We were attaid we would not be believed if we told the truth. you re-member, so when we got back to camp the next norming we bid the others that we had spent the night at the Lee's cottags. It was a foolsh-an insame thing-but we did it. They say that lies have a way of coming home to rooset and it is guite true. for the befoot-a great black, uply thing that is driving me wild. It same that a few days after we left Eake Placid Harel Abernethy happened to meet Mrs. Lee at the beat club ad thanked her for taking care of us. Of cours Mrs. Lee had no ides what Hazel was driving at, an asid so-ad then the cat was out of the bag. And if anything were needed to make maturs worse, os of the guides told Mrs. Abernethy that he had seen us coming out of the cabin at I o'clock in the morn-ing. Hazel is, as you know, a modern edition of the town orfer, and then its to wer in-duction and a sing a sing the worse, but he worst in the was that we spet the night to gether in the bag. Is as you know, a modern edition of the town orfer, and the the other in-ductions circulation of the story, everyone throws that we spet the night to gether in the cabin-and, of course, puts the worst possible interpretation upon it. Tou know and I know that we did no wrong, but no armount of denial will convince others of our innoceance. I'm not bisming you, Jarvis, but you have compromised me. Indeed, I already begin to see signs of ournetam. At the Hildreth's dinner the other night that im-
