Culinary Hints. Golden Ball Fritters. Put one cup of boiling water in a saucepan, add one tablespoonful of butter. While it is boiling hot add all at once a cupful of sifted flour and stir briskly till it is a smooth dough. Take from the fire and add one by one three or four eggs, beating each one in well before adding the next. Stand till cold. Heat a pot of lard or crisco to boiling and drop in by the teaspoonful the dough and fry to a golden brown. The puffs should be hollow inside and very light. Drain a moment on paper and serve on a napkin and dust with a little powdered sugar.

Macedoine of Vegetables in Aspic. Four ounces tomatoes, twelve ounces cooked butter beans, two hard-boiled eggs, one pint aspic jelly. Skin tomatoes and slice. Skin butter beans. Rub the yolks of eggs through the sieve and cut the white into dice. Put a little jelly into a plain mould and when set decorate with white and yolk of egg. Put in a little more jelly to set the decoration and then the rest of the vegetables in layers. Fill up the mould with the rest of the jelly and leave until set. Turn out and serve on lettuce leaves with any preferred salad dressing.

General Joffre Honors American Women Through Chicago Artist

MISS GRACE CASSETTE

UNITED FILM SERVICE

Miss Grace Cassette, a well known Chicago artist, has the honor of being the first American woman to be presented to General Joffre, the leader of the French armies, at his headquarters. Learning that Miss Cassette was in the war zone, introducing a new surgical bandage, General Joffre invited her to pay him a visit at his headquarters. He told her that he was especially glad to take the opportunity of expressing France's gratitude for the personal services rendered by American women to the French cause. He also complimented the work of the American ambulance.

Miss Cassette numbers hosts of Omaha women among her friends and visited Mrs. John Bourke here about three or four years ago. At that time she painted portraits of Mrs. John N. Baldwin, Mrs. Howard Baldrige, a small daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Summers, David Baum and one of Mrs. Bourke's daughters, Mrs. Baldwin, who is summing in the east, writes her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Guio, that she is not at all surprised at the honors heaped upon Miss Cassette for her work. "She is such a clever woman and so tireless in her willingness to work," writes Mrs. Baldwin.

TWO DAYS OF RAIN WETS ALL OF STATE

Farmers Rejoice at Downpour Which Insures the Corn Crop.

COOL ALL OVER NEBRASKA

Nearly all Nebraska has been soaked with rain in the last forty-eight hours, according to weather bureau reports. Auburn had 3.10 inches, Fairmont 2.40, Lincoln, 2.19, Holdrege 1.87, Grand Island 1.63, Fairbury 1.49 and so on. At many places the rain was still falling at 7 a. m. when the above figures were made.

The rainfall in Omaha up to noon Monday was .35 of an inch when it stopped. The coolness prevails all over the state. The maximum reached yesterday in Nebraska was only 79 degrees, that being at Columbus. Omaha's maximum was 77 and the minimum 63 degrees.

A feature of Sunday's weather was that in Kansas they had heat ranging from 100 to 104 degrees and at Argyle, Minn., they had frost.

Start Saturday Night.

Reports to the railroad headquarters in Omaha told of the best general rain of the year in Nebraska, in that hardly a section of the state was slighted by the showers, which started Saturday night and have kept up spasmodically since that time.

The rains were of vast benefit to the corn, especially in the southern and southwestern portions of the state, where there was a crying need of moisture. In other sections, however, although assuredly no harm was done, the rains were not needed so badly.

All divisions on the Northwestern in Nebraska reported beneficial showers, the precipitation reports showing from a half inch to an inch and a half of moisture. Northwestern officials averred that J. Pluv's visit was exceedingly welcome to corn growers.

Likewise, the reports of good, soaking showers from points on the Union Pacific were general. In the southern part of the state, where a substantial rain found a double welcome, the showers were so heavy that the roadbed along some stretches of track was made soft, resulting in the Kansas City train into Omaha being an hour late.

Reports from the Omaha, Lincoln, Wymore and McCook divisions on the Burlington, a territory taking in the main portions of the state, indicated a general rainfall, ranging from one-fourth to an inch and a half, and causing great joy among the farmers.

Teacher Who Weds Wants to Get On the Pension Roll for Teachers

Is Former Principal Lulu Hunt of the Miller Park school entitled to a pension for long service as teacher in the Omaha schools?

