ANALYSIS OF VOTE INDICATES G. O. P. VICTORY THIS FALL

combined Taft-Roosevelt vote was 7,604,518 a difference of 1,311,964 in favor of the two republican candidates.

Effect of Division.

"The vote of the twenty-seven states which went to Wilson only by republican division was as follows:

| State | Taft and Roosevelt | Wilson |
|---|---|---|
| California | 307,248 | 283,436 |
| Colorado | 85,975 | 174,421 |
| Idaho | 34,387 | 74,810 |
| Connecticut | 102,401 | 97,961 |
| Delaware | 28,854 | 37,031 |
| Illinois | 405,291 | 450,810 |
| Indiana | 342,274 | 341,498 |
| Iowa | 292,024 | 221,707 |
| Kansas | 198,907 | 143,228 |
| Maine | 51,118 | 51,193 |
| Maryland | 91,731 | 112,674 |
| Massachusetts | 394,276 | 396,809 |
| Missouri | 330,179 | 376,740 |
| Montana | 40,464 | 27,845 |
| Nebraska | 126,840 | 115,098 |
| Nevada | 9,418 | 7,582 |
| New Hampshire | 34,724 | 36,828 |
| New Jersey | 254,452 | 233,946 |
| New Mexico | 31,160 | 31,017 |
| New York | 870,070 | 763,470 |
| North Dakota | 43,876 | 39,216 |
| Ohio | 450,483 | 423,152 |
| Oregon | 70,445 | 67,264 |
| Rhode Island | 41,431 | 29,741 |
| West Virginia | 135,476 | 115,197 |
| Wisconsin | 183,539 | 164,198 |
| Wyoming | 21,797 | 15,310 |

"A cursory glance will show that the union of the two republican parties of 1912 would make Connecticut republican by 38,000, Illinois by 200,000, Indiana by 35,000, Iowa by 120,000, Kansas by 50,000, Massachusetts by 120,000, New Jersey by 50,000, New York by 190,000 and Ohio by 100,000.

"It must also be considered that Wilson had many thousands of ardent supporters in 1912 who will not vote for him today. And it must also be remembered that in the party disaffection a great mass of republicans did not vote at all.

Changes Two Years Ago.

"Turning to the election of November, 1914, three important political facts are evident:

"1. The republicans carried upon national issues states that would give a clear majority in the electoral college and elect a republican president.

"2. The democratic majority in the present house is only the result of the progressive vote in certain districts of the country, and the democrats are really a minority party in the house of representatives.

"3. Two-thirds of the progressive vote of 1912 has not only ceased to support third party candidates, but has returned to the support of republican principles and candidates.

"Twenty-three states were carried by republicans with a total of 288 electoral votes. This is a majority of twenty-two over the 266 necessary for a choice. In three states there was a division on national issues. Thus, in Oregon, South Dakota and Nevada democratic senators were elected while republican congressional delegations were chosen. At this election 230 democratic members of the lower house of congress were chosen. In thirty-nine of the congressional districts, however, the progressive vote was larger than the democratic plurality, so that, had it not been for the progressive vote, the democratic membership in the present house would be only 191, with 218 necessary for a majority. In four states, California, Colorado, Indiana and Oregon, the progressive vote elected four democratic senators.

Moosers Lose Two Millions.

"I think it is clearly evident what become of the progressive vote of 1912. The approximate figures showed a republican gain of 2,489,588 over the republican presidential vote of 1912. The progressive loss was 2,507,811.

"In the twenty-three states carried by the republicans the republican plurality over the democratic vote was more than 1,000,000. In 1912 the Wilson vote in the same states was larger than the Taft vote by about as much. Of the total votes cast by the three parties in these states in 1914, the republicans cast 49.6 per cent, the democrats 38.9 per cent and the progressives 11.5 per cent. In 1912 the presidential vote was: Republicans, 28.4 per cent; democrats, 39.7 per cent; progressives, 31.9 per cent.

Fight for Ten States.

"It is interesting to note the results from ten states in which republicans were not successful in the 1914 election, these being representative states in different sections of the country. In the total votes cast in these ten the democrats won by a plurality of less than 200,000. In 1912 the democratic plurality in these same states was over 1,000,000. A very small percentage republican gain would have put three of these states into the republican column, as an increase of a little over 5,000 republican votes would have carried Nebraska, Colorado and Maine with their twenty votes in the electoral college. Following is the detailed vote of these states for 1914:

| State. | Rep. | Dem. | Prog. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Arizona | 8,181 | 16,617 | 2,608 |
| California | 284,159 | 278,896 | 283,732 |
| Colorado | 98,728 | 102,037 | 27,022 |
| Indiana | 220,260 | 272,248 | 108,881 |
| Kentucky | 144,216 | 176,656 | 14,108 |
| Maine | 60,218 | 60,683 | 17,958 |
| Maryland | 94,864 | 110,204 | 3,497 |
| Missouri | 287,056 | 311,578 | 37,614 |
| Montana | 36,153 | 37,012 | 6,894 |
| Nebraska | 110,839 | 112,389 | 3,141 |
| Totals | 1,372,422 | 1,478,180 | 466,260 |

Drift Toward Republicans.

