BUSINESS PROPERTY

FOR SALE. Corner lot, 48x70 ft., at street car transfer point, with new concrete and basement double brick store. Income now $1,400 per year; will be $1,200 after June 1, 1918. The lease runs nearly four years. Contact day for repairs. Price, $11,000, liberal terms.

WHY THIS IS A GOOD BUY. The price is a local at a street car transfer point, where values are advancing. The tenants are building up business and can afford to pay higher rents after lease expires. This is a safer and more profitable investment than apartments or dwellings; no risk of vacancies; no repairs to be made. HARNEY 2147.

COURIERS OF VERDUN

Theirs is a Dangerous Task Requiring Men of Real Courage to Succeed.

MUST FACE ENEMY SHELLS

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) Paris, July 21.—The unexpunged conditions of fighting before Verdun have developed a new type of soldier called the "couriers of Verdun." They are the men who maintain communication between the troops in the midst of the melees and officers commanding from the rear. The battlefield into which they dart with orders or after information is a desolate zone where nothing but thick smoke, sometimes black, sometimes white, gives appearance of life; excepting during the brief time of an infantry attack, it is to all appearances deserted, the sharpest eye discovers no movement of humanity. The earth is everywhere furrowed by freshly stirred earth, but no one sees the hand that stirred it.

Occasionally a form is seen going over this desert land something after the manner of a rabbit, bounding into sight out of the herbs and above uneven ground to disappear again; leaping from obstacle to obstacle, from ditch to ditch, from shell hole to shell hole as it approaches the front line, at times vaulting, at others crawling, and sometimes kept motionless for considerable periods by showers of projectiles sent over from the other side of the line for his personal benefit.

This is the messenger of modern battle, he was never more needed nor more useful than at Verdun and the courier will probably bear the name for years to come of "the courier of Verdun."

War Widows Follow War Brides and Babies

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 2.—Many young women in the duchy of Baden, betrothed to officers and soldiers killed in the war, have taken advantage of a recent decree of the minister of justice that gives them practically the status of widows. They have adopted the names of their dead fiancés and call themselves "Mrs. (Frau). They wear mourning and wedding rings and are known as war widows. They wear head-dresses distinguishing them from real widows.
