

What is Going On in Society Circles

At the Field Club. Mrs. C. J. Claassen had a dinner party of ten guests at the club last evening. Others with parties of four and six were entertained by Sam Reynolds, W. P. Thomas, A. A. McDonald and Dr. A. R. Knode.

At the Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Connell last evening gave a family dinner party for their daughter, Mrs. Isaac Miller Raymond, jr., of Lincoln, who came up for the week-end with their small granddaughter, Miss Florence Connell of El Paso, Tex., who has been spending the summer with them and with Mrs. Raymond, and will leave next Tuesday for her home. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. John A. McShane entertained a dinner party of eight at the club last evening. Mr. Judson Spirens had a party for four and Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Kountze and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clarke each had parties of six.

At Happy Hollow Club. As a compliment to Prof. and Mrs. Dean of Hiram college, Ohio, who are passing through Omaha on their way to spend a year in California, the Hiram college graduates of Omaha and Council Bluffs entertained at dinner at the Happy Hollow club Saturday evening. Their guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rushton entertained at dinner Saturday evening at the club. A centerpiece of pink roses was used for the table. Covers were laid for:

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Roberts entertained at dinner at the club last evening. Their guests being:

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Robertson gave a dinner party for twelve Saturday evening in honor of Miss Marian Keys, who arrived Saturday morning for a two weeks' visit with their daughter. The two young women were schoolmates at Bradford academy.

Malva White Shrine Meeting. The Sojourners' club of Malva White Shrine will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Ben F. Marti. Mrs. C. H. T. Riepen, Mrs. A. A. Holtzman and Mrs. G. Morse will assist the hostess.

Off to Honolulu. Mrs. J. J. Dickey and her brother, Harry Jordan, left Friday for San Francisco, to sail next Wednesday on the Matsonia for Honolulu, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Blomfield-Stown, the latter being Mrs. Dickey's daughter. Mrs. R. C. Moore had expected to accompany them as far as San Francisco, but has postponed going.

Wedding Announcement. The marriage of Miss Fannie Helen Livingston to Mr. Julius Weil, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Weil of Lincoln, will take place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Hotel Fontenelle. Out-of-town guests who have already arrived are Miss Selma Shershine of Savannah, Ga., and Miss Adeline Gudfriend of Des Moines.

Metropolitan Announcements. Mr. and Mrs. Horace F. Shearer announce the engagement of their daughter, Florence, to Mr. Ross N. Kinnick. The wedding date is set for September 12.

Young-Klingbeil Wedding Party

Marguerite Therese Klingbeil

LUELLA PETERSEN

Ruby Klingbeil

Phi sorority and Mr. Rohrbach a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. The wedding will take place in the early fall.

Go to Suffrage Convention. Mrs. Draper Smith and Mrs. H. C. Sumney start today for Atlantic City to attend the annual convention of the national woman suffrage organization, which will be held there this week.

Gustafson-Lindley Wedding. On Tuesday evening at the chapel of Immanuel Deaconess institute was solemnized the marriage of Miss Hildur Lindberg and Rev. Oscar O. Gustafson of Elbow Lake, Minn.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white charmeuse satin and georgette crepe with pearl trimmings, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Entertains for Visitor. Mrs. August Herman entertained at her home Wednesday afternoon for her sister, Mrs. Fred Johnson, who is here visiting from Kansas City, Mo.

Family Reunion. A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cadwallader, West End, Council Bluffs, last Sunday, when Mrs. Moselle Nippa, her son, Dr. William Nippa; his son, Ralph Nippa, and his son, William Nippa, composing four generations, were present.

Summer Sojourners Return. Miss Irene Rosewater returned from California today. Mr. and Mrs. George D. Tunniff came home today from Wyoming.

Notes at Random. Dr. E. L. Bridges returned early in the week from six weeks' eastern trip. Miss Belle Dewey is spending her vacation in Chicago and at Douglas lake.

