

Brief City News

Townsend's for Sporting Goods.
Have Root Print II—New Beacon Press.
Lighting Fixtures—Burgess-Grunden Co.
Half Karat White Diamonds $18—Edholm
September Victor Records—On sale
Monday, August 28. Orchard & Wilhelmsen company.

Today's Movie Program. In the classified section today. It appears that the Bee exclusively. Find out what the various moving picture theaters offer.

Study Omaha Thoroughly and you will find that the Bee Building—the building that is known to all—is located in the very center of good business. Secure your office now.

Men's Society to Meet.—The Men's society of the Zion English Lutheran church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lind, 4715 California street, on Thursday evening, August 31. Subject for discussion to be introduced by Mr. Emil Helsing, "The Fathers of the Augsburg Synod."

Knows Where Harvest Is.—A man came into the weather bureau office and inquired where he could find harvesting going on. Colonel Welsh was able to tell him just where to go for work in the harvest fields. "That's only one of a thousand services this bureau renders," said the colonel with satisfaction.

New Teachers at Central High.—S. Ryder, Meyer of Chicago, and Miss Mina Hubbell of Lincoln have been engaged as commercial teachers, in

From Our Near Neighbors

Springfield. Mrs. C. E. Smith and Miss Gertrude Smith returned Tuesday from a month's visit in Wyoming.

Mrs. Willis Avery of Florence is visiting Mrs. G. W. MacCowan.

Mrs. Jessie Jarman of Ashland is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Miss Gertrude Oldeng of Gretna visited her uncle, Carl Oldeng of this place.

Mrs. L. A. Bates visited her mother, Mrs. H. B. Kelley, in Peru, the fore part of the week.

Prof. John Speedie and family of Benson visited Mr. and Mrs. William Speedie last Thursday.

Mrs. Agnes Williams of Omaha visited several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Thiesen.

S. O. Lovell returned last Wednesday from Port Arthur, La., called there by death of his mother.

Mrs. Martin Allen of Papillion, the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Mabel Briley of Bourbon, Mo., is visiting Mrs. L. A. Bates. She will teach this year in Fairmont, Neb.

Aveca. Vern Raywalt of Denver is spending the week with Aveca friends.

Mrs. J. R. Peckham and children left for their home at Chappel Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGrady spent Sunday at Weeping Water visiting relatives.

Mrs. H. H. Marquardt and sons were visiting her parents at Dunbar, Sunday.

Mrs. E. T. Gearhard entertained the Christmas club Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Clark are the happy parents of a baby boy born June 20.

Misses Gladys and Ruth Graham were at Weeping Water the first of the week.

Mrs. Lee Coiner and children were here from Plattsmouth last week visiting.

Mrs. W. H. Thiele left Wednesday for Lewellen, Neb., where she will visit relatives.

Mrs. Thomas of Lincoln is spending the week at the P. A. Hanger home west of town.

Mrs. B. C. Marquardt and daughter, Miss Gladys, were visiting relatives at Talmage Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wissman and John Wissman of Chicago are spending the week at the William Kempe home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weaver and daughter, Vera, were here from Berlin last Sunday for a visit with relatives and friends.

The wedding of Charles Paraskenings here Sunday will be at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Bentz. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hasselplug, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bentz and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hudkins and family.

Weeping Water. Miss Grace Wilcox of Lincoln is visiting at the G. V. Boons home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Marshall have returned from their trip to Elyria, O.

Mrs. A. H. Waltz of Elwood attended the funeral of Mrs. N. Everhart here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cassel and Edward Richards of Palmyra spent Sunday at the Clarence Richards home.

Mrs. Horace Hart and daughter, Miss Mildred, were in Greeley Wednesday visiting Mrs. Horace Mayers.

Mrs. Maude McNamee has returned from a two weeks' visit with her brothers, Art and Clyde, at Falls City.

The well of the Clarence Pool farm, near town, is down to a depth of 600 feet and there is over 400 feet of water.

John W. Collier and family have returned from an automobile trip of 2,850 miles, through Iowa, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana.

T. R. Box and daughter, Mrs. Wemmer, have returned to their home at Bradford.

In the Down Stairs StoreNew Fall Hats*At $3.98

OUR Manager just returned from the East where she was able (being right on the ground) to buy a selection of charming autumn hats for Saturday's selling.

