Misses— Misses— Misses— Hazsi Benedict of Josephins Congdon, East Orange, N. J. craire Daugherty. Messra.

Visiting Merchants

Are Kept Busy With

The 1,000 or so merchants and their wives who are here for the sixth semi-annual Merchants' Market week attended a luncheon at the Hotel Home at noon and heard Prof.

Mrs. L. G. Doup Dies from

Mrs. Cornelia Doup, wife of Mr.

L. G. Doup, 3607 Jackson street, lo-

Northeast Nebraska Tennis

HOTEL LOYAL

State Trade Specially inviter

Rooms, $1.00 and $1.50

With Bath, $1.50 and Up Cafe the Very Best

Popular Prices STOP AT THE LOYAL

Various Affairs

"Today's Movie Program." classified section today. It appears in The Bee exclusively. Find out what the various moving picture theaters offer. People follow the line of least re-sistance. Make it easy for them to find you by locating your office in The Bee building, the building that is easy of access and that is known to all.

all.

New Sunderland Garage—Bids will be received this week for a new $15,-000 garage to be erected at 1024 South Twenty-first street by the Sunderland Bros company. The structure will be of brick, fireproof construction.

May Be Deported—Antonio Nocito and Joe Sarratore of Omaha were taken in charge by the federal authorities and may be deported. It is alleged they were guilty of acts of moral turpitude before entering this country.

Two Are Given Divorces—Harriet E. Morison has been granted a divorce from Robert A. by Judge Leslie on the ground of cruelty. Her maiden name, Harriet E. Butler, has been restored. They were married in July, 1914. Leila Fox has been granted a divorce from George on grounds of besettlon and failure to provide. She was awarded the custody of the minor child. Walter.

Children Found Together in Room;

Police and juvenile authorities were startled last night at the report turned in by Detectives Lahey and Dolan, in connection with the arrest of a woman rooming house keeper on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a 13-year-old boy and girl. Mrs. Anna Salisbury, 1819 Leaven-

Mrs. Anna Salisbury, 1819 Leavenworth street, is the woman under arrest. Helen Griffin, 13-year-old daughter of a widow living at 2306
South Twentieth, is the little girl, and Robert Strather, 119 Turner boulevard, is the boy.

"Parents allow their youngsters to roam around at night. That's half of it. The other half is that there seems to be an alarming number of lodging house keepers who will harbor the children," was the statement of the officers.

children, was the statement of the officers.

According to the police the little said was left to her own devices most of the time because her mother was busy earning a living. At night she went to public dances. The boy had access to an automobile and a liberal silowance.

allowance.

Both of the children were turned over to the juvenile authorities and Mrs. Salisbury was held in jail with-

Stickups Take Dice Only Off This Victim

In all the records of complaints re-ceived at police headquarters, the one entered yesterday by Harrison Tal-bot, 5303 South Twenty-eighth street, is perhaps the most odd. He was held up by two robbers on the Twenty-fourth street viaduct and a pair of red dice was taken from him. The robbers passed up all of Talbot's valuables. The case was the cause of much conjecture by the police.

A Dutch treat picnic will be given in Elmwood park Friday, which will include eighteen young people. Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Leslie will chaperon the party. Farmer's Wife Files

John Preiss, a farmer of Custer John Preiss, a farmer of Custer county, Nebraska, has been sued for divorce by his wife, Barbara, who declares that she was forced to leave him after two weeks of married life She asserts John Preiss is worth $40,000, that he owns 365 acres of rich agricultural land, many cattle and horses and that he is able to pay for support of herself and 4-year-old child by a former marriage. Mrs. Preiss says she is without funds.

Peculiar Incident Adds Two To List of City Prisoners

Supersensitive galtantry on the part of M. J. Kessler, 514½ Twenty-second street, caused a sensation near Twenty-seventh street and St. Mary's avenue last night and landed him in jail as complaining witness against F. A. Ryness, 2556 St. Mary's avenue, whom he accused of assault. Kessler was walking along St. Mary's avenue with a young woman when Ryness, who is president of the Omaha Modern Floor Cleaning company, passed with another man. "They've only been married a week, and he bit her ear cfl" Somebody said it. Ryness afterwards declared that he did not. Kessler said he did and declared that the remark was directed at himself and his young woman friend. He demanded an apology and got a punch in the eye.

in the eye.

When the police came the neighborhood was cheering and making

The police couldn't make head or tail of the affair, so both men were brought to headquarters. They will settle their troubles in police court.

