Mr. Renter, your comfort and happiness are at stake

If you're going to move this fall, don't jump into the first vacant place you see and then spend the next twelve months wishing you hadn't done it. Look around, see what's on the market-get the place that is best suited to your comfort, convenience and happiness get the best Omaha has to offer at the price you want to pay. You can accomplish more in a few minutes by looking through The Bee's Rental Columns-and find better places-than you can in weeks of aimless wandering.
