HE glittering records or John W. Gates and Pittsburgh Phil as lavish spenders of perfectly good money are scheduled to good money are scheduled to sink into the deep well of insugnificance if Charle Weeghmann, owner of the Chicago Cubs keeps up his present clip. During his carreer as a Fed magnate. Weeghmann made the base ball world gasp by his apparent teckless expenditures, but his record this summer bids well to make his former one pale in comparison. Weeghmann is another of the traditional geniuses who has "run a shoestring geniuses who has "run a shoestring geniuses who has "run a shiestring into a million." Only it is suspected Weighmann ran his shoestring into several million. He became a multi-millionaire through the restaurant business. Now he has entered base business. Now he has entered base ball. After spending thousands and thousands of dollars for talent when a Federal, Weeghmann spent half a million dollars in purchasing the Cubs. He had the choice of his old Fed team and the Cubs. Joe Tinker made his player selections from these two teams but the available. these two teams but the amalgama-ted Cubs failed to deliver the mer-chandise. The ordinary mortal would have said: "Well, I have done the base sain! Well, I have spent a fortune already." But Weeghmann isn't the ordinary mortal. He's a gambler who does not hesitate to take the longest kind of a chance. When he learned his team needed strengthening he immediately hearn to comb. ening, he immediately began to comb the bushes for stars. He put in bids for every highly-routed husher in the minors. In this way he ob-tained Shortstop Wortman of Kansas tarned Shortstop Wortman of Kansas City, Outfielder Joe Kelley of Indian-apolis, Pitcher Nick Carter from the same team and Catcher Rowdy Fl-hot from Oakland Wortman cost over $20,000 in cash and players. Kel-ley cost $15,000 and Outfielder Zwilling. Carter cost another $14,000 ley Zwilling U Carter cost another $14,000 lifot brought another big And still Weeghmann is not content; several more big deals are pending. The Chicago magnate is the sensation of base ball and his utter disregard for money is causing his brother magnates to lose lots of valuable sleep trying to figure out when it all will end. Like a flash of lightning out of a hot sky, like falling heir to a fortune, like the touch of water on a parched throat, was the news from St. Joseph Thursday that Lou North wrenched his arm while warming up for a game. It was a severe wrench. The arm did not mend readily. And it was feared Lou North might never be the pitcher of old. But the accounts show North hurled a good game Thursday. After the third inning he allowed but one hit and did not issue a walk. That means he whizzed the hall over the plate in his old-time form, with his old-time speed, his old-time control. And it makes all Omaha rejoice. For with North back in the game to take his turn regularly in the box it means Omaha stands a much better chance to hold her lead in the hitter fight for the pennant. North is easily the twirling class of the loop—or at least he was before the injury—and he will win a lot of ball games. But Omaha not only rejoices because North is such a valuable member of the Rourke machine. It is not so selfish, It rejoices for North's sake. Because Lou stands an excellent chance to go back up to the majors if he can keep up the pace he set early in the year. And if he does go up he stands a good chance to stick. Here's hoping North's come-back at St. Joseph Mark and the does go up he stands a permanent one.

go back up to the majors if he can keep up the pace he set early in the year. And if he does go up he stands a good chance to stick. Here's hoping North's come-back at St. Joseph will be a permanent one.

What has got into the St. Louis Browns? Following a wretched start Fielder Jones' men played very bad ball until the middle of July. The team was way down in the race and it seemed as if it were doomed to stay down. Then suddenly it began to spurt and up to Saturday had won fourteen straight games in a row. It passed the 500 mark and is within striking distance of the lead. If Jones can continue to set even a reasonable pace the rest of the year the Browns will finish high in the ranks. And just for a guess the Browns will continue to play real ball. Even before the season started the Browns had the earmarks of a ball club. It looked uighty good on paper. Its lack of success was an enigma. Nobody could understand it. But evidently lones has succeeded in getting his men to playing together. And Jones is a good enough manager to keep them playing together. And James the Browns are going to make trouble in that nifty little American league race.

Pittsburgh by the Chicago Cubs was something of a surprise despite the fact that the transfer followed an advertisement that a house-cleaning in the ranks of the Cubs was about to occur. Why did Tinker choose to diseard Schulte? It seems strange, For Schulte was the sole survivor of that famous old Cubs machine of a decade ago and he held a warm spot in the hearts of Chicago fans. He was one of the most popular ball players that ever wore a glove. He was a mighty good box office attraction in Chicago. And, above all, he was playing bang-up ball. He was hitting over 300 and fielding like a demon In fact, he was one of the few Cubsplaying No. 1 caliber base ball. One of the coincidences of Schulte's long career as a Cub was that he was defined to honor his contract.

TO SHOW NEW LIFE

New York, Aug. 5 .- Although the Cincinnati Reds have been outdistanced by seven other clubs for the championship of the National league, the team is already beginning to show the effects of Mathewson's leadership. In recent games there has been snan and aggressiveness about the Reds work, and though they have been down near the cellar for a long time, the attuation is not so morose and moody as one would imagine.

"Matty" caught the fancy of his players at once and has their good will and respect. They realize he is the one player entitled to the best that is conting to him. Already the Red-land clai has improved wonderfully, and with any kind of luck should make a commendable showing on preparation for camptign over the mile tracks.

There are also several $1,000 purses, the smallest being $500 unless the lone $300 added stake is taken into consideration. All told, the big feild of entries will battle for an aggregate of $12,300 in long green, which is "some money" for a meeting in this neck of the woods.
