"BILLY" TALKS FOR THE DRY CAMPAIGN

Reaches Omaha at Midnight and Takes Early Train for Lincoln.

AT AUDITORIUM LAST NIGHT

Shaking hands with a host of friends and admirers in true Rooseveltian style and displaying a Sagamore Hill smile, Rev. "Billy" Sunday, after a night, or rather, a morning, for he arrived at midnight from the west, spent in Omaha, departed for Lincoln over the Burlington at 9:15 o'clock yesterday morning.

Punctuating his remarks with frequent references to the success of the "dry" movement in Nebraska, the famous ball player-evangelist declared that he was feeling "bully" and that he looked forward with pleasure to speaking in Omaha again.

Take Detectives Along.

In the party going to Lincoln Friday morning were Mr. Sunday and four Omahans, F. D. Wead, Elmer Thomas, James Allan and George Stryker, the latter two being private detectives. Why the detectives are accompanying the Sundays to the state capital was not divulged.

He arrived in Omaha at midnight with "Ma" Sunday and in a taxi, accompanied by Dr. W. F. Callfas, 903 Mercer Park boulevard, drove straight to the Callfas home, where he retired immediately.

"I'm too tired to talk now," Sunday exclaimed, running nimbly from the train to a waiting taxicab, when reporters approached him.

Was.es No Time.

He smiled th famous Sunday smile and the machine whisked away. He was at the depot less than two minutes and fewer than half a dozen friends met him.

Sunday spoke at North Platte yesterday afternoon to nearly 4,000 people, delivering his famous "Booze!" sermon. In the evening a big crowd heard the same sermon at Grand Island. This noon at Lincoln he will give the lecture again and tonight Omaha will hear him at the Auditorium. His anti-liquor crusade in Nebraska will consist of only these four speeches.

At North Platte a girl was engaged to call up every telephone subscriber and urge attendance at the Sunday address.

Dr. W. F. Callfas and Mrs. Callfas went to the Sunday farm in Oregon to accompany the evangelist to Nebraska. Mrs. Callfas, with "Bill" Sunday, jr., and Paul Sunday, arrived in Omaha yesterday morning. Mrs. Sunday will stay here all day.

Goes East Tonight.

Tonight at midnight, immediately after the lecture at the Auditorium, the Sunday party will leave over the Burlington for Chicago, and thence to Winona Lake to spend the Sabbath. The next week Sunday will spend in the east visiting with Teddy Roosevelt, after which he will open his meetings at Detroit.

Aside from two speeches in Oregon, delivered against the liquor interests, Sunday has done no speaking during the summer, but instead devoted his time to recreation and farm work.

Crowd at Grand Island.

Grand Island, Neb., Aug. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—"The saloons would shut the mouth of every preacher of the country if they had their way, but friends, you have got your eyes on one preacher who will fight them till hell freezes over and then get a pair of skates and chase them on the ice," yelled Rev. "Billy" Sunday to the first audience which he ever addressed in Grand Island, and which gathered more than three thousand strong at Lakeview park this evening to hear the noted evangelist deliver a lecture on "Booze."

The Rev. "Billy" scored the Prosperity league, stating that it was far from being what the name implied, and paid his compliments to the editors of the state who would allow the business managers to dictate to them and were afraid to write editorials against the liquor evil. He complimented Grand Island and told of the wondrous crops he had seen while coming to this city.

Farmer Would Gain.

The evangelist averred that he could close every brewery and distillery in the country and that the farmer would even then receive more for his corn, due to the increased demand from men who now spent their sustenance for booze. If Grand Islanders who value their wives and daughters would only stop and think they would not hesitate in casting their votes for the dry side of the question. When it came to marrying one's daughter to a man whose only real estate was found under his finger nails and who did not possess enough money to buy birdseed for a cuckoo clock, then let them vote for a continuance of the liquor traffic.

The doom of the saloon was sealed and he would never be satisfied with the liquor traffic until he beheld its putrid carcass swinging from the gibbit of public opinion.

His closing was very dramatic, having early in the speech dispensed with his collar and tie and unloosened his shirt. He snatched an American flag from the rostrum and asked several small boys to ascend the stage, pointed those out as the raw material on which the saloons feed. Waving the flag dramatically, he asked all who would vote dry this fall to rise to their feet, while the band in attendance played "America" and the crowd cheered and climbed on the benches almost to a man.

It was one of the largest public meetings ever held in Grand Island and necessitated special trains, which were run over the Ord branch to accommodate the crowds.

Rev. "Billy," who arrived on a special train from North Platte this afternoon, left tonight on No. 10 over the Union Pacific for Omaha.

'MA' WORRIES OVER "BILLY'S" HAY FEVER

Little Son Has Tonsils Removed at Methodist Hospital and Does Fine.

HAS COAT OF OREGON TAN

"Ma" Sunday sat at the bedside of her baby son, Paul, fanning him gently. Anxiety lined the countenance of this figure of motherly solicitude, for it was at the Methodist hospital Friday morning, an hour after Paul, aged 9, was operated on for the removal of diseased tonsils and adenoids.

"Isn't he a brave boy!" smiling tenderly down on the suffering little boy. "And doesn't he look just like 'Pa?' Poor little fellow, he is so eager to get out of the hospital and get back to Dr. Callfas' home, but we can't move him for two or three hours yet."

Then "Ma" led The Bee reporter out of the sick room so as not to disturb the little sufferer, pacing up and down the hospital corridor during the interview. "I have just wired 'Pa,' in Lincoln, that the operation was successful, so he will not worry," she said and thereupon herself began to worry about "Billy" Sunday's hay fever, which has been troubling him since the noted evangelist set out on this speaking tour.

"The farm in Oregon? Well, the only trouble about it is that we had to leave so soon. 'See how brown I am!' extending her arms.

"Yes, I milked the cows and fed the chickens and 'Pa' and the boys shocked oats. Dr. and Mrs. Callfas had to help us, too, when they arrived at our farm last Saturday evenin."

Mrs. Callfas laughingly corroborated this story, telling how "Billy" Sunday forced the dignified physician into overalls and put him to work, while she and "Ma" milked the cows.

"I'd give anything for a snapshot of the Sunday family as they looked when we descended on them unexpectedly last week," said Mrs. Callfas.

"Ma" Sunday was a decidedly summery figure in a pale blue and white frock and low, white shoes.

RED AND WHITE SOX DIVIDE THE GAMES

Leonard Lets in Three Runs and Is Then Taken Out of the Box.

WYCKOFF RELIEVES GREGG

Boston, Aug. 18.—The Chicago Americans won from Boston today, 11 to 6, ending up the series at two games each. "Dutch" Leonard was batted from the box in the first inning, three runs being scored and two put on the bases by his pitching. With men on third and second he was replaced by Gregg, who filled the bases and forced a run across with two passes. J. Collins then made his second double of the inning and two more runs counted.

Wyckoff relieved Gregg and retired the side by fanning Weaver. He held the visitors well in hand until he gave way to a pinch hitter in the eighth. Shore, who pitched the final inning, allowed three singles, a double and a pass, which, with three stolen bases, netted Chicago four runs. Excepting in the second and eighth innings, Boston could do little with Williams' delivery. Score:
