MEETS MANY THOUSANDS After Luncheon Automobile Ride Is Taken Through the Parks.

SPEECH IN THE EVENING

Chicago, Aug. 8.—Charles E. Hughes, here on the second day of his trans-continental trip, rested today from the activities of yesterday in Detroit, and devoted several hours to preparing the speech he will deliver tonight in the Coliseum.

Mr. Hughes saw Chairman Willcox of the national committee, Mayor Thompson and other political leaders, paid a visit to the western headquarters and held a public reception. He shook hands with a long line of callers. After luncheon he went for an automobile ride through the park and boulevard system.

During the one hour reception Mr. Hughes shook hands with approximately 3,000 persons.

The reception closed with Mr. Hughes shaking the hands of a hundred or more policemen who formed his escort during his trips through the crowded loop district.

The nominee's throat gave him a little trouble last night, but he appeared rested and in good voice today.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes will dine at 6 o'clock at the Blackstone hotel, after which the nominee goes to the Coliseum for his address of the evening.

The nominee's speech, it is said, will be one of the most important he will deliver on his present tour. He is to leave for St. Paul and the west at 10:45 o'clock tonight.

Blind Man Runs Amuck In Columbus Hospital

Columbus, Neb., Aug. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Travis Monesmith, better known as Hospital Joe, was arrested late last evening by Officer Lonny Jawroski and placed in the city jail. Monesmith is totally blind and was furnished with liquor which made him insane for the time being. He attacked several patients at St. Mary's hospital, breaking the arm of one woman and stamping an old man very nearly to death who is in a very precarious condition tonight with the chances of recovery against him.

Joe had formerly been employed at the hospital as a janitor until about May 24 when in some mysterious manner some one threw wash basin full of lye water into his face which blinded him. He was then taken to Omaha for relief, but none could be given him.

He will not make a confession who the parties might be. Police Schram with him this afternoon trying to get him to confess, but he stubbornly refuses to do so. Several parties are suspected. County Judge Ratterman this afternoon notified his mother and sister in Dayton, O., of the mysterious condition but thus far no word has been received.

TRACTOR MAGNATES SEE THE BIG SHOW

Henry Ford and Cyrus H. McCormick Are at Fremont Exhibition.

THOUSANDS COME IN AUTOS

Fremont, Neb., Aug. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—The largest crowd that ever assembled for a tractor demonstration at Fremont, estimated at from 8,000 to 10,000 people, saw the first afternoon's program of plowing at the fourth annual tractor show here today.

Sixty-five machines were in the field at one time. There were over 700 automobiles on the grounds.

The weather was ideal and the crowds began to arrive early in the forenoon. By noon it was predicted that all records would be smashed. People came in automobiles from Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado, Wyoming, the Dakotas and all parts of Nebraska.

A larger crowd is looked for tomorrow and the next day. Tomorrow will be Ford owners' day, when it is expected large numbers of owners of Ford automobiles in Nebraska and surrounding states will assemble here.

Cyrus H. McCormick, the Chicago manufacturer, arrived today and will remain here for a few days, watching the demonstration.

Henry Ford was on the grounds again today. He attended the get-together banquet at the Commercial club rooms Monday evening. His orchestra, composed of five Hawaiian musicians, furnished music.

This evening the Ford weekly moving pictures were shown on the high school lawn and the Ford orchestra furnished music for a big crowd. The school grounds were chosen when the park board refused to allow the park to be used for the exhibition.

Tomorrow evening the Stecher-Christensen wrestling match will be the entertainment feature. Thursday evening a fish bake will be given at one of the amusement parks.

Army Bill Report Passed by Senate Without Debate

Washington, Aug. 8.—Without debate the senate today agreed to the conference report on the army appropriation bill, carrying $267,597,000 for maintenance of the reorganized regular army and National Guard.

The only criticism of the report came from Senator Clapp of Minnesota, who protested against elimination of the LaFollette amendment, increasing the minimum age limit for enlistment from 18 to 21 years without consent of parents or guardian. Because of this he voted against the report.

The bill provides for organization of a council for national defense to co-ordinate transportation, industrial and agricultural facilities in time of streets, for relief of dependent families of soldiers in service on the Mexican border and appropriate a special sum of more than $13,000,000 for development of aviation in the army.

Italian Troops Take Bridgehead

Rome, Aug. 8.—(Via London.)—The war office today announced the capture of the Gorizia bridgehead by the Italians. It is said the city is being shelled to drive out the Austrians. More than 8,000 prisoners were taken on August 6.

The Gorizia bridgehead was one of the most important defensive positions of the Austrians along the Isonzo front. It was the scene of heavy fighting in the early months of the war, when the Italians, after making considerable advance, were finally held up along the Isonzo line.

Gorizia is twenty-two miles northwest of Trieste, one of the principal objectives of the Italian campaign and regarded as the key to that position.

BISHOP BEECHER TELLS OF STATE'S TROOPS IN CAMP

Chaplain With Nebraska Regiments Returns to Home in Hastings After Four Weeks on Border.

CAMP IN EXCELLENCE SHAPE Will Soon Deliver Public Address on Conditions as Found Them.

Hastings, Neb., Aug. 8.—(Special.)—That the question of right living will soon be put squarely up to the National Guardsmen on the Mexican border is the opinion of Bishop George Allen Beecher, who has returned from service as chaplain with the Fourth and Fifth regiments of Nebraska.

The bishop has decided to speak on the morals of the guardsmen and the general conditions of the camp at Llano Grande, Tex., at his home, 921 North St. Joseph avenue, at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. The parents, relatives and friends of Hastings guardsmen are cordially invited to come to the bishop's home and listen to what he may have to say of the boys at the front.

Loses Thirty Pounds. The bishop has lost close to thirty pounds since he encamped with the guardsmen on the border two weeks ago. He only weighs about 207 pounds at the present time and is covered with a fine healthy coat of tan. He declares he is now in first class fighting trim.

"The government," declared the bishop, "has done everything possible to keep the morals of the soldiers on the border at a high standard. So far the officials have succeeded, but it will soon be up to the boys to show their manhood by resisting the temptation that is sure to fall in their path."

No saloons or houses of ill repute are allowed within a radius of three miles from the camp, stated the bishop. There is only one place on the outskirts of Mercedes, the Texas town three miles from Llano Grande, where liquor can be secured. This is a beer saloon and no other intoxicants are sold.

Saw No Intoxication. "During the four weeks I was with the boys," said the bishop, "I never saw one intoxicated soldier. I never even saw one who showed any signs of being under the influence of liquor."

Food and the sanitary conditions are of the best, reported Bishop Beecher. Practically the only illness that the boys have suffered since encamping on the border is from typhoid inoculation. Every soldier is inoculated three times as a typhoid preventative. One of three always made the soldier sick; some of the boys being in the hospital for several days. Bishop Beecher was ill five days.

Llano Grande is located three miles from Mercedes. The soil at the point of encampment is sandy, which makes for excellent drainage. The boys have their tents entrenched and a perfect system of drainage has been worked out for the camp. Although there are heavy rains falling almost daily during this season the grounds are kept dry. The boys now have cots, which they lacked upon their arrival at camp.

Everything Burned. Every morning after breakfast a thorough inspection is made. The men and their equipment, the tents and grounds are inspected, the cook, his utensils and even his appearance is taken note of, said the bishop. Incinerators of brick have been erected to burn all the refuse coming from the cooks' tent and, in fact, anything that is not wanted in and about the camp.

There are very few flies at camp, reported the bishop, but the boys are being troubled with millions of small gnats. These little pests are said to be a temporary nuisance, however.

Food is Wholesome. The food, said the bishop, is simple but wholesome and there is plenty of it. The officers of the Fifth regiment have divided themselves into small groups to eat with the privates. There is no officers' mess, the latter eating the same food and from the same cook shacks serving the privates.

"It is pretty hard," remarked the bishop, "to smile and say that you had a fine meal today, but the food is all that a reasonable man could expect under the circumstances."

On the menu of the camp can be found coffee, good bread, beans, bacon, hardtack, plenty of potatoes, fresh meat three times a week, plenty of lemonade, ice tea and other necessities. Each company is issued 180 pounds of ice a day.