The former principal wants to know. The Board of Education says she is not. The former principal did not stop to argue the matter with members of the board. Oh, no. She was busy with other matters. When she resigned in the spring, she resigned upon the request of Cupid, for she was married a few weeks later.

But in spite of the fact that she married and went to Massachusetts to live, she did not give up the idea of getting a pension from the Omaha Board of Education.

She engaged an attorney to look into the legal phases of the matter, and this is quietly going on at the present time.

A teacher in the Omaha schools is generally understood to be entitled to a pension when she has taught thirty-five years.

Extra time is allowed those who teach in the summer schools. Soldiers of the regular army count service in the Philippines and Alaska as double time when recording years of service looking toward getting a retirement pension.

Well, some such system is understood to obtain in the school teaching service in Omaha with regard to service in teaching in summer school.

"I taught five summers when I didn't really care to do so, just to help me on the required time to get the pension allowance," said Miss Hunt before she left Omaha. "And now they are trying to keep me from the pension."

Miss Hunt believed she had adequate precedent for her claim for a pension, but the board said "No."

She quoted Former Superintendent Davidson as saying that summer school should count toward the pension claim, and declared she had met all the requirements as Davidson had set them down years ago. "Nothing doing," said the board.

Clifton is Promoted to Division Freight Agent

Two promotions and the creation of a new office on the Union Pacific system will result from an order issued by General Freight Agent C. J. Lane.

Effective August 15, W. D. Clifton, traveling freight agent, with headquarters in Omaha, will become division freight agent at Cheyenne, to handle the rapidly growing business at that point.

Mr. Clifton has been with the Overland system since 1886, working up from the bottom to his present position.

He will be succeeded as traveling freight agent by W. W. Drummy, clerk in the freight rate department and popular about headquarters.

Jury Finds Carrier Shot Dempsey in Self-Defense

The coroner's inquest over the body of Jack Dempsey, who was shot last Wednesday in a row with Walter Carrier at the Reno hotel and who died Friday at St. Joseph's hospital, found that Carrier shot in self-defense and recommended his release.

According to Carrier's story, which was supported by other lodgers at the hotel, Dempsey started the row Wednesday evening and had been one of a gang who beat up Carrier several days before.

Harry Root and Big Jeff Land Sixteen-Pound Pick

Taxi Driver Sues Another for $5,000

When J. Howard Shinn, chauffeur, extended a helping hand to Morton Ehrenreich, taxicab driver, when Ehrenreich's car was stranded without gasoline on the Dodge road, near the Rosenfeld peony farm, trouble arose over the settlement. Suit for $5,000 filed against Shinn was the result of the fracas.

One dollar for three gallons of gasoline started trouble. Ehrenreich declares that after demands were made on him for payment for the gasoline he said: "If you have nerve enough to charge me $1 for three gallons of gasoline I have nerve enough to pay it." He was afterward approached for the loan of two-bits by the friendly taxi driver, according to his complaint.

Physical injuries, along with embarrassment, caused before his five passengers justify the payment of $5,000 by Shinn, according to the complaint. The trouble arose at 2.30 on the morning of August 12. Attorney Wayne E. Sawtell is representing Ehrenreich.

C. R. Weir Fires Several Shots at Burglar, Misses

With complete disregard for glowing lights which proved inhabitants of the house were still awake, a daring burglar attempted to gain entrance to the home of C. R. Weir in Glen park, Benson, Sunday about midnight. The prowler first tried to force a window, but failed. A few minutes later he tried to pick the lock on the front door. This time Mr. Weir's attention was attracted by members of the household, who were downstairs and, securing his revolver, he gave pursuit, but the man escaped. Several shots were fired, but went wild.

Spot Light Ordinance Recommended for Passage

City Commissioner Kugel's automobile spotlight ordinance has been recommended for passage by the city council committee of the whole. The ordinance will be brought up in regular way Tuesday morning. This measure prohibits the use of these spotlights on paved streets or boulevards within the limits of the city. Mr. Kugel said he made a careful investigation of the subject and is convinced there is need of this legislation. "These spotlights have no place in a civilized community," remarked J. E. George, who attended the council meeting.
