MANY SWIMMING PARTIES

By MELLIFICIA—July 31.

It may be pleasant to disport in the waters of a lake where the warm afternoon sun can color you a bright lobster red. It may be enjoyable to paddle in lake water in the cool of the evening while the mosquitoes raise welts on your classic features and your chubby arms. But a number of Omaha people have found a cleaner, sweeter method to indulge the bathing fad in the big clear pool at Bellevue, where the "skaters" never grow and the sun's rays only filter enough to make it light, you know.

Pool bathing at Bellevue is attracting the fastidious for various reasons. It furnishes the destination for a pleasant drive. The water is clean and cool, quite free from the annoyances of the more public lake. The girls' dormitory at the College, Fontenelle hall, has been thrown open for summer boarders and a pair of darky cooks serve the most delicious chicken dinners to anyone on demand. Seventy-five Omaha people satisfied their characteristic swimmer's hunger in the dining hall Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. L. Sibbensen had a family party at the Saturday evening dinner after a plunge. Dr. A. Jefferson entertained a party of nine Saturday evening. N. P. Benson had five guests.

Miss Lucile Bacon and her fiancé, Mr. Walter Scott, Fenfield of Washington, accompanied by Mrs. Frank W. Bacon, Dr. Arthur Pinto and Mrs. Bacon's young niece, took a refreshing dip in the pool Sunday morning. The pool was thoroughly cleaned and filled with fresh water this morning. Special plans are being laid by the college authorities for the entertainment of motor and swimming parties during the month of August.

Baskets of pink roses were used throughout the house.

The bride was gown in white satin trimmed with cloth of silver and embroidered in pearls. Her veil was made short and she carried a shower bride bouquet.

The bride's mother and the mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Morris Glaser of St. Louis, both wore gowns of black net.

Mr. Irving Heller, a St. Louis friend of Mr. Glaser, was the best man.

The summer girls' minarets under the direction of Miss Maude Jorgensen will give a performance Wednesday at 8:30.

A Fitting Name for a Kilpatrick Sale

We are inclined to believe that if Augustus Caesar was living here and now that he would recognize the appropriateness of the name

AUGUST As Applied to this Wonderful AUGUST Sale of Ours

Julius Caesar was surely what would be termed these days "a warm member" and the month just ended was well named, for it was a real hot one. The British were wont to characterize the month of August as the first autumn month, in this country we still think of August as the last month of summer. Whichever viewpoint we take, most of us will enjoy thinking of cool fall days which cannot be so far away. If the weather man will only have a heart, we will promise you not only great diversion, but some wonder-

In Our Ready-to-Wear Section—Will offer Suits of Serge, Silk Jersey, Silver Bloom, Etc. Many of navy and quite a few whites. Whether they sold at $20 or $45 or the intermediate prices—now two prices will rule—$7.50 and $12.50. Tarry not if you are interested.

Our Dress Stock is made up of Desirables—Lawn, Voiles, Novelty Combinations of white with colors. Linens, Mohairs, Taffetas, Silk Nets. These dresses will be SOLD. The cutting is so radical that comparisons of past and present prices would look foolish. We forebear, therefore, and will simply say that whether at $1.50, $2.95, $5.00 or $8.95, present prices will be about 1/3 of that; in other words, about 33 cents on the dollar.

Our Blouse Stock—Oddly enough, these blouses are new—have never, indeed, been shown by us. Why then a sale? you will ask. Here's the answer: We have sold blouses by the hundred and were almost out of goods. Our buyer rushed east and indeed is there now. She cleaned up several manufacturers' stocks and showed her usual good judgment. You'll say good judgment also when you look through the waists Tuesday. $3.98 instead of $6.00; $2.98 instead of $4.50; $1.98 instead of $3.50.

Here is what we will do to the Skirt Stock:

59 cents for Pique Skirts which were $3.00.
$1.50 for Pique, Waifle or Sport Stripes, that were $3.98.
$2.98 for gabardines and beautiful white that were $5.00.
$4.95 for Sport Stripes, Pongees, Etc., that were $15.00.
You'll find Coverts, Wool, Gabardines, Etc., in this lot.

