OMAHA WOMEN PLAY FINE IN TOURNEY

Even Their Flow of Language is as Good as That of the Men.

HUSBANDS WATCHING PLAY

By MELLIFICIA—July 25. A Mere Man has elicited from another Mere Man in my vicinity a startling fact in regard to women golfers.

Said First Mere Man to Second Mere Man: "Why, say, you know the more those women hate each other the more affectionate they get. They go around calling every one 'dearie,' and when they get into disputes they call each other 'dearie' harder than ever."

First Mere Man stated that the women of Omaha and its environs, who form a majority of the golfers at the Field club, are playing pretty good golf.

Numerous husbands have been seen skulking around the golf links. Some come to admire, some to laugh and some to crowd. Ernest Sweet was there to see his wife play.

The First Mere Man drew a big laugh among the women folks when he made the very rash statement that one of the golfers was garbed in a purple Mother Hubbard! Wasn't that just like a man? Mrs. John W. Tillson, who has played a great deal with John W., boasts that she can beat him. That is the proper spirit for a woman to show. "Never say die!"