Mostly big velvet sailors, also a good assortment of jockey, and soft velvet close fitting hats. Smart ribbon and feather fancies are the style features. Black prevails but if you have a color in mind, it will be here, too. Hats if bought in the regular way would $3.98 retail at $5.00 and $6.00, Saturday at . . .

Burgess-Nash Co.—Down Stairs Store.

BURGESS-NASH COMPANY
"EVERYBODY'S STORE"

Despondent Over Ill Health Roomer at Y. M. C. A. Takes Life

Central High school and South High school, respectively. Mr. Meyer was graduated from the University of Chicago and Miss Hubbell attended the University of Nebraska.

Bernice Boyd Bound Over.—Bernice Boyd, 2548舞街, was bound over to the district court on the charge of aiding and abetting the delinquency of Cleo Travis, a minor. Cleo Travis is the girl recently sentenced to the reformatory at Geneva on the charge of stealing a dress which she wore at a Douglas street picture show, where the owner found her.

Vacations at Home.—John Welsh, United States locomotive inspector, is taking his vacation and spending it all right here in Omaha. "You see, I'm traveling most of the time when I'm working," he says, "so there's nothing to do for me to travel off somewhere on my vacation. I just spend my time reading the Bee and other high-class literature." He welcomed Harvey Boatwood of Denver, a locomotive inspector, who is traveling with the "Safety First."

Omaha Gets Boost.—"Omaha, Wonder City of the Plains" is the title of a two-page article appearing in the August number of the American Garage and Auto Dealer, published in Chicago. The article contains three handsome half-tones of scenes in Omaha's business and other districts and a host of facts and figures regarding Omaha's commercial importance in the world. The article and pictures were furnished by the bureau or publicity of the Commercial club.

III. after a visit at the A. P. Box home, Mrs. C. E. Smith and Miss Gertrude Smith returned Tuesday from a month's visit in Wyoming.

Mrs. Willis Avery of Florence is visiting Mrs. G. W. MacCowan.

Mrs. Jessie Jarman of Ashland is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Miss Gertrude Oldeng of Gretna visited her uncle, Carl Oldeng of this place.

Mrs. L. A. Bates visited her mother, Mrs. H. B. Kelley, in Peru, the fore part of the week.

Prof. John Speedie and family of Benson visited Mr. and Mrs. William Speedie last Thursday.

Mrs. Agnes Williams of Omaha visited several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Thiesen.

S. O. Lovell returned last Wednesday from Port Arthur, La., called there by death of his mother.

Mrs. Martin Allen of Papillion, the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Mabel Briley of Bourbon, Mo., is visiting Mrs. L. A. Bates. She will teach this year in Fairmont, Neb.

Aveca. Vern Raywalt of Denver is spending the week with Aveca friends.

Mrs. J. R. Peckham and children left for their home at Chappel Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGrady spent Sunday at Weeping Water visiting relatives.

Mrs. H. H. Marquardt and sons were visiting her parents at Dunbar, Sunday.

Mrs. E. T. Gearhard entertained the Christmas club Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Clark are the happy parents of a baby boy born June 20.

Misses Gladys and Ruth Graham were at Weeping Water the first of the week.

Mrs. Lee Coiner and children were here from Plattsmouth last week visiting.

Mrs. W. H. Thiele left Wednesday for Lewellen, Neb., where she will visit relatives.

Mrs. Thomas of Lincoln is spending the week at the P. A. Hanger home west of town.

Mrs. B. C. Marquardt and daughter, Miss Gladys, were visiting relatives at Talmage Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wissman and John Wissman of Chicago are spending the week at the William Kempe home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weaver and daughter, Vera, were here from Berlin last Sunday for a visit with relatives and friends.

The wedding of Charles Paraskenings here Sunday will be at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Bentz. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hasselplug, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bentz and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hudkins and family.

Weeping Water. Miss Grace Wilcox of Lincoln is visiting at the G. V. Boons home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Marshall have returned from their trip to Elyria, O.

Mrs. A. H. Waltz of Elwood attended the funeral of Mrs. N. Everhart here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cassel and Edward Richards of Palmyra spent Sunday at the Clarence Richards home.

Mrs. Horace Hart and daughter, Miss Mildred, were in Greeley Wednesday visiting Mrs. Horace Mayers.

Mrs. Maude McNamee has returned from a two weeks' visit with her brothers, Art and Clyde, at Falls City.

The well of the Clarence Pool farm, near town, is down to a depth of 600 feet and there is over 400 feet of water.