Never Did Your Money Go Farther

Our Coat Stock—Placed on racks conveniently within reach. You can help yourself. You will find Motor Coats, Coats of Corduroy, of Covert, Jersey Coats, Taffeta Coats, Pongee Coats. Can't you see the wisdom of owning one or two for the cool evenings, which are as sure to come as taxes, $3.95, $5.00 and $10.00.

And we ain't going to say a word about past prices. As far as we are concerned we would like to forget—THE CUTTING IS SO CRUEL.

Silk and Fiber Sweaters—A little peculiar, isn't it, to find so many people who prefer the word perspire—use the name Sweater so freely. Somehow or other, Sweater seems to be the only fitting name for the garment of late. Perspire not quite strong enough. It's the popular coat alright, regardless of the name. Tuesday, various colors, which sold up to $25.00, will go at $10.95 each.

We have had our harvest in the Lingerie section. Not now a question of profit—rather a decision to clear out what remains. Radical is hardly the word to use as applied to pricing for Tuesday. Absurd, perhaps, a better word. Two prices on Help Yourself Tables.

At 49 Cents—Gowns, Brassieres, Princess Slips, Petticoats, Corset Covers, Etc.

At 89 Cents—Princess Slips, Drawer Combinations, Skirt Combinations, Gowns and Petticoats. These were priced up to $2.50.

Aprons—Did you ever notice the tone, the daintiness, which comes from the putting on of a pretty little apron? One-half price for aprons during this sale and this applies to the plain and practical as well as the more delicate lacy affairs.

Corsets—You'll wear these devices with more comfort a little later when cooling winds reach us from the far north. We have many of the best makes to close out in this sale. Madame Irene, Success, Redfern, R. & G., Justrite. Not all the sizes in each, but every size in all the makes together. And a wonderful price saving if you get what you want.

Economical and Intelligent Mothers have learned to pursue a watchful and waiting policy in providing for their children's fall needs. They know we never hesitate about the pricing when the fiat goes forth. Clearout the children's and junior wearables. What think ye of SUITS which sold from $12.50 to $22.50, going at $5.00. Such the pricing for Tuesday.

COATS at $5.00 each—Averaged, the former price would be about $15.00. Chinchilla, Serge or Silk.

Final word on Children's Hats. $1.00 for pick Tuesday. Straw, Sport, Silk—regardless of pedigree or price. Some hats of straw for boys, at a quarter. Panamas, half price. Lingerie hats One-half price.

The Mother Touch enters into the selection of our Dresses, etc., for women. Affection for children shows in the very garments. It's important to know what to buy and there's where our experience counts. Assuming then that we know, the next thing to impress you with—is the savings.

Five Groups of Dresses for Tuesday

No. 1—Practically all the ages.....$1.29 each
No. 2—Every age and size.....$1.98 each
No. 3—Some of these sold at $8.50.....$3.45 each
No. 4—Late comers and beauties.....$5.00 each
No. 5—For juniors, real dressy.....$9.95 each
None sold before below $15.00.

Middies—How the young folks love this garment. Three prices Tuesday, 49c, 79c and 98c.

Swift selling on these Tuesday.

The Novelty Skirtings—How gay the colors. We saw one made up, which looked like a Bulgarian atrocity—and do you know, it really looked quite fetching. Isn't it wonderful how well things look on a pretty young girl? This has been the favorite and most popular of all fabrics. We are going to close goods sold to $1.00, at 25c.

Women's Hosiery—Here too, so that you will not be disappointed, we make specially low prices. For instance, now, 3 lots on Tuesday.

Silk Boot and Fiber Stockings, black and white, sold to 50 cents, at.....29c

Pure Silk Lisle Boot, black and a few colors. 79c $1.50 quality, colors and fancies, wide variety, for.....$1.09

Women's Knit Underwear—22 different numbers in Union Suits, most of them broken lines now. In the list, Globe, Stretton, Richelieu, etc.; various shapes, different weights, all kinds of trimmings; sold to $1.75. Now in 3 lots, 55c, 75c, 95c.

