We do not take advantage of your bereavement

The moment the services of an undertaker are needed, the mere mention of PRICE is obnoxious to the average person. No one knows this better than the undertaker. That is why the cost of funerals is so high. A service rendered at such a time is so appreciated that the cost is never considered. By combining, the undertakers are able to maintain prices that are enormous. We are independent. We take no advantage of your state of mind. Our prices only allow us a fair profit. Some day you will need us. Take the time now to investigate and prove what we say.

And you will receive the same courteous service as though you were attending your own funeral. Write us for our Office in person.
