Buffalo, N. Y.—This startling statement will sound the keynote of joy to many who wear glasses, and also to those who have never worn them. It is the result of one of the most prominent eye specialists in the state of New York was called as an expert witness in a case he handled. One of the lawyers in the case who had been blind for many years was impressed with the testimony of this expert that he decided to treat his own eyes and that he had the best of his glasses. After a period of three months treatment under the direction of this expert he was able to see again and his amazement, like that of others who wear glasses, and also to those who have never worn them.