Company G Complimented. The bishop reported that Major Nuttman, chief inspecting officer, complimented Captain Hanlen of Company G (Hastings) Tuesday, August 1, on the appearance of his men and their equipment, the cleanliness of the company kitchen, over which Harry Haines presides, and on the general condition of the quarters. The Hastings boys are all feeling fine, but many are impatient over inaction on the border and are anxious to come home. This inaction and the belief that there is no actual service in Mexico led the bishop to resign and return to the duties of his diocese, which under the circumstances he believed to be of more importance.

Married Men Released. The majority of the married men among the guardsmen have made application for discharges and will probably receive them from the government, thought the bishop.

Hospital conditions were poor when the bishop first arrived at camp. He went to work on the job of bettering (Continued on Page 7, Column Three.)

HANLY DISCARDS PART OF PLATFORM

Prohibitionist in Speech of Acceptance Repudiates Initiative, Referendum and Recall.

LANDRITH IS DEMOCRAT

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 8.—J. Frank Hanly, former governor of Indiana, and Dr. Ira Landrith of Boston were notified this afternoon of their respective nominations for president and vice president on the prohibition party ticket.

In his speech of acceptance Mr. Hanly repudiated one plank of the national prohibition platform. He said he did not favor the initiative, referendum and recall; that he would not uphold it in his campaign speeches and, if elected, he would oppose its enactment into a law.

Dr. Landrith said he had always been an independent democrat in Tennessee and asserted he probably would support only the cause which called for state and nation-wide prohibition.

The notification ceremonies were held at Mr. Hanly's residence and were attended by representative prohibitionists from all over the country. Robert H. Patton of Springfield, Ill., delivered the address of notification to Mr. Hanly. He said he believed complete eradication rather than treatment to alleviate the evils of the liquor traffic to be the proper solution to the question before the party.

In reply, Mr. Hanly discussed the planks in the national prohibition platform and approved practically all of them.

Oliver W. Stewart delivered the address of notification to Dr. Landrith, speaking in the place of Daniel A. Poling of Boston, who was unable to attend.

Preceding the notification ceremonies, the national campaign committee of the party met and selected an executive committee to complete the details of the campaign plans. Mr. Hanly's choice for chairman of the committee was selected. He is Oliver W. Stewart, Mr. Hanly's business partner.

The executive committee will meet tomorrow.

New York Swelters When Another Hot Wave Strikes City

Philadelphia, Aug. 8.—Many inspectors, wearing the badge of the state department of health, stationed themselves at the railroad stations, ferries and boat landings along the Delaware river at midnight to bar all children under 16 years of age who attempt to cross into the state without certificates of health.

At the same time, 1,000 other inspectors went on duty in border counties, almost encircling the state with a ring of guards. Thus the department of health, under Commissioner Dixon, took stringent measures to prevent an epidemic of infantile paralysis.

The border quarantine is one of the most stringent health measures ever taken in the state. Virtually all the north, east and south boundaries are being watched by Dr. Dixon's guards.

The action is brought against the Big Horn Sheep company, of which John B. Oakie of Lost Cabin is the principal stockholder. Special agents of the land office have been five years gathering evidence in the case.

Joe Hummel Issues Warning to Autoists

"Gasoline is more dangerous than whisky,"—Commissioner Hummel. The head of the park department, at a regular council meeting, announced that if automobilists who enter public parks do not observe more care they will be denied admittance to the parks.

A lot of yaps and renegades are disregarding the park rules by driving over grass and getting into jams, some are making race tracks of the boulevards. I am here to say that they will find themselves in jail if they don't mend their ways," said Mr. Hummel.

Riverview park seems to be the scene of most of these misdemeanors.

HUGH MURPHY DIES AT OLD ORCHARD, ME.

Pioneer Paving Contractor Dies After Futile Three-Year Fight to Regain Health.

LAID ASPHALT PAVING HERE

Hugh Murphy, pioneer paving contractor of Omaha, died at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning at Old Orchard, Me., where he had gone early this summer to try to regain his health, which had been failing for the last three years.

Three years ago Mr. Murphy suffered a stroke similar to paralysis while at work in his office. He has never been a well man since that day. He traveled to all parts of the country in search of a more adaptable climate, but was never successful. Last winter he spent in the south and when the heat of summer set in, he moved to Old Orchard, Me., where he passed away.