John W. Collier and family have returned from an automobile trip of 2,850 miles, through Iowa, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana.

T. R. Box and daughter, Mrs. Wemmer, have returned to their home at Bradford.

Papillion. The Ladies' Auxiliary held its annual picnic at the State Fisheries Friday.

Misses Edie and Hulda Jungmeyer are from Lincoln for a week's vacation.

Grant Major of Omaha was a Sunday guest of Mr. J. H. Wilson.

Mrs. Phil McEvoy and children of South Dakota visited Thursday and Friday with Mrs. Louis Lester.

Mrs. A. F. Empey, Mrs. G. P. Miller and Miss Lillian Empey are visiting relatives at Kearney this week.

Mrs. Eugene Walde and daughter, Mildred, are in Greeley Wednesday visiting Mrs. Horace Mayers.

Mrs. Maude McNamee has returned from a two weeks' visit with her brothers, Art and Clyde, at Falls City.

The well of the Clarence Pool farm, near town, is down to a depth of 600 feet and there is over 400 feet of water.

John W. Collier and family have returned from an automobile trip of 2,850 miles, through Iowa, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana.

T. R. Box and daughter, Mrs. Wemmer, have returned to their home at Bradford.

Silk. The Ladies' Auxiliary held its annual picnic at the State Fisheries Friday.

Misses Edie and Hulda Jungmeyer are from Lincoln for a week's vacation.

Grant Major of Omaha was a Sunday guest of Mr. J. H. Wilson.

Mrs. Phil McEvoy and children of South

Dakota visited Thursday and Friday with Mrs. Louis Lester.

Mrs. A. F. Empey, Mrs. G. P. Miller and Miss Lillian Empey are visiting relatives at Kearny this week.

Mrs. Eugene Walde and daughter, Mildred, are in Greeley Wednesday visiting Mrs. Horace Mayers.

Mrs. Maude McNamee has returned from a two weeks' visit with her brothers, Art and Clyde, at Falls City.

The well of the Clarence Pool farm, near town, is down to a depth of 600 feet and there is over 400 feet of water.

John W. Collier and family have returned from an automobile trip of 2,850 miles, through Iowa, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana.

T. R. Box and daughter, Mrs. Wemmer, have returned to their home at Bradford.

Papillion. The Ladies' Auxiliary held its annual picnic at the State Fisheries Friday.

Misses Edie and Hulda Jungmeyer are from Lincoln for a week's vacation.

Grant Major of Omaha was a Sunday guest of Mr. J. H. Wilson.

Mrs. Phil McEvoy and children of South

Dakota visited Thursday and Friday with Mrs. Louis Lester.

Mrs. A. F. Empey, Mrs. G. P. Miller and Miss Lillian Empey are visiting relatives at Kearny this week.

Mrs. Eugene Walde and daughter, Mildred, are in Greeley Wednesday visiting Mrs. Horace Mayers.

Mrs. Maude McNamee has returned from a two weeks' visit with her brothers, Art and Clyde, at Falls City.

The well of the Clarence Pool farm, near town, is down to a depth of 600 feet and there is over 400 feet of water.

John W. Collier and family have returned from an automobile trip of 2,850 miles, through Iowa, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana.

T. R. Box and daughter, Mrs. Wemmer, have returned to their home at Bradford.

Silk. The Ladies' Auxiliary held its annual picnic at the State Fisheries Friday.

Misses Edie and Hulda Jungmeyer are from Lincoln for a week's vacation.

Grant Major of Omaha was a Sunday guest of Mr. J. H. Wilson.

Mrs. Phil McEvoy and children of South

Dakota visited Thursday and Friday with Mrs. Louis Lester.

Mrs. A. F. Empey, Mrs. G. P. Miller and Miss Lillian Empey are visiting relatives at Kearny this week.

Mrs. Eugene Walde and daughter, Mildred, are in Greeley Wednesday visiting Mrs. Horace Mayers.

Mrs. Maude McNamee has returned from a two weeks' visit with her brothers, Art and Clyde, at Falls City.

The well of the Clarence Pool farm, near town, is down to a depth of 600 feet and there is over 400 feet of water.

John W. Collier and family have returned from an automobile trip of 2,850 miles, through Iowa, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana.

T. R. Box and daughter, Mrs. Wemmer, have returned to their home at Bradford.