For Sale "The Post Farm"

40 Acres with all Improvements Can be made the finest dairy farm in the west. Located near Benson and West Dodge St.

Description of Improvements:-- Two-story house of 12 rooms, 5 rooms on the first floor with bath and seven sleeping rooms on the second floor. Has water system throughout the house.

One dairy building—two stories—96x94-ft. 12-inch walls laid in cement 9 feet high. Has cement floor the full size of building; room for 100 cows and 20 head of horses. Large store room for feeding purposes; also engine room, which has a 25-horse-power Olds Gas Engine used for grinding and elevating the grain, which cost about $2,000. The second floor is used for storing grain and hay. Has 20-foot ceiling and room for grain and other kinds of feed.

Adjoining this building there is a milk house; enclosed driveway; tool room; bunk house and machinery room. Another large building, which has a hog house 20x60 feet on the first floor, all cemented and connected with water system. The second floor is used for a driveway; granary, corncribs and room to store machinery. The total cost of the entire improvements is about $25,000. Will sell buildings and the 40 acres for a trifle more than the ground alone is worth.

Over Two Thousand Omahans Go to State Fair for Omaha Day

Over 2,000 Omahans went to Lincoln yesterday for "Omaha Day" at the annual state fair. The Burlington and Rock Island railroads carried a total of 1,115 persons from Omaha to Lincoln on their early morning trains and it was estimated an equally large number made the trip by automobile. Later trains also carried a number of Omaha passengers to the fair.
