

Nebraska

LOOKS LIKE G. O. P. TURNOVER IN VOTE

Favorable Reports Continue to Come to Republican Headquarters at Lincoln.

BEACH BACK AT HIS DESK

Lincoln, Sept. 13.—(Special.)—If the defeat of both candidates for the United States senate on the democratic ticket in Maine, the defeat of all four candidates on the same ticket for congress, the defeat of the democratic candidate for governor and the election of a republican legislature is an endorsement of the administration of President Wilson in that state, what kind of an endorsement of the president will the election of Hughes and a republican congress be? This question was propounded at republican headquarters today.

The Rival Claims. Following out the claims of democrats that the republicans missed out on their expectations as regards majorities in Maine, a copy of the Portland (Me.) Evening Journal of Saturday before the election, received by Deputy Land Commissioner Emery, shows that Chairman Hain of the republican state committee gave out a statement that the republican candidate for governor would receive a plurality of 15,000 on a total republican vote of 76,000, while Chairman Pattengill of the democratic state committee claimed a plurality of 3,000 on a democratic vote of 71,000.

What Returns Were. The complete returns show that the republican candidate for governor received 79,902 votes, while the democratic candidate received 66,547, the republicans running about 4,000 more than the estimate of the republican chairman, while the democrats fell about 4,500 less than the claims of the democratic chairman, so there does not appear to be much comfort for the democrats according to their own figures.

Democrats for Hughes. Charles Kibler of Kearney was a visitor at republican state headquarters today, having come to bring his daughters, who will begin a course at the University of Nebraska. Mr. Kibler is chairman of the Buffalo county committee and says that things politically are looking exceedingly bright for the republicans. When asked if he knew of any republicans who were going to vote for President Wilson, he answered that he knew of none, but did know of democrats who were going to vote for Hughes.

County Attorney William Weststrom of Saunders county, another visitor at state headquarters, brought information that political conditions were decidedly favorable to the republicans in his county. "There are plenty of Bryan democrats in my county who will vote for Sutton, the republican candidate for governor," Mr. Weststrom told Chairman Beach. Chairman Beach came in last night from Hastings, Grand Island and Aurora, where he held meetings with leading republicans, committeemen and others interested in the campaign. He found conditions especially pleasing wherever he went and feels that with the good start made and the sentiment rapidly crystallizing in favor of Mr. Hughes, there is little doubt but the electoral vote of Nebraska this year will be found on the right side of the political ledger.

Religious Instruction

In North Platte Schools. North Platte, Neb., Sept. 13.—(Special.