ROURKES RUN UP A STRING OF ZEROES

Paul Musser, Curve Ball Artist, in Fine Form and League Leaders Fail to Score.

KRUG, MARSHALL CANNED

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 6.-Paul Musser was in no mood to permit the league leading Rourkes any safe knocks today, with the result that Des Moines trounced Omaha, 5 to 0.

Musser was in fine form. His cele-

Catcher Marshall took issue with Umpire Kane. The argument ended in Kane's favor, the umps banishing both Marty and Bobby from the lot.

The Boosters put over three runs in the second inning and with Musser bowling along in his niftiest style, the trio of markers sewed up the contest. After Meloan flew out, Jones singled to right and Cass got a life on Kewpie Kilduft's miscue. A walk to Rigsby filled the bases Ewoldt sent a drive ripping through Burg and Jones and Cass trotted home. Rigsby scooted to third and came home when Musser forced Ewoldt at second.

Wants the Wichita Club's Franchise

Wichita, Kan., Sept. 6.—The directors of the Western league have taken over the Wichita franchise and the back salaries and for the remaining days of the season guaranteed to the Wichita players, according to an announcement of the officials here today. The Wichita team will leave for Denver tonight to open the next series. Colorado Springs is reported to be bidding for the forfeited franchise, and if the deal is completed the remaining games scheduled for Wichita will be played in Colorado Springs.

Besides the thirty-one historical floats formerly announced as having been completed to take part in the historical parade, which is to be held in connection with the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities to celebrate the fiftieth and niversary of statehand of Nebraska, there are to be fifteen notable historical groups. These constitute representations of early trapping, hunting and scouting expeditions through the within the geographic limits of Nebraska.

VISITING IVUISE GAME	High Sch. of C., 158 Kellom South High 170 Lake
The Pierce street division base ball nine of the street railway company triumphed over the Mike Clarks in a game played at Rourke park yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the Visiting Nurse association. The score was 8 to 5. The Pierce street lads proved to be too clever with the stick. They hammered the offerings of Cathro and Hazen for something like fifteen safe smacks while the Clarks could only touch Kistenmacher for a half dozen. Johnny Gonding catched Kistenmacher's slants for part of the game and seemed to be just as good as he was in the days of old. Quite a number of fans turned out to see the event. The entire receipts were turned over to the nurses.	Case 47 Madison Castelar 526 Madison Castelar 526 Madison Central 56 Miller Park Central Fark 49 Monmouth Park. Distressed Dems Want to Stir 'Em Up By Burning Red Fire

The campaign is not progressing with as much verve to suit Mayor Dahlman, who happens to be chairman of the democratic county central committee.

"We are going to burn a few shav-ings, let off a few fireworks and oth-erwise wake up the county," said the county chairman while announcing county chairman while announcing plans.

The democrats propose to organize clubs in every precinct in the county and in that way localize interest. They also talk of an old-fashioned parade with torchlights, brass bands, marching clubs in uniform and other spectacular features.

"The campaign is nothing like the old days. I can't understand it," declared the mayor.

It was suggested that perhaps the people are thinking more than they did years ago and are reading the newspapers instead of spending their time at meetings and parades; also that they have made up their minds to vote for Hughes and the republican ticket.

In any event the county chairman seems much perturbed over the situation.

The local democratic strategy board is holding meetings in the county headquarters. Candidates are being assessed for the campaign fund and voluntary contributions are not being spurned. It appears to be an unusually distressing situation from a democratic standpoint. The leaders realize this, hence their resolution to adopt strenuous means to overcome the republican sentiment in this community.
