Montana Grassfeds Sell a High as $10, the Highest Price Ever Paid.

YARD HOG RECORD BROKEN

The highest price ever paid on th Omaha market for cattle direct from the wrestern range was recorded yesterday. Choice heavy Montana beeves, which had more the appearance of cornfeds than grassers, brought as high as $10.00.

A new yard record for hogs was also established. Some of the better hogs sold at $10.90, 5 cents above the old yard record. The bulk of hogs sold from $10.35 to $10.60.

Live stock receipts began to re-turn to normal following the con-fusion attending the threatened rail-road strike. Packers took an interest in the hog market, due to the im-proved receipts and shippers made ac-tive bids with the result that the hog wards became a center of active tradyards became a center of active trading again.

Sheep and lambs returned to the normal again with a run of 30,000, the largest Wednesday run of the year.

Cattle receipts also fell into their regular stride again, 231, cars being reported in to the Omaha market.

At the Noon Hour

The public schools were dismiss again at noon on account of a lecture by a Salt Lake City man to the teach-ers. It is believed that regular ses-sions will be started this morn-ing and that further interruptions of the school will not be necessary for a while.

Veteran Burlington Man Called by Death

Mr. Clarke entered the employ of the Burlington shortly after that road's extension to the Missouri river and his first employment was at Plattsmouth, where for years he was connected with the company shops. He rose to the position of foreman and later was transferred to the general offices of the Omaha headquarters.

For several years he was general claim agent for the lines west of the river, continuing as such until his river, continuing as such until his claim agent for the lines west of the river, continuing as such until his health commenced to fail.
