DEC MOINES STARTS SERIES HERE TODAY

Club's Annual Commercial Booster Day is on the Program for This Afternoon.

ROTARIANS WILL SEE GAME

After sinking their tongs into the lowly Links twice out of three attempts, Pa's de luxe Rourkelets were Phila. given a well-earned rest yesterday. But while the athletes rested and was originally scheduled for Monday, but Rourke and Holmes jerked it ahead a day so as to play the bargain bill on the Sabbath. This bit of strategy proved a money-maker and it pleased the Sabbath fans, who got a buble run for their money.

But with the fair ones it was a clear case of "gyp." Yesterday was to have been the last ladies' day of the year, it was cut off and the lady bugs who want to see our Rourkelets again will have to pry themselves loose from the admission price.

Today Frank Isbell brings his Des Moines club to Omaha after a disastrous Series at Des Moines, when the Coon creekers dropped four in a row. Three games will be played with the Isbellites.