Boys' Union Suits—Several kinds at 39c each. Children's Fiber Hose, 5 to 8, blacks and tans, were to 50c, now 25c.

Our Basement Salesroom is below the street level. Our sidewalk, however, tapers down in grade and this admits of front windows, which give perfect ventilation. On the hottest days, and we've had some — ones—we don't use the kind of language that best expresses our feelings—on the hottest days, we say, you can say what the railroad says of Colorado. IT'S COOL in Kilpatrick's basement.

Come, then, Tuesday. All the Wash Goods which sold up to 25c, at 3 prices; 5c, 10c and 15c.

Here are prices on Sundries, which you perhaps did not know we kept:

Pie Plates, 5 cents a dozen.
Ice Blankets, 5 cents each.
Dust cloths, 10 cents each.
Bathing Suit Cabinets, 39 cents each.
Paper Napkins, 5 cents a hundred.
Broom Bags, 10 cents each.
Clothes Baskets, 98 cents each.

Now up steps, or elevator, to the first floor back. Lingerie Section. We are simply going to remark. If you knew what we know of flax scarcity—linen shortage—prices ever mounting higher and higher—you would be laying in a supply of linens NOW—but that's your affair, not ours. Let's talk of goods that you are interested in now—viz White Goods. We will sell a lot of novelties which sold up to $1.00, for 29c a yard.

Embroidered Organdies and Voiles, sold up to $1.50, at 69c a yard.
Embroidered Voiles and Crepes, sold up to $3.00, at 98c a yard.

In the section where we sell high grade Wash Goods (to wit: West Alala), stocks will be so arranged that you can pick with pleasure. 3 prices;

15c for Voiles, Irish Dimities, Tissues, Piques, etc., sold to 35 cents.

25c for Silk Warps, Foreign Stripes, Imported Cords, etc., sold up to 50 cents.

50c for high class Novelty and Embroidered fabrics, sold to $1.50.

Every Son of Adam in Omaha should be interested in Sale of Men's Goods. Attend and you shall learn the story—and it's a TRUE story—

Silk and Madras Union Suits, Athletic style, formerly $2.50, at $1.45.

And now comes a story which seems so inappropriate and incongruous as to need an explanation.

Our Advance Sale of Furs Starts Wednesday, Aug. 2

Now to mention FURS is enough to cause an oozing at the million openings provided for our relief. But isn't there another thought which we can get hold of. How about the influence of suggestion? Does not the mention of FURS suggest Polar regions—ice and snow—Coldness. Whether or no, we do know that winter is as sure to come as that time flies. Now let's see if after all it is not a reasonable thing to have a FUR SALE NOW.

It will be a Fur Season—Fashion decrees that. It is conceded that the best skins come from the winter catch. Tanners, dyers, finishers, garment makers operate all the year, even though the selling season is short and the wearing season still shorter. The retail merchant who has the money, the cash to hand over for the finished product, gets the choice of skins and usually effects a saving in the price. This, then, was our position. We wanted to get the choice selection. We were prepared to hand over the money, and we made most fortunate purchases.

SCARFS will be very good. There are many new shapes.

COLLARETTES—Reminders to some of us of the long ago. These will be very popular.

MUFFS—From the little round one to the pillow size.

AND FUR COATS—Hudson Seals in such a well dyed, perfectly finished garment, that it is in a distinctive class. Rivaling in its appearance the "Alaska." Not, perhaps, quite its equal in wear, but Our Coats made from selected skins carry our guarantee of satisfaction. And that's absolute.

IN SCARFS AND MUFFS—Mink, Lynx, Marten, Marmot, Fox, Beaver, Nutria, Fitch.

IN COATS—Plain Hudson Seal, all lengths; Seal Coats with borders of Marten, Fox, Lynx or Nutria. Natural Muskrat Coats also.

Most people lack preparedness, and most people believe in it. You should prepare now for the inevitable. And so as to make this sale an attractive one for you, we will store your purchases free of cost till October and charge the sale as of that date. Furthermore, we promise you a substantial saving on the very choicest furs. Are our reasons good?
