OMAHA WINS RUBBER COMBAT OF SERIES

Marty O'Toole Hurls Splendid Ball and Mates Give Enough Runs to Win.

GAIN GAME ON THE LINKS

While Marty O'Toole was silencing the hostile artillery in proficient fashion, Earl Smith, Marty Krug, Shag Thompson and Kewpie Kilduff delivered pinch blows with much eclat and Omaha made it three out four from the tamed and docile Wolves by a score of 3 to 1, yesterday afternoon.

Also, the obliging Grizzlies walloped the daylight out of the lowly Links, and the Rourkes increased their lead in the scramble for the pennant by five and a half games. Three cheers and a hooray.

Little Willie Davis was on the hurrying mound for the Wolves. Little Willie got away to a flying start by retiring the first eight batters in order. Then he got careless and with two out in the third, walked Marty O'Toole. Earl Smith smashed the next pitch into left for a safety and Marty Krug's infield hit completely congested the bases. At this period Shag Thompson made a hero out of himself. Diminutive Shag plastered a swell line-drive single into left center, scoring O'Toole and Smithy.

Davis found the going easy in the subsequent three rounds, but got into trouble again in the seventh. Kewpie Kilduff opened the stanza by bouncing a double off Coy's shins. Burg flew out and Kewpie advanced to third on O'Toole's grounder. Earl Smith made his second hit by beating one out, and Kilduff trotted home. 'Davis was derricked in the eighth for a sniper and Craig blanked the Rourkes in the home half of that spasm.

While all this was going on Marty O'Toole was subduing the Wolves easily. Only once did they mark on him. In the second inning, Coy singled, took second on Smith's error, third when Gray beat out a bunt, and scored while Marty O'Toole was executing a double killing on Jackson's grounder.

The fray was enlivened by a number of more or less interesting events. In the eighth inning Kewpie Kilduff was spiked in the leg by Bill Fox when Bill slid into third base which Kewpie held the ball, however, and not Mr. Fox out. The cutler on Bill's shoes cut a deep gash in Kewpie's pin, but the youngster gave it a little first aid treatment and gamely continued. Kewpie now has a charley horse and a spiked leg. There might be something else the matter with him if he had a couple of more legs.

Ump. Colgate made a decision in the seventh and nobody knew what it was until the following inning. Hannah was at bat and Gray was on third. Two were out and Hannah had two strikes. Gray attempted to steal home. O'Toole grooved the ball, Hannah played it up and Krueball, Hannah passed it up and Krueball made the play on Gray at the plate. Colgate called "you're out." Nobody knew whether Gray was stealing or whether Hannah was called out on strikes until the next inning when Colgate refused to let Hannah bat, thus making it evident Hannah had whiffed.

Spectator Faints. In the early part of the game a spectator fainted from the heat. It was from the heat, not from looking at the Wichita team.

Shag Thompson appeared with a new glove yesterday and immediately identified himself as no Irishman. The glove is a beautiful orange color. The Wolves made their last appearance of the year in Omaha yesterday, and no more will Roaring Bill Rapps try to modify the landscape by scooping up all the dirt in the vicinity of home plate.

Today St. Joseph comes for six games. Today will be ladies' day. Double-headers are carded for both Saturday and Sunday.

GRAIN EXCHANGE CLOSES FOR RACES

Purse Named After Exchange to be Raced for an Opening Day.

FAST HORSES ARE COMING

The Omaha grain exchange will close next Tuesday afternoon in order that all employees in the building may have the opportunity of attending the opening of the Great Western circuit races, to be held at the Speedway track under the auspices of the Omaha Driving club.

The first classic of the meeting—the Omaha grain exchange purse of $1,000—will be raced Tuesday afternoon with a field of some of the fastest trotters in the United States and Canada eligible to the 2:14 class.

The officials for the Great Western circuit's premier in Nebraska have been selected. They are Oliver Leahman of Detroit, starter; W. H. McCree of Hastings, Neb., presiding judge; E. P. Peck and C. M. Buck of Omaha, associate judges. All of these officials are well known in horsemanship. Mr. Leahman having one of the greatest records in the country as a starter. The timers will be named later.

Omaha Horse Wins

A hint of what can be expected at the Great Western circuit races here on the fastest half-mile track in the United States was the great win of Ben Earl, Edward Peterson's famous pacer, at Burlington, Ia., Wednesday.

Ben Earl won in three straight heats in the 2:32 pacing class, showing time of 2:06 1/4, 2:07 3/4 and 2:07 1/4. The race was over a half-mile track. Tom Dennison, who has been attending race meetings and following the harness game since he was a boy, has returned from Burlington, declaring that Ben Earl paced the prettiest heats and made the fastest time for the 2:12 class in his experience as a horsemanship.

As the East Omaha Speedway track is even faster and better conditioned than the Burlington oval, horsemen are predicting freely that records will go by the boards here.
