

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

Cash wheat is trifle weak and Rules One to Two Cents Lower in Price. CASH RECEIPTS IMPROVED

Omaha, August 17, 1916. Cash wheat was a trifle weak today and rules one to two cents lower.

Table with columns for Wheat, Corn, Oats, and other grains. Includes prices for various grades and quantities.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,545,000 bu. and shipments 1,845,000 bu. against receipts and shipments of 1,400,000 bu. last year.

Table titled 'OMAHA GENERAL MARKET' listing prices for various commodities like flour, sugar, and oil.

Table titled 'KANSAS CITY GENERAL MARKET' listing prices for wheat, corn, and other goods.

Table titled 'CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS' listing prices for wheat, corn, and other commodities.

LIVE STOCK MARKET

Cattle Active Sellers and Good Kinds Stronger—Sheep and Lambs Steady to Strong. HOGS WEAK TO 10 CENTS UP

Omaha, August 17, 1916. Receipts were: Cattle, 10,500; Hogs, 10,000; Sheep, 5,000.

Table listing prices for various types of cattle, hogs, and sheep.

Receipts and disposition of live stock at the Union Stock yards, yesterday.

Table titled 'DISPOSITION—HEAD' showing the disposition of live stock.

Desirable kinds were active and a little stronger, if anything, than yesterday, pretty much everything changing hands in good season in the morning.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Railroad Stocks a Little Slow, But Other Issues Hold Up Well. COPPERS KEEP GOING UP

New York, Aug. 17.—The crisis in the railway situation, as disclosed by President Wilson's action in terminating the railway executive in Washington, was the only restraining influence in today's active and generally strong market.

Table listing prices for various New York stocks, including railroad and copper stocks.

Chicago Live Stock Market. Chicago, Aug. 17.—Cattle—Receipts, 4,000 head; market active, good.

St. Joseph Live Stock Market. St. Joseph, Aug. 17.—Cattle—Receipts, 1,000 head; market steady.

New York Money Market. New York, Aug. 17.—Prime Mercantile Paper—Exchange—Sixty-day bill, 4.7 1/2.

Build Big Grain House at Decatur. A big elevator is to be built at Decatur for sacking and loading grain into the steamboat plying between Decatur and Omaha.

HAUSER MAY GET ONE MORE CHANCE

Application for New Trial Will be Forwarded to Supreme Court This Week. ALLEGES ERRORS BY SEARS

Arthur Hauser, convicted of manslaughter for the killing of William H. Smith, cashier of the Woodmen of the World, on October 16, 1915, may have one last chance to secure his liberty, or a reduction of his sentence.

More trouble arose when Greenlaw was taken to the farm house and the wound seared with turpentine, injected with a syringe that had been used for squirting serum into hogs as an antidote against disease.

Forty Appeal Cases Are Up Before Judge Sears. Forty cases, appealed from the police and justice courts, charging defendants with a variety of offenses came before Judge W. G. Sears.

Police Officers Are Still Wearing Coats. Although the city commissioners have passed the ordinance allowing patrolmen to wear hats, the order from headquarters has not been promulgated and the men are still wearing their coats.

Judge Gives Autoist Blue Book With Rules of Road. C. Skellinger, 1921 South Tenth street, who violated the rules of the road with his automobile, was fined $1 and costs in police court.

Police Officers Are Still Wearing Coats. Although the city commissioners have passed the ordinance allowing patrolmen to wear hats, the order from headquarters has not been promulgated and the men are still wearing their coats.

Mrs. H. E. Simpson Marks Up Record for Women Bowlers. Mrs. H. E. Simpson established a new record for women bowlers on the Carter Lake club alleys by shooting a 229 game. This is the highest single game ever rolled by a woman on the Carter lake drives.

WANTS BIG DAMAGES FOR THE LOSS OF HIS BIG TOE

For one big toe—$20,000. That's what Benjamin Greenlaw, farmer at Gilmore, owes him for the loss of the member under extenuating circumstances while employed by the husbandman on All Fool's day, 1916.

More trouble arose when Greenlaw was taken to the farm house and the wound seared with turpentine, injected with a syringe that had been used for squirring serum into hogs as an antidote against disease.

Forty Appeal Cases Are Up Before Judge Sears. Forty cases, appealed from the police and justice courts, charging defendants with a variety of offenses came before Judge W. G. Sears.

Police Officers Are Still Wearing Coats. Although the city commissioners have passed the ordinance allowing patrolmen to wear hats, the order from headquarters has not been promulgated and the men are still wearing their coats.

Judge Gives Autoist Blue Book With Rules of Road. C. Skellinger, 1921 South Tenth street, who violated the rules of the road with his automobile, was fined $1 and costs in police court.

Police Officers Are Still Wearing Coats. Although the city commissioners have passed the ordinance allowing patrolmen to wear hats, the order from headquarters has not been promulgated and the men are still wearing their coats.

Mrs. H. E. Simpson Marks Up Record for Women Bowlers. Mrs. H. E. Simpson established a new record for women bowlers on the Carter Lake club alleys by shooting a 229 game.

Mrs. H. E. Simpson Marks Up Record for Women Bowlers. Mrs. H. E. Simpson established a new record for women bowlers on the Carter Lake club alleys by shooting a 229 game.

HAUSER MAY GET ONE MORE CHANCE

Application for New Trial Will be Forwarded to Supreme Court This Week. ALLEGES ERRORS BY SEARS

Arthur Hauser, convicted of manslaughter for the killing of William H. Smith, cashier of the Woodmen of the World, on October 16, 1915, may have one last chance to secure his liberty, or a reduction of his sentence.

More trouble arose when Greenlaw was taken to the farm house and the wound seared with turpentine, injected with a syringe that had been used for squirring serum into hogs as an antidote against disease.

Forty Appeal Cases Are Up Before Judge Sears. Forty cases, appealed from the police and justice courts, charging defendants with a variety of offenses came before Judge W. G. Sears.

Police Officers Are Still Wearing Coats. Although the city commissioners have passed the ordinance allowing patrolmen to wear hats, the order from headquarters has not been promulgated and the men are still wearing their coats.

Judge Gives Autoist Blue Book With Rules of Road. C. Skellinger, 1921 South Tenth street, who violated the rules of the road with his automobile, was fined $1 and costs in police court.

Police Officers Are Still Wearing Coats. Although the city commissioners have passed the ordinance allowing patrolmen to wear hats, the order from headquarters has not been promulgated and the men are still wearing their coats.

Mrs. H. E. Simpson Marks Up Record for Women Bowlers. Mrs. H. E. Simpson established a new record for women bowlers on the Carter Lake club alleys by shooting a 229 game.

Advertisement for 'ONE MORE CHANCE' featuring a trial application for Arthur Hauser.

Advertisement for 'WANTS BIG DAMAGES FOR THE LOSS OF HIS BIG TOE' featuring Benjamin Greenlaw.

Advertisement for 'FORTY APPEAL CASES ARE UP BEFORE JUDGE SEARS'.

Advertisement for 'POLICE OFFICERS ARE STILL WEARING COATS'.

Advertisement for 'JUDGE GIVES AUTOIST BLUE BOOK WITH RULES OF ROAD'.

Advertisement for 'MRS. H. E. SIMPSON MARKS UP RECORD FOR WOMEN BOWLERS'.

Advertisement for 'POLICE OFFICERS ARE STILL WEARING COATS'.

Advertisement for 'MRS. H. E. SIMPSON MARKS UP RECORD FOR WOMEN BOWLERS'.

Large advertisement for 'HAYDEN'S FRESH FISH FRIDAY' with a list of fish prices.