Government Report of Crop Conditions for Week

Following is the summary of weather and crop conditions in corn and wheat region for the week ending August 1, 1916: Washington, Aug. 2. Dry weather unfavorably affected corn over most states from the lake region southward to northern Texas. The crop is most severe in Kansas and Missouri, where the damage is great. Corn improved in the extreme southern, eastern, northern and western districts, and is tassel well to the northern limits of the country. Excessive heat in the central and northern districts delayed harvesting and unfavorably affected spring wheat from the Dakotas eastward. Spring wheat is greatly damaged by black rust in the Dakotas and western Minnesota and heads are not filled well because of high temperature. The excessive heat hastened the maturity of oats in the extreme north and caused poorly filled heads. Flax and buckwheat made good progress. Rye and barley harvest is nearing completion. Pasture, mowing, potatoes and gardens were unfavorably affected by the dry, hot weather in the central districts. Tobacco needs rain in Wisconsin and Ohio; some damage was done by excessive rain in Virginia and North

CLUB FIXES DATES FAR IN ADVANCE

Omaha Club Has Announced Many Affairs for the Winter Months.

IS TO AVOID CONFLICTS

By MELLIFICIA—August 2. A brilliant winter season is forecasted by the entertainment committee of the Omaha club, while we, with less forethought, brook no plans for the morrow.

Ushered in by the Ak-Sar-Ben coronation ball, the special season's opening event will also include a supper at the Omaha club, following the crowning of the king and queen. One month later, on November 6, the club will be the rendezvous of its patriotic members, when election returns will be received there by private wire.

New Year's eve, which falls on Sunday evening this year, supper will be served at 11 o'clock, with a concert until midnight—and dancing thereafter.

The annual meeting of members will take the form of a dinner, Saturday, January 20, and one week later there will be a large dinner-dance at the club.

But it is Monday, February 19, 1917, to which the fashionable set is looking forward with interest. That is the date set for the Mardi Gras ball, a masque such as the local social world has not enjoyed for many a moon. Masques will be off for the midnight supper.

George Washington's birthday will be observed as it has been each year. There will be a dinner and a number of addresses.

With the calendar already studded with these brilliant events when the mercury still flirts with the 100-degree mark, it is argued that the coming season will be one of unsurpassed splendence. It is admittedly a wise stroke of diplomacy for the entertainment committee so to calendar its projected events. It will enable members to avoid conflicting arrangements, an annoying feature of last year's season.

At Happy Hollow Club.

Mrs. J. H. Beaton entertained the members of the Rockford College Alumnae association at luncheon at Happy Hollow club today. Those present were: Mesdames—J. R. McDonald, Hale Bixby, Robert Doherty. Misses—Gladys Goodman, Minna Stedinger, Henrietta Mar, Isabel Shukert.

Miss Alice Rushton and Miss Ruth Fitzgerald entertained at 1 o'clock luncheon today at Happy Hollow club for Miss Clara Wright of Chicago, who is the guest of Miss Gertrude Porter, and for Miss Katherine Crocker of Cedar Rapids, Ia., who arrived this morning to spend a month with Miss Fitzgerald. The tables were charmingly decorated with Japanese flower bowls filled with Japanese lilies and sweetheart roses in rainbow colors. Birds and butterflies perched on the brims and hovered above the flowers and asparagus fern. Tiny birds on the water glasses served as place cards.

Owing to the absence from town of many of the younger set only fifty of the eighty invited guests were present.

At Carter Lake Club.

Dr. L. A. Dermody entertained a party of graduate medics at dinner at the club last evening. Covers were laid for: Doctors—Charles M. Swab, C. A. Cummings, L. F. Egan, C. M. Harlan, H. J. Jenkins, C. P. Ulrich, A. C. Brown, A. Byrne.

Miss Anne Sorenson had three guests at dinner last evening and Mr. Joe C. Pepper had four.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Pratt Harwood, Mr. C. F. Rise and Miss Grace Jones were the guests of Mr. Roy Hart.

The Cottagers' Kensington had luncheon at the club today for forty-six members. This afternoon they attended the performance of the summer girls' minstrels.

Mrs. A. G. Jaeger had fourteen guests at luncheon today and Mrs. Nate Mantell four.

Mrs. Leo Smith and Mrs. F. A. Percun and Master Dave Hartman are the latest persons to swim across Carter lake. The two women went across and back without stopping.

The high score at the meeting of the Cottagers' Swimming and Bowling club was won yesterday by Mrs. H. J. Hackett.

Dinner and Dance for Visitors.

Miss Marjorie Wilkins of Des Moines and Miss Clare Louise Wright of Chicago, who are visiting Miss Katherine Gould and Miss Gertrude Porter, will be honor guests at dinner given by Miss Mary Fuller at her home this evening, followed by dancing at the Field club. The sixteen guests will be seated at two tables decorated with a basket and a centerpiece of pink roses.

Pleasures Past.

Miss Bess Watson entertained at her home last Tuesday evening at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Margaret Anderson, who is to be married in August to Mr. James Nicol of Quill Lake, Saskatchewan, Canada. Those present were: Mesdames—John McTaggart, Robert Galt, Margaret McTaggart, Margaret Anderson, Margaret Falconer, Joan McPherson, R. G. Watson. Misses—Helen Cameron, Margaret McTaggart, Elizabeth Henderson, Rachel Henderson, Bess Watson.

Temperance Meeting.

Mrs. W. W. Widoe will entertain the South Side Women's Christian Temperance union at her home, 2209 I street, Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Election of officers and important business relating to the next season's work will occupy the meeting.

Omaha Colony at Lake Madison.

Lake Madison, Minn., is a popular summer resort with Omahans this year. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Towle and Miss Naomi Towle, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buchholz and son, Fritz; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jeffers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Root, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Davis of Council Bluffs and W. R. Wood are included in the list.

S. E. Smyth, assistant secretary of the Omaha Automobile club, who is also at Lake Madison, writes that the bathing is fine, but he says that, while there are no sharks in the water, there are plenty in the garages. He mournfully recites that they charged him $3 for cleaning an automobile and $4 cents a gallon for gasoline. Most of the Omaha colony motored to the lake.

At the Country Club.

Mr. A. N. Sibbernson will have a dinner party for eight at the club this evening. Mr. C. K. Denman and Mr. Harry Koch each have small reservations. Mrs. George Redick will have a party of eight.
