captain Koenig at the home of Carl A. Leuderitz, the German consul at Baltimore.

Many Craft Watch for Subsea.

Norfolk, Va., July 25.—All kinds of small craft are being made ready here and in Hampton Roads to take the trail of the German submarine merchantman Deutschland when it comes down from Baltimore for its dash to sea. Imaginations have been fired by the presence of allied cruisers off the Virginia capes awaiting the reappearance of the Deutschland and rumors that a flotilla of armed German submarines is on the way to attack the British and French patrols when their freight carrying sister starts out. One British cruiser was in sight off the capes today and several other allied ships are said to be about twenty miles out.

a constructive policy looking towards the development of agriculture in all its branches. We favor liberal appropriations for the maintenance of our state experiment stations to the end that the many perplexing farm problems may be solved.

The republican party stands unqualifiedly for carrying into effect the will of the people as expressed at the polls for the enforcement of law both constitutional and statutory in accordance with their true intent. In case of amendments to our constitution we favor the enactment of all needed legislation to accomplish their intended purpose.

We oppose partisan politics in the conduct of state institutions and offices, and favor high standards of efficiency, with appointments made on the basis of qualifications rather than as political rewards.

We condemn the present democratic administration for its weak and vacillating policies, particularly for its failure to protect American rights on the high seas and in Mexico. In domestic as well as in foreign affairs we have paid, and are now paying, the penalties of war without enjoying the respect and influence for good which come to nations that are not "too proud to fight."

While we deeply deplore the perversity of human nature which makes the display of force sometimes necessary, we firmly believe that a courageous stand by President Wilson at the beginning of his administration, if consistently maintained, would have saved us much humiliation and distress in the unavenged loss of American lives and property during the past three years.

We condemn the attempt of a certain democratic employe to foist himself upon the people of the state by the submission of a constitutional amendment at the coming election, which contemplates as its principal object the extension of his term in office.

We view with alarm the unparalleled spectacle of a governor and a banking board surrendering themselves to the tender mercies of a democratic politician, making our banking system a plaything of politics, and the granting or refusing to grant charters for the organization of state banks to depend upon politics.

We favor the adoption of such policy by the state of Nebraska as will encourage the development of our water power, subject to such regulation as will preserve the rights of the people to efficient service at reasonable rates.

With justifiable confidence we commend to the voters of the state the candidates of our party in both nation and state, and congratulate the country on the fact that the division in our ranks which four years ago opened the way for democratic success no longer exists. We extend the very hand of fellowship to all citizens regardless of former political affiliations to co-operate with us in the election of our national and state tickets.
