

FUNSTON TO KEEP ARMY CAMPS CLEAN

Will Also See to it That Soldiers Are Given Plenty of Eat.

HOW IT WILL BE DONE

San Antonio, Tex., July 28.—Old Man Fly will have little place in the United States army on the Mexican border if Major General Funston and the medical corps officers of the southern department have their way about it.

The army officers in charge of the 98,000 state troops now along the international boundary have one object in view: That is to make the sanitary condition of the guardmen as nearly perfect as possible and promptly to nail and refute all the yarns of poor food and bad surroundings that the state guardmen write back to the folk at home and which the home-folk immediately turn over to the town newspaper.

Steps already have been taken to courtmartial two Wisconsin privates who sent telegrams to Senator La Follette complaining of the food. The facts were these: New York guardmen set out with only five days' travel rations, ate them up, got hungry and raided all the wholesale warehouses around the railway station at Cleveland. General Funston immediately telephoned all other state organizations en route to supply their men with ten days' travel rations.

The "Badgers" were given ten days' travel rations. Naturally they had a lot of food left when they reached Camp Wilson, San Antonio, and they were made to eat it up before they were given fresh rations. That is all there was to it.

"A regular will live six days on five days' travel rations," General Funston said. "A militiaman or a volunteer will consume it in two days."

Following are some of the regulations got up and distributed by Lieutenant Colonel Munson, medical corps, in charge of sanitary matters along the border:

Detachment of Flies.
Flies are a great nuisance in camp and spread disease. Every effort will be made to keep down their numbers and prevent their development.

Any area on which flies are seen to cluster will be burned over at once, thereby destroying their food supply. The area will be hung from the ridges of the kitchen tents, and requisition for the same should be made on the camp quartermaster. Each company will at once make requisition on the camp quartermaster for three fly traps and maintain same in operation.

The article which attracts flies will not be allowed to remain.

Drainage.
Tentage and company streets will be ditched so as effectively to carry off all storm water. The vicinity of each water tank will be ditched and drained so as to permit of a continuous flow of water.

Running of Bedding and Tent Areas.
Bedding and equipment will be exposed to the sun and wind at least two hours each day. All tentage will be struck or furled for this purpose at least twice a week.

Personal Cleanliness.
Every member of this command will bathe at least twice a week. The water used for bathing will be maintained in a clean condition. It may be washed in the bath house or sent out for laundering.

Food and Messing.
All fresh meat, bread and vegetables will be inspected by a medical officer, as to quality, when issued.

Food will be prepared and served in a clean manner. It will be habitually prepared against war, dust and flies. Company cooks and mess equipment and kitchen areas will be kept clean and free of all insects.

Individual mess kits will be cleaned at the cook tent immediately after use. Cooks will maintain a supply of hot water for this purpose.

The keeping in the tents of unclean portions of ration is strictly prohibited.

All members of this command are warned against patrolling places off the reservation in which food, ice cream or drinks are sold, which are not free from flies and not maintained in a clean condition.

No hucksters will be permitted in camp other than for delivery of supplies to general messes.

The bringing of melons into camp, from the great difficulty of disposing of melon rinds, is prohibited.

Disposal of Refuse.
Each company will construct and maintain a company incinerator of the type approved by the camp sanitary inspector. All garbage and camp refuse, other than manure and trash from the picket line, will be promptly destroyed hereafter. No accumulation of refuse will be permitted.

Gray water from the kitchens will be evaporated in the incinerators. To this end, all proper economy in the use of water in kitchens will be enforced.

Footwear.
Great care will be taken in fitting the men with shoes. The tip of the toes should be not less than one-half inch from the tip of the shoe when the full body weight is thrown on the foot being fitted.

A sufficient supply of socks, free from holes, will be maintained by each man.

Physical Examination.
The semi-monthly physical inspections of the men, required by the War department orders, will be completed before the 15th of each month, and again before the 15th of each month.

A company officer will be present when such examination is made by the medical officer.

Use of Regimental Infirmary.
Minor cases only will be treated in the regimental infirmary. All others will be transferred to the base hospital, Fort Sam Houston.

Any man who has a fever of 101 degrees will be so transferred without delay.

Prophylactic Inoculations.
Inoculations against typhoid fever and vaccination against smallpox will be carried out systematically under the prescribed methods until the command is thoroughly protected against these diseases.

RULING REINSTATES WILSON GUARDIAN

Judge Leslie Reverses Finding Handed Down by Day in the Boob Case.

IN COURT AT PAPILLION

Judge Charles Leslie handed down a decision in the case of the Boob estate in district court at Papillion yesterday afternoon, which reversed the decision of the court handed down by Judge George A. Day on June 19, last, when the guardian for Mrs. Julianne Boob Pope was discharged.

James R. Wilson, who was reinstated as guardian, testified that he had refused a proffered fee of, first $1,000, and then $1,500, some time before he was removed as guardian. He gave as his reason the fact that he didn't think his work as guardian justified such a compensation.

Defendant attorneys spent considerable time in an attempt to secure a continuance of the trial.

Reed Rules Douglas Eligible Candidate

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, July 28.—There is nothing in the way of Major Robert Grant Douglas of the Third battalion, Fourth infantry, standing in the way of his continuing as a candidate for the legislature, according to Attorney General Reed, in answer to the inquiry of Adjutant General Hall.

GERMANS EXECUTE BRITISH CAPTAIN

alleged, turned at high speed toward the submarine, which escaped only by diving immediately several yards below the surface.

Captain Fryatt, the official statement says, admitted that he had followed the instructions of the British admiralty. Sentence was confirmed and the captain was executed and shot for a "franc tireur crime against armed German sea forces."

The trial was held at Bruges, Belgium, yesterday.

When captured by German torpedo boats, June 24, Captain Fryatt was piloting the steamship Brussels from Rotterdam to Tilbury.

Several German warships dashed out of the naval base at Zeebrugge and escorted the Brussels back to the Belgian harbor. The ship carried an all-British crew of forty-four men. Dutch newspapers said it was generally believed the capture of the Brussels was brought about by a passenger who said he was an American, but who was believed to be a German. This man was said to have made signals to the German warships.

INDIGNATION AMONG ALLIES

Execution Regarded as Gross Violation of Law.

Washington, July 28.—Germany's execution of Captain Charles Fryatt, master of the British steamship Brussels, for an alleged attempt to ram a submarine is regarded in allied quarters here as a brutal violation of international law, likely to result in prompt retaliatory measures by Great Britain. They contend that if a hostile submarine approached the Brussels it was in effect an attack, and Captain Fryatt in making a counter attack by attempting to ram subjected himself only to treatment as a prisoner of war in event of capture.

Reprisals by the allies, it is feared, might be followed by a change in the German submarine policy, which has been satisfactory to the United States since the last assurances that merchant ships would not be attacked without warning or without provision for safety of passengers and crews.