Mr. Alfred C. Kennedy and children returned Friday from Lake Minnetonka. Mrs. D. V. Sholes and daughter, Mrs. Clifford Calkins, have returned from Madison Lake.

ONE OF THE LATE SUMMER BRIDES. GUEST OF MISS MARGARET FOOT.

Mrs. Oscar Gustafson

Mrs. Marion Hamilton

where she visited her sister, Mrs. Will Carter, and Mr. Carter. R. J. Steffens, son of Commodore Steffens of Chicago and well known in the photographic art world, has come to Omaha, to be associated with the Rinehart studio.

Mrs. W. C. Shannon has returned from Bay View, Mich., accompanied by her mother, Mrs. A. J. Poppleton, who spent the summer there with her sister, Mrs. Ferguson.

Rockford College Luncheon. The Rockford College association, organized last year with Mrs. John R. McDonald as president, is planning a luncheon for Tuesday, September 12, at the Fontenelle to greet the girls passing through from the west to attend Rockford college.

Residence Changes. Mr. and Mrs. James E. Foster have moved into their new home at 4817 Douglas street. Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Stephens have given up their apartment at the Hamilton and gone to the Colonial to live.

Okoboji Colony News. Mrs. M. D. Cameron has closed her cottage at Okoboji and returned home. Mrs. Edward A. Pegan and children motored down from Okoboji with Mr. Pegan last week.

News of the Wayfarers. Miss Elizabeth and Miss Mellora Davis, who are at Lake Placid with their mother, are going for a week-end house party next week on Lake Champlain.

The Rev. Lloyd Holsapple and Mrs. Holsapple are at Ephraim, Wis. From there the latter will go to Richards Landing to visit Mrs. and Miss Thummel, while Mr. Holsapple goes east to visit his former home in New Jersey.

Miss Frances Paine

Miss Marion Hamilton left Beach Bluff, Mass., Wednesday and are on their way home by way of Detroit and Chicago, stopping in both places for a day or two unless the railroad strike hurries them through.

Afternoon Tea. Miss Lela Ash entertained a party of friends at a 5 o'clock tea at her home Sunday afternoon. Those present were:

Prettiest Mile Golf Club. The Prettiest Mile Ladies' Golf club will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock with Mrs. Ralph Russell at her home, 1805 Wirt street.

Tea for Miss Morse. Monday afternoon Mrs. C. E. Johannes was hostess at an informal tea in honor of Miss Katharine Morse, who has just returned from New York for a short visit before going back to begin her work as head of the English department in the training school for teachers.

Gossip of the Visitors. Scott McCormick arrives Monday from New York to visit his father in his aunt, Harry McCormick and Mrs. Remington. Mr. McCormick, who has been on his ranch in Wyoming, will be home by Monday.

Claremont Inn. 17th and Jackson Sts. "Omaha's Quietest Downtown Hotel" SUNDAY TABLE 40c DINNER

ASTERS 25 Cents Per Dozen THE FERNERY 503 South 16th St., Tel. Doug. 2986.

Turpin's School of Dancing Season Opens Monday, September 11th Adult Beginners, Monday, September 11, 8 p. m. Adult Advanced, Tuesday, September 12, 8 p. m. First Children's Class Saturday, October 7, 2:30 p. m. - Private Lessons Any Time.

Comus Club. The Comus club will resume its bi-weekly meetings Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leslie Thompson, 1810 Miami street. At that time the annual election of officers will take place.

Social Gossip. Mr. and Mrs. Byron Smith have returned from Atlantic City. Mr. Denman Kountze returned early in the week from Estes Park. Mrs. J. J. Sullivan left Tuesday to visit her sister in Wyoming for two weeks.

Stuart Summers came home yesterday from Atlantic City, but his mother, Mrs. J. E. Summers, will remain east some time longer. Miss Gladys Peters and Miss Margaret Bruce left Saturday evening for Chicago to visit Dr. and Mrs. Roger T. Vaughn for two or three weeks.

