ROURKES FLUNK IN PINCH

Kicking away ball games is getting to be quite the thing among the select circle of Pa Rourke's deluxe athletes. Kewpie Kilduff did it Thursday and yesterday Joe Burg broke into society with a similar stunt.

Burg's costly bungle occurred in the fourth inning. After Lloyd had rolled out Kelleher caught a pass and scooted to third on Rebel Oake's ripping single to right.

The Grizzlies tried to return the gift to the Rourkees in the seventh, but our athletes wouldn't have it.

After Miller went out, Krueger reeled a single into right-center and wiped second. This sent Harrington up in the air and he walked Forsythe and Kilduff, filling the sacks.

O'Toole hurled well. Barring Burg's miscue and the failure of the Rourkees to deliver in the pinch, it was a good ball game.

Both the Bears and Rourkees tried to stage rallies in the ninth and the Bears almost got away with it.

In the home half Krueger opened with a single to left and Forsythe bunted him to second.
