Eight. NORTH AND MERZ HURL

Denver, Colo., July 29.-(Special Telegram.)-President Frank C. Zehrung of the Western league was a visitro at Broadway park this afternoon and witnessed Omaha wrest the first game of the season from Denver by a score of 10 to 8. A light rain fell during the game which was finished under difficulty on a wet ground.

Omaha scored twice in the first inning through the kindness of Messrs. Smith and Thompson, while Denver couldn't get a man past second. The second was fine medicine for both sides. Kilduff walked and scored on Burg's triple to left center, and then Smith sent the pill over the right center tience for a homer, scor-ing Burg ahead. Diner and Shields scored for Denver, and Kelleher and Butcher each managed to jur the Butcher each managed to jar the home plate in the third. In the fourth neither side scored and in the fifth Omaha retired quickly when Marshall and Forsythe flied out and Kilduff fanned. North pitched for Omaha in the last half of this inning, which neithed two more for Denyer. which netted two more for Denver.

Miller knocked a homer through center field gate, scoring Thompson ahead of him and Mar-shall made the home plate from sec-ond on Burg's single to center. Smith and Krug each scored in the eighth, Smith and Miller's triple to center being the feature of that frame. Den-ver scored two in the last frame.

Notable Array of Fast Horses Nominated for the Turf Classic Here.

FAST STEPPERS OARDED

BY RUSSELL PHELPS. With the turf classic of the middle west-the Great Western Circuit meeting of the Omaha Driving clubto be held at the Speedway track Au gust 22 to 26, inclusive, less than a month away, horsemen and harness race followers in general are busy prognosticating what will happen when the fastest field of steppers ever turned on a half-mile track in this country battles for the total of $12,306 in stakes and purses offered for the four days' program. Everyone connected with the har-ness racing game in Omaha and con-tignous territory, as well as horse-men from all of the principal turf centers in the United States, "are awaiting with the keenest of interest the Great Western's premier in Ne-braska. The Omaha Driving club's meeting will mark the first time in the history of Nebraska that the state has had horse races on this famous circuit. Purses of $2,000 also are strangers to Nebraska tracks, and when the owners and agents of horses from the cream of the coun-try's stables come here to race their favorites, it will be with a dgree of confidence that they are doing so under the auspices of a driving club that has the men behind it well able to back the game to the limit. Big Field Will Start. Otis M. Smith, prominent Omaha for the four days' program.

Big Freid Will Start. Otis M. Smith, prominent Omaha grainman-horseman and secretary and treasurer of the driving club, is satisfied that more than 250 horses will have been named for the differ-ent events by August 8, the date of the closing of the late closing purses. One hundred and sixty high-class ani-mals, including several that have al-ready won fame on the Grand Circuit this year, are nominated for the early closing purses. A glance over the names of some of the turf stars who are named in the early closing purses is in itself a guarantee of the stellar brand of racing that will be dished up at the Great Western meeting in Omaha. Gilbert Patch, a son of Dan Patch, and one of the brightest performers at the recent Grand Circuit meetings at Cleveland and Detroit is entered in the 2:18 pacing class, the Hal Mc-Kinney purse of $2,000, for the Great Western session here. Miss Denamore Looks Good. A trotter that has showed up good in the "big noise" in the east is Miss Densmore, by Vyzant, who will be one of the strongest contenders in the 2:14 trotting class at the Omaha Driving club's meeting for the Grain Exchange purse of $1,000. Omaha harness racing devotees this year will have an opportunity to see the work of Deputy Sheriff, by Sher-iff, who made them all sit up and take notice at the Detroit Grand Circuit meeting, after winning consistently over the Michigan Short-ship Circuit. Deputy Sheriff is entered in the 2:12 pacing class at the local meeting. Tanner Miller, a son of Dr. Tan-ner, the winner of the 2:22 pace at the Corning. Ia., meeting on the South-western Iowa and Missouri Short-ship Circuit last week, is a likely look-ing entry in the 2:18 pacing class. Helen Chimes' Great Record.