"Every election, special or otherwise, since 1912 hass hown a steady drift toward the republican party. In the senatorial and congressional elections of two years ago the republicans carried twenty-three states which would give them a clear majority of electoral votes of twenty-two. This did not include ten states for which the republicans are fighting this year. California, Montana, Nevada, Arizona, Nebraska, South Dakota, Oregon, Missouri, Kentucky and Indiana. The total elector.l vote in these ten states is eighty-seven. The republicans are pretty sure to carry practically all of these states, but if you add only a third of this vote to the 288 from the states carried in 1914, it makes the electoral vote for Mr. Hughes in the neighborhood of 317, although I think it will go higher."

Secretary Mellor Announces Events For Nebraska Fair

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Lincoln, Aug. 5.—(Special.)—Secretary Mellor of the State Board of Agriculture makes the following announcements for the fair in Bulletin No. 195 issued today.

State Superintendent Thomas announces a state-wide conference of rural school patrons in connection with the state fair on the 14th and 15th of September. The call for this conference by the superintendent is in response to a strong demand from rural patrons themselves. Many farmers' organizations of Union and vicinity have passed resolutions calling for this meeting. The forenoons will be taken up by special conference and committee reports, the afternoons will be given over to special addresses by prominent educational workers.

Those who saw the wonderful control of an aeroplane as exhibited at the Nebraska State fair by Beachey in 1914 and Thompson in 1915, will be pleased to learn that something better awaits them the first week in September when a woman aviatrix, Ruth Law, will loop the loop with all the abandon of those first mentioned and in addition will loop the loop at night with lights and fireworks attached to her biplane to mark her path through the air.

The entries to the various events at the Nebraska State fair to be held the first week in September, are as follows:

Entries of horses, August 14.
Entries of cattle, August 14.
Entries of speed, August 21.
Entries of ladies, August 21.
Entries of runners, night before the race.
Entries of automobiles, night before the race.

All other entries at 5 p. m. Saturday, September 2.

Lincoln people are requested to make departmental entries on or before August 28, filing or send entries to W. H. Mellor, secretary, Room 406, State house until evening of August 31, after that date at state fair grounds.

One of the real thrills at the state fair auto races September 4 promises to be caused by the entry of Miss Ethelda Mais, the champion woman driver of the world, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 5, 6, 7 and 8, three harness and two running races are booked for each day.

LABOR HEADS GIVEN VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

Central Union Withdraws Endorsement from Publication Making Graft Charges.

PUBLISHERS ARE SCORED

The Central Labor union at its bimonthly meeting last evening passed a vote of confidence in the officers charged with grafting at the meeting two weeks ago, when David Coutts and William Castleman, publishers of the Unionist, accused Tom Reynolds, Jonas Wangberg and C. L. Shamp of making a profit from the contract for the Labor day program and other union activities.

The endorsement of the Central Labor union was withdrawn from the Unionist, and a motion passed asking the two unions sending Coutts and Castleman to the central body to substitute acceptable delegates. Coutts and Castleman were in the hall and were bitterly assailed by Wangberg and Shamp, who dared them to press the charges they made two weeks ago, but provoked no response.

A communication from the city clerk transmitting the reply of Commissioner Jardine to the complaint of the labor unionists against the use of prisoners in contract work was read and bitterly condemned by the meeting. Commissioner Jardine defended the practice on the grounds that men confined in the jail for a period of three months would be so deteriorated in a physical sense that they would be unable to do a hard day's work and would soon be forced back to jail.

He explained that the prisoners were not used on competitive work and that the wage scale was $2.25 per day, of which the city received $1.25 and the prisoner the remainder. Although the men were compelled to do the work, Commissioner Jardine said that they welcomed the chance to earn the money. He promised that if the labor unions would supply men to take the places of the prisoners that they would be withdrawn from the work.

The call for the meeting of the state federation was read and Robert Dunlap was elected to represent the Central Labor union as a delegate at Fremont on September 12.

Tom Reynolds, the president of the body announced the members of the standing committee for the coming year as follows:

Law Committee—A. C. Weitzel, H. Hilmer, M. N. Griffith.
Grievance Committee—C. F. Crawford, W. M. Chase, John Hansen.
Educational Committee—John J. Kerrigan, M. Courtney, Frank P. Malsell.
Organization Committee—J. R. Wangberg, George Arnold, C. F. Meth.
Sanitary Committee—P. F. Allaman, E. R. Hoy, J. Isline.
Union Label Committee—J. B. Schupp, Herbert Bostelle, John Becker.

A communication from the barbers' union asked the endorsement of the Central Labor union and the affiliated locals for an ordinance to be presented to the city council asking for a Sunday closing ordinance that would make it a misdemeanor to do any barbering on Sunday. The musicians' union protested against the action of the city in not continuing to employ union musicians at all park concerts.
