'Chins' Galore Flock In on County Clerk To Form Partnership

"Chin-Chin-China-man," the taunt of boyhood days, was brought back to the mind of County Clerk Frank Dewey Tuesday afternoon, when he was approached by a flock of nine "Chins," as members of a restaurant company, and asked to record partnership papers of the organization of Chinamen operating a restaurant at Fourteenth and Farnam streets.

There are thirteen partners, and nine of them have the prefix "Chin." All signed their names on the partnership papers in a legible hand. All thirteen reside at 1415 Farnam street, according to the document.

Chin Min Yee, Chin Fuen, Chin Yang Yow, Chin Yow Ming, Chin Kim, Chin Jim, Chin Wah, Chin Wah Gee, Chin On, Huie Tae, Leo Duck Wong, Mark Lung, and Lim Duck Chong have organized under the name of Charles Sing and company.

Big City Ways Overcome Mr. Dillovie of Broken Bow

Metropolitan malady overcame W. A. Dillovie, farmer living near Broken Bow, last night at Thirteenth and Farnam streets, according to the police. He had been in the city only a short while, but it was long enough to transform him from a quiet, well behaved farmer, into a whooping white-way demon, declared Detectives Brinkman and Unger, who arrested him.

The detectives said Dillovie was marching up and down Farnam street yelling "whoops m'deah!" at every woman he met, and otherwise acting like a Sixteenth street boulevardier.

Liquor License Protest Is Filed With Commissioners

The first liquor license protest filed with the county commissioners in weeks was recorded Tuesday afternoon when George J. Nunnam attacked the permit of James Cunningham, 4601 Q street, alleging that the saloon had been operated in violation of the Sunday closing law and that intoxicants have been sold after 8 o'clock.

September 6 is the last day for filing protests. The Cunningham attack is the only one to be passed upon by the commissioners, this being the first complaint against Mr. Cunningham.

HUGHES SAYS LOOK AND THEN PASS LAW

Republican Nominee Condemns "Legislation in Advance of Investigation."

HE SPEAKS AT LEXINGTON

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 6.—Charles E. Hughes, in a speech here today, condemned "legislation in advance of investigation," and declared that the United States had gone very far toward the day when we shall have action under pressure instead of in consideration of the facts. The nominee's remarks were interpreted by many in the audience as applying to the Adamson law.

"We have a new spirit abroad in America," he said. "It is the spirit that demands legislation in advance of investigation. It is the spirit of force. It is not American."

"I desire fair dealing in this con-

Unmasked Bandit Robs Conductor of Leavenworth Car

Conductor O. C. Budinska of a West Leavenworth street car was robbed by an unmasked highwayman early this morning as the car reached the end of the line at Sixtieth and Leavenworth streets. The work was done so swiftly, at the point of a revolver, that the motorman knew nothing about the occurrence until the bandit had safely made his escape.

HAPPENINGS IN THE MAGIC CITY

Principal Huwaldt Given Warm Welcome by Students of the High School.

FOOT BALL OUTLOOK GOOD

At the first mass meeting of students and faculty of the local South Side high school this year, students applauded their new principal, Edward Huwaldt, ten minutes before they permitted him to make his opening address. The enthusiasm was marked throughout the principal's short address, and when he spoke of athletics and foot ball in turn, he was greeted with a deafening roar.

"I wish specially to emphasize one thing," Mr. Huwaldt said, "and that is the cause of eligibility. Eligibility rules must be closely adhered to and I personally will see to it that they are here. I think I will have but little trouble, as it has always been the boast of South Side high school that no school in the state can boast of cleaner athletics."

The principal dwelt on scholarship a great deal and in the course of his welcome greeted the students collectively. It was certain that he had made them close companions during the few minutes spent with each one in making out registration slips. "I have been full of enthusiasm ever since I came to the South Side," he said. "Almost the first day I was visited by men of the business world, who promised hearty co-operation. One big business man said he wanted high school graduates in his house and would be able to place South Side high school students especially, because of the high record you have here."

The three new instructors, Curtis Cook, debate coach and head of the English department; Mimie Pratt, teacher of Latin, and Harriette Duke, physical instructor, each were introduced by Superintendent of Schools E. U. Graff, who presided.

Coach Patton, Captain "Weary" Graham of the foot ball team, Miss Sadie Fowler, dean of the girls, and Prof. F. R. Vosacek also made short talks. The coach announced a meeting of football recruits to be held at the close of the seventh period at noon which was postponed until this afternoon on account of the overtime taken up in the mass meeting. Superintendent Graff also made extended remarks.

Foot Ball Outlook.

Coach Patton of the athletic department of the South Side High school will call together the first meeting of foot ball recruits for the 1916 foot ball eleven. Although at least one of last year's team will be barred from playing on account of failure in more than two studies, the prospects look fair. It is intimated that there is some new material among the incoming freshmen.

The veterans of the team include: Gust Ruge, tackle; Dewy Curtis, guard; Van Arthurton, half back; Joe Dworak, fullback; Teddy Korbmaker, center; Lyman Corr, end; Wayne Emigh, halfback; Captain Graham, end. If these men turn out for early practice the school will be represented by a team worth mentioning in state foot ball politics. Jimmie Nester, diminutive quarterback of last year's team, will not play.

Police Court Happenings.

Ed Hamilton, alleged bootlegger, arrested last week by detectives, was fined $25 and costs yesterday morning in police court by Judge Reel. The two inmates arrested at the time, P. M. Huit and Alvin Meyers were each fined $1 and costs. The Frank case comes up Thursday morning and the Hing Lee case is set for Saturday morning.

McCulloch-Schindel Nuptials.

Hugh McCulloch, son of Bruce McCulloch, editor of the Journal-Stockman, will be married to Miss Louise Schindel, daughter of Dr. Schindel, at the Schindel home this afternoon. Dr. R. L. Wheeler will officiate.

Mr. McCulloch is a graduate of the South High school, where he was famed as a foot ball hero. Later he attended Knox college and played alongside Coach Jim Patton of the South High, who was then attending Knox. Of late he has been a justice of the peace, but was admitted to the bar after graduating from the Creighton Law school last term.

Miss Schindel is one of the best known of South Side younger society set. She is also a graduate of the South High school and has attended school in the east. The young couple have not announced plans for the future.

Magie City Gossip.

The local order of Red Men will give a fish bake at their hall at Twenty-fourth and G streets Thursday evening. Members only are invited.

In "The Grip of Evil" also tonight. "Where Are Your Children?" They'll be at the House tomorrow to see Chas. Chaplin in "The Count."

The Ladies Aid society of the Highland Interdenominational church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. C. Bowler, Wednesday, September 7, at 8 o'clock.

The Woman's Christian Temperance union will hold a silver medal contest Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Highland Interdenominational church at Forty-third and I streets.