Omahans Depart for Federal

Training Camp at Plattsburg

About twenty young Omahans departed Tuesday evening on a special car over the Northwestern to undergo a month's military training at the Plattsburg civilian training camp. Several left for the east last week, intending to spend a few days in New York before going into camp. The training period will last from August 10 to September 6, by which time the young men are expected to have picked up the rudiments of military drill, learned to take care of themselves in the open and fitted themselves for preference as officers in any volunteer army which the in any volunteer army which the country may have to raise. The men will live in the open, drill and listen to lectures on military subjects.

Rich Iowa Farmer Suffers

Severe Stroke of Paralysis Henry Corbin, 70-year-old Woodena, Ia., farmer, was stricken sud-denly with paralysis on the platform of the Union depot yesterday, and is lying at St. Joseph's hospital. He is said to be the owner of several thousand acres of farm land near Woodena.

INTERESTED IN POLITICS

By MELLIFICIA-August 9.

Omaha women are no longer the mere pretty flutter-budgets of man's ever. They take just as good care of their families and their establishments as they ever took, and as they should take. But there has come a great change in their lives. Nowainstead of discussing exclu- At Happy Hollow Club. days. sively the latest fashions, the newest household improvements or the servant problem whenever they meet to drink a social cup of tea or hold a hand in a game of cards, they discuss the current topics of the day. Many Omaha women are keen politicians—that is, they are well versed in the political affairs of the day. At a recent card party the talk turned to the presidential candidates and discussion ran high on the question. The prospect of a visit to Omaha of Charles Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ella entertained the employes of the drapery department, Brandeis Stores, Tueston of the presidential candidates and discussion ran high on the question. Wiseman of Grand Island. The following were present: the presidential candidates and discussion ran high on the question. The prospect of a visit to Omaha of Charles Evans Hughes was a subject of great interest. As one well known woman expressed it, "We are no longer limited to our housekeeping: Mary Craven, Meastra— Meastra tional house.

At Seymour Lake Country Club.

Mrs. George Macdonald was hos Mrs. George Macdonald was hostess yesterday at a golf luncheon, when her guests were:

Masdames—John Bekins,
S. E. Mathson,
C. P. S. Tohin,
J. Dean Ringer,
Alien Dudin,
R. C. Vermillen,
S. J. Bell,
A. S. Midlam,
C. A. S. Midlam,
E. A. Rose,
George Macdonald was hostested,
George Miller,
H. M. Townsend,
E. A. Rose,
George Macdonald was hostested,
George Miller,
H. G. Townsend, Mesdames—
L. M. Lord,
M. B. Tagg.
George Francis,
W. H. Tagg.
George Francis,
R. C. Vermillon
John Urlon,
E. A. Rose,
H. C. Townsand,
Charles Vollmer,
W. E. Philby,
F. E. Ames,
Misses—
Ida Kaley,
Helen Donovan.

Deris Berry,

Eighty Seymour golfers and their friends sat down to a sport dinner last evening. The decorations were typical of the golf game. J. Dean Ringer presided as toastmaster and responses were given by W. B. Tagg, Dr. W. A. Cox, J. J. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Allen Palmer. W. B. Overmire read an original poem.

Mrs. George Mickel has arranged an interesting program for the children Thursday. It will include games and other features of interest to the little folks.

Social Worker to Speak.

Mabel Melcher,

Miss Beulah Byrd, head resident at the Social Settlement, will talk along social service lines, Thursday evening, at a meeting of the ladies' auxiliary of McKinley lodge, B'nai Brith. The place of meeting is Lyric building.

Notes at Random.

Miss Elizabeth Kern is spending part of her vacation in Des Moines.

Mrs. Henry Hiller is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Selwyn Jacobs at Norfolk, Va.

Mrs David J. Burden has returned

Mrs David J. Burden has returned from a month spent with her mother and sister in Ithaca and Geneva, N. Y.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Mandelberg in Chicago last week. The Mandelbergs are former Omahans.

Miss Jessie Towne, who has been At the Country Club.

The Wednesday evening dinner-dance has awakened signs of life in the Country club set. Mrs. W. H. Wheeler had four in her luncheon party today.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Peters have

C. O. D. TRACTOR

AT ALL DEMONSTRATIONS

Messra—

Mossra—

Edward Daugherty. Denman Kountze.

At the Saturday evening dinnerdance O. C. Redick has a reservation for fourteen guests.

NOTICE OF AFFAIRS

NOTICE OF AFFAIRS

Await With Interest the Coming of the Presidential Candidate.

INTERESTED IN POLITICS

Luncheon for Miss Olney.

Miss Mary Leslie entertained very informally at luncheon yesterday for Miss Olney of Minneapolis, who is imagination. True, they are just as pretty and just as well dressed as were:

Misses—
Mildred Olney
of Minneapeli
Mary E. Hamili
Mesdames—
Leigh Leslie,
Charles Leslie,

The Happy Hollow Women's Bowl ing club met at the club house today.