Mr. Murphy was born in Elgin, Ill., sixty-four years ago last April. He was a bricklayer by trade. In 1878 he harkened to the call of Nebraska and came to Omaha. He came to this city a struggling young bricklayer with his only asset an ambition to succeed. He chose the paving contracting business as his field.

Hugh Murphy got into the asphalt paving game early in the history of Omaha paving, laying the long stretch on Sherman avenue. That marked the start of the career that made him one of the biggest paving contractors in the west.

Last winter the biggest paving contract ever let by the city of Omaha was awarded to Murphy. This contract was for some six miles of street north of Miller park at a cost of $100,000.

Mr. Murphy celebrated his thirty-fifth wedding anniversary last Tuesday. His home is at 212 South Thirty-fourth street.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Hugh, jr., and Richard, and two daughters, Mrs. George Adams of Cheyenne and Miss Helen Murphy.

President Wilson summoned Senator Swanson and Representative Padgett, representing the senate and house conferees on the naval bill, to the White House today to gain information on the result of the conferences and to urge again that the house accept the senate provisions for a larger building program and increase in the personnel of the navy. The president was told of the failure of the conferees yesterday to reach an agreement on these two features and was informed that a vote on the conference report would be taken in the house next day.

PUBLIC CAUSE OF HIGH COST OF MEAT

Demand Veal When They Should Let it Grow Into a Regular Beef.

WOULD ADD 400 POUNDS

Every time you, Mrs. Housewife (or Mr. Househusband) buy veal you contribute to increasing the high cost of meat.

So said Arthur S. Pickering of Cleveland, O., president of the United Master Butchers of America, at the convention headquarters of the organization in the Rome hotel.

And why, you ask, do we increase the high cost of meat when we buy veal? Nothing could be simpler. The little calf, which was cut down in its youth by the butcher's hand to supply your appetite for veal, would have contributed to a hungry world 400 additional pounds of good, sound meat if it had been allowed to live just eighteen months longer.

"We waste our meat, we waste it," mourned Mr. Pickering. "That is why meat is high."

People Demand Veal. "Why not point this fact out to the people?" suggested the reporter. "Why not advise veal-desiring customers to buy beef?"

"I tried that," spoke up Henry Heitkam of Detroit, "and I had to stop it. I have the best trade in Detroit and I was losing my customers. The American people want what they want and they let the future take care of itself. If they want veal they'll eat veal, and there's an end to the argument."

It was stated further that more calves are butchered than beefs. In other words, less than half of all the calves in this country are butchered before they have gained that extra 400 pounds each. When you remember that millions of calves are butchered every year, you see that there are billions of pounds of good meat wasted every year.

The opening session of the convention Tuesday morning moved with commendable rapidity. President Pickering stated that "for humanitarian reasons," the program would be put through with dispatch.

Hurry is the Word. The address of welcome by V. F. Kuncel, president of the local Master Butchers' association, took just four minutes. The response by National President Pickering took thirty-two seconds. Presentation of the gavel by Mr. Kuncel to President Pickering took eleven seconds and President Pickering's response took nine seconds.

City Attorney Rine spoke the address of welcome in place of Mayor Dahlgren, and Rev. Dr. O. D. Baltzy offered prayer.

The gavel presented is made of wood from the Black Forest, Germany, and was presented to the national association during a world convention of butchers held in Germany a few years ago.

President Pickering appointed the following committees: Credentials—Percy Nash of St. Paul, William Hassel of Chicago, J. Pfeiffer of St. Louis, J. N. Bowen of Minneapolis and V. F. Kuncel of Omaha.

Policy—J. T. Russell of Chicago, Charles Deible of St. Louis, Henry Heitkam of Detroit, August Grimm of New York, J. Stockinger of Milwaukee, F. E. Herman of Cleveland and J. J. Cameron of Omaha.

The afternoon session was devoted to reports of committee and officers. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected at this morning's session. This afternoon the delegates will visit the stock yards, where they will be the luncheon guests of General Manager Everett Buckingham.

In view of the difficult nature of the ground and the exceptionally favorable positions held by the Austrians, the taking of 3,600 prisoners is regarded as a long step in advance.

The troops which so distinguished themselves are from Leghorn and Turin. They carried out an enveloping movement which made possible the gathering in of prisoners in large numbers.
