Delays pay no profits---now is the time to buy Omaha Real Estate

Ten years from today, yes, five years from today, men will be saying, "I wish I had bought that property at $20 a foot that was offered me a few years ago; it sold yesterday for Sixty-five Dollars a Foot."

There are people today, those who invest their money for gain, who are skeptical of real estate values in a growing city like Omaha, just as some people were ten and five years ago.

Meanwhile others bought and made big profits.

Read the advertisements on this page and make a personal investigation of those which sound interesting. "Go out and look Saturday."

North Staters to Come to Den Show By Motor Car Route

Monday night the business men and farmers up and down the line of the M. & O. railway will be entertained at Ak-Sar-Ben den. They will not come by rail, however. They are to come by automobile. They could not get the special train when they wanted it last week, so they have decided not to take it at all.

John A. Swanson, in his big automobile drove Secretary "Dad" Weaver and Governor Charles Black of Ak-Sar-Ben all over that country Thursday. They talked with the business men in Blair, Herman, Tekamah, Craig, Oakland, Lyons and Decatur. Thus they arranged the program for next Monday night, and secured the promise that 100 or more automobiles will come to Omaha from these places for the entertainment and initiation. The autos from the northern towns are to assemble after a fashion at Tekamah, and from there they are to drive in a body to Blair. The autos from the towns farther down the road are to assemble at Blair, where they will wait for the caravan from the north.

Then there shall be a mighty honking of horns and the great body of autos will move in a mass upon Omaha. At Florence the visitors are to be met by the Ak-Sar-Ben reception committee.

Dahlman Asks All to Become Horse Race Fans Again

Mayor Dahlman has issued the following proclamation, urging all to attend the opening of the Great Western Circuit races here next Tuesday.

"On Tuesday afternoon, August 22, at 2 o'clock, the Omaha Driving club opens a five-day session at its grounds at Carter lake, Omaha, being in the Great Western Circuit, which includes Cleveland, Detroit, Peoria, Galesburg and Burlington. Many out-of-town horsemen will be present and take part in the races, and many horses of note have been entered. This promises to be one of the largest meets ever held in the west and Omaha should show her appreciation and interest by attending these races, therefore,

"I, James C. Dahlman, mayor of Omaha, do hereby urge and request the business men and commercial interests to close their offices and places of business on the afternoon of Tuesday, August 22, that their employes may have an opportunity to attend these races.

"JAMES C. DAHLMAN, Mayor."

Father Wants Property to Go to Six Children

Charles Erickson, aged 78, Nebraska pioneer, appeared before County Judge Crawford to answer an application of his daughter, Mrs. Nellie Nelson of Fremont, asking that Peter A. Edquist be appointed guardian of his estate. The daughter alleges that the aged father is incompetent to handle his property, valued at about $5,000. The pioneer declared that the object of the legal action by the daughter is to secure possession of his will which makes her the sole legatee. He asserts that he wishes his property equally divided between the six children.