Mrs. F. E. Clarke will entertain ten guests at luncheon tomorrow.

At Carter Lake.

Miss Edna Bennett was a luncheon hostess at the club yesterday. Her guests were:

Mosdames— Mesdames—
Gentry of Chicago. E. C. Bennett.
H. C. Frooman,
Missee—
Lillian Rosenaweis, Florence Rosen Misses-Florence Rosense Mrs. W. H. Platner gave a child-ren's party Tuesday afternoon. The Carter Lake Women's Swimming and Bowling club met yester-day. The members and their guests present were:

Mesdames
Alex Jetes,
Carl Johnson,
H. Whitehouse,
W. J. Cattin,
Misses—

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Dermody gave a dinner party for Mr. Jack Hurley of Horton, Mo., last evening. Mr. Otis M. Smith and family are occupying the Ray Bloom cottage while the owners are in Connecticut. Fifty reservations have been made for the cottagers' dinner this evening.

Miss Maude Jorgenson entertained Miss Maude Jorgenson entertained at dinner last evening, Oscar Duryea, the New York dancing master, and Prof. W. E. Chambers. During the intermission Miss Jorgenson and Mr. Duryea demonstrated the dances of the east.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Homan have motored to Des Moines and Sioux City for their vacation.

The cabaret dinner-dance at the club house, which was scheduled for Tuesday evening, has been postponed until this evening.

Other diners were Mr. J. Young with three guests and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fanning and Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Fitzsimmons.

At the Field Club.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Coleman will entertain eight guests at dinner this evening. Mrs. B. W. Christie has a reservation for four.

Mrs. E. C. Abbott will give a lunch-on at the club tomorrow.

At the Country Club.

reservations for nine guests this even-Mr. Denman Kountze has made reservations at me Country club for a small party this evening. Those to be included are:

Lillian Anderson, a comely young vealed a large wicked looking 48 calwoman giving her address as the Savoy hotel, was picked up by detectives Tuesday night at the corner of Seventeenth and Webster streets because she appeared to be angry For Carrying Big Gun with someone. A cursory search re

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Azel Sund, $17 South Twenty-fifth avenue, has returned from Colorado City, Colo, where he took Mrs. Sund for treatment, S. F. Miller, general freight agent of the Northwestern, is in Omaha looking over the western freight situation, which is giving the road all the freight it can handle. Mr. Miller was assistant general freight agent in Omaha several years ago.

"KINNARD"

FOUR-PLOW TRACTOR

The "KINNARD" Tractor was designed with the view of solving the small tractor problem, by meeting the demand for a substantial, small tractor of a size and type that will show the greatest econ-omy and service on the average farm. We make this announcement after its thorough tryout in the fields in the hands of the farmer himself.

the-head type of motor of the vell-known Flour City design; two speeds forward and one reverse: Hyatt Relier Bearings throughout, except the motor bearings; spring mounted in front, and automobile steering device. In designing and equipping the "KINNARD." we have been guided by our 15 years' experience in developing the well-known Flour City heavy duty trastors.

Plenty of Power and Sufficient Weight to Pull Four Plows. SEE THE "KINNARD" AT WORK IN FREMONT. MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. KINNARD-HAINES COMPANY.

Emerson Big Four Tractors

Are Demonstrating the Fact that KEROSENE can be most Successfully used in the Four-Cylinder Vertical Motor-No Smoke-No Waste-Perfect Flexibility. SEE THESE WONDERFUL TRACTORS PLOW ON KEROSENE.

Visit the Big Tent and let us show you why Emerson Big Four Tractors give lasting service.

The Emerson Line of Farming Implements Are Standard the World Over.

BIG FOUR TRACTORS

Have Been Built from the Very Beginning of the Tractor Industry.

EMERSON

PLOWS

And Emerson Big Four Tractors Are Made for Each Other-An Unbeatable Combination

Emerson-Brantingham Implement Co. ROCKFORD, ILLINOIS

Builders of Good Farm Machinery Since 1852.

Branches, Omaha and Lincoln.

THE WOMEN ARE THANKFUL

The C. O. D. 13-25 H. P. is built along practical lines, simple in construction, light in weight, powerful, strong and durable. It is neat and compact, with all parts perfectly subricated and easily ac-

Plan to spend some time at our tent during the demonstration, for we have a message every corn belt farmer should know of. Surely plan to see "this master of all farm jobs."

Dates of demonstrations you are interested in:

Fremont, Neb., August 7-11 . Cedar Rapids, Ia., August 14-18

C. O. D. TRACTOR CO.,

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

The C. O. D. is built in two models and burns kerosene or gaso-

DR. J. C. WOODWARD, 301 Rose Building. Tel. Tyler 260. Omaha