Chinese Banks Are Shaken by Recent

Peking, July 31.—Conflicting ru-mors have been circulated about the finances of the Chinese government since specie payment was suspended on the notes of the Bank of Communication and the Bank of China, the two government financial institutions. Liang Shih-yi, who was the right hand man of Yuan Shi-Kai and the moving spirit in the Bank of Com-munications, has been charged by the revolutionary press with having wrecked the Bank of Communications wrecked the Bank of Communications and brought the government to financial ruin. Auditors are at work and a statement has been promised for many weeks, but is still lacking.

Liang Shi-yi who retired shortly after the death of Yuan-Shi-kai and is now in Hongkong, has issued a statement seeking to marify his con-is now in Hongkong, has issued a statement seeking to justify his own course and defend his administration of the bank. He says that revolutionary troubles proved a great drain upon the government, which was forced to borrow more than $30,000,000 (Mexican) from the Bank of China and $40,000,000 (Mexican) from the Bank of Communications for white out our ening the people with extra taxes.

It is reported on good authority that the outstanding notes of the Bank of Communications and the Bank of China aggregate about $200,000,000 Mexican or $145,000,000 gold. The resources of the two banks are said to aggregate about $90,000,000 Mexican, or $45,000,000 gold, leaving $200,000,000 Mexican, or $100,000,000 gold, to be provided for if the government stands behind the two banks and the complete issues.

Apple and Onion.

During the preparedness parade in New York Colone Charles II. Sheriti, organizer of the demonstration, said on the reviewing stand.

"A nation should be let alone through a feeling of respect—not through a feeling of hatred and horror.

"America in its preparedness program will follow the apple rather than the onion ideal.

"An apple a day, said a man, "will keep the ductor swaw."

"Why stop there?" growled another man of militarist views. "An onion a day will keep overplosty sway."—Pittaburgh Chronice-Telegraph.