AK-SAR-BEN MOTOR RACE CALLED OFF

Omaha Auto Speedway Co. Decides to Abandon Classic Planned for Fall.

WANT JULY 4 DATE NEXT

There will not be any automobile race in Omaha during the Ak-Sar-Ben festival.

When the Omaha Auto Speedway company obtained its 1916 sanctions last fall, it applied for sanctions for July 15 and October 4, which will be the date of the Ak-Sar-Ben electrical parade. It was originally planned to make the Ak-Sar-Ben event the big race meet of the year here.

Buf sanctions have already been issued to eastern tracks for dates in close proximity to October 4. New York will hold the Astor cup race on September 30. Providence will hold a 100-mile race on October 4, and Philadelphia has a sanction for October 15. Thus it would be necessary for Thus it would be necessary for

Thus it would be necessary for Omaha to compete with Providence for drivers, and it would also be nec-essary to induct the drivers to make a hurried jump from New York and then back to Philadelphia in order to hold a race at all. Undoubtedly Omaha could sign up a good field of drvers. After the race July 15, Resta, De Palma, Ricken-bacher, Mulford, Chandler, Dusen-berg and the other prominent racers said they would come out. But the speedway officials decided not to make the attempt because of the short time, which would not give room for emergencies and a repeti-tion of 1915 is possible. So it was decided to call the event off. After July 4 Date.

After July 4 Date.

After July 4 Date. Omaha will strive for a sanction for July 4 for 1917. A meeting of the board of directors of the speed-way was held last week and an appli-cation for July 4 will be made even at this early date. It is believed Omaha will have no trouble in procuring this date. This year Minneapolis and Sioux City competed with Omaha for this date and Omaha stepped out for "safety first" reasons. But both Minneapolis and Sioux City fitivered" badly this year. Minneapolis, it is believed, will have to go bankrupt, and Sioux City, it is thought, is entirely through, be-cause the drivers will not go there next year.

next year. Thus Omaha should have a clear field for July 4, July 4 will be a bet-ter date than July 15, because it is a holiday and all business will be sus-pended that day. The race would be the only attraction in town.

The next race to attract the speed enthusiasts is at Tacoma, August 5, Ralph De Palma, Eddie Ricken-bacher. Baby Pete Henderson, Billy Chandler, Art Johnson, Dave Lewis, Ed. Rawlings, Wilbur D'Alene and Tommy Milton, all of whom appeared in the Omaha classic, arc the most prominent pilots entered. De Palma and Rickenbacher are favorites. Resta and Mulford are not going west.

and Mulford are not going west. Following Tacoma, Chicago will hold an invitation race at the Maywood speedway that should be a corker. A qualifying mark of 100 miles an hour must also be set up by the participating pilots. This is the first time a speedway has raised the qualifying mark so high and it in-sures a field of fast cars only.

Willie Heston Wins Fat eston Wins Fat Man's Race at Detroit

Man's Race at Detroit Detroit, July 29.—Scores of De-troiters who followed the fortune of Michigan's great foot ball teams of a decade ago witnessed a thrilling sight here recently. A local busi-ness men's association had a picnic. The most interesting event on the athletic program was a fat man's race. There were several entries. At the crack of the pistol a curly haired giant took the lead and, tearing over the ground with great lunging strides, fashed across the finish line-winner. Many spectators, graduates of the University of Michigan, recog-nized the sprinter, and cheered them-selves hoarse. The man was Willie Heston, whom Coach Yost asserts was the greatest player that ever stepped on a western gridiron. lehitu Incolr.

 New, York, July 29.—Albert Frank Gould, the Muscatine midget, now with Cleveland, is 23 years of age. He stands only five feet six inches in height and weights 155 pounds, thus being the shortest pitcher in the league. But he is what is known as a "big little man," having a powerful pair of shoulders and stocky legs like those of a foot ball player.
 Sincally he has won sixty-nine and lost forty-two games. He won fifteen and lost twelve in 1913, his first year with Muscatine of the Central association, winning twenty-two and lost six prior to reporting to the Indians.