Mrs. Glen Wharton left Tuesday for Boston to join Mr. Wharton and Mr. and Mrs. Davidge of Binghamton, N. Y., for a motor trip in New England.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler arrived home Monday from Marblehead, Mass., where she has been part of the summer since leaving Burlington, Vt. Mrs. Wheeler is at the Colonial. Judge George H. Thummel and Miss Stella Thummel will be back today from Richards Landing, Ont., but Mrs. Thummel and Miss Thummel and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Thummel will stay another week or two.

Elasser-Rasmussen Wedding. Miss Alma Rasmussen and Mr. Walter Elasser were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Rasmussen of Benson, Wednesday evening by the Rev. Wilbur Nelson of the First English Lutheran church. They were attended by the brother and sister of the bridegroom, Mr. William Elasser and Miss Helen Elasser.

Welsh Society Picnics. The Welsh-American society will hold its annual basket picnic at Miller park Monday afternoon and evening. All the Welsh and those of Welsh descent have been invited.

In and Out of the Bee Hive. Miss Sidney Stebbins returned last Saturday from several weeks' visit in St. Louis. Miss Helen Alexander has gone to St. Louis for a short visit with relatives. Mrs. D. P. Feder of St. Paul, Minn., arrived Thursday, to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Alpin.

Shoji Onato has returned from a two weeks' vacation trip to Minneapolis and Peoria, having motored part of the way. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dempster and Miss Bessie Allen returned Friday from their vacation trip to Atlantic City, New York and Canada.

Florence Basler-Palmer ART OF SINGING Just returned from New York City. Resumes Studio September 11th. 1807 Farnam St. Phone D. 6334 OMAHA, NEB.

Miss Bella Robinson pianist and teacher of PIANO AND HARMONY will open her studio September 11th at 802 Karbach Block. Residence 4817 Douglas Street. Phone Walnut 3257.

COMBS JEWELRY "The Busy Jewelers" JEWELRY THAT REFLECTS GOOD TASTE. Ask for and Get SKINNER'S THE HIGHEST QUALITY MACARONI SKINNER MFG. CO. OMAHA, U.S.A.

last six weeks, returned to her home Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Sype and son have just returned from a trip to southern California. They visited Mrs. Sype's sister, Mrs. J. W. Hendrick of Los Angeles.

Miss Orpha McKittrick and Miss Pearl May have returned from a three weeks' visit at Minneapolis and Lake Minnetonka with Mrs. J. H. Girth of Minneapolis, who was formerly Miss Josephine Carr of Omaha.

Mrs. F. F. A. Wellman and two sons, Roland and Ralph, have returned from a two months' trip through the Pacific coast country. They visited all the points of interest, including the San Diego exposition.

Mrs. Rome Miller, her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Waggener, and her granddaughter, Margaret Louise Waggener, returned Saturday evening after spending several months in the Miller family home in Hollywood, Los Angeles.

Miss May Cathroe returned Thursday after spending a month at Glenwood Springs, Colorado Springs and Denver. Mrs. A. Rossiter and daughters, Mona and Florence, and little grandson, Dick, are expected home today after spending the summer in Colorado.

Albert Wedemeyer, jr., who has been appointed to a cadetship by the president, left last evening to enter Columbia Preparatory school, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. S. H. Isaacs of Vincennes, Ind., who has been here with her cousin, Mrs. G. W. Deane and Mrs. C. B. Keller, for the last year, left Wednesday for Chicago.

Miss Cora Schwartz has reopened her studio in the Lyric building after a summer spent in Chicago coaching with the well-known authority on voice, Frank B. Webster. During Miss Schwartz's stay in Chicago she appeared as soloist in several prominent churches, among them Warren Avenue Congregational, whose pastor is Dr. J. A. Jenkins, formerly of St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church of Omaha.

Florence Basler-Palmer has just returned from New York City, where she spent another very successful summer season studying voice under W. Freytag-Frey. Mrs. Palmer has tendered the directors of the Bellevue college her resignation as head of the voice department, thus enabling her to devote her entire time to her studio and to fill a number of concert engagements this season, which she is being urged to make.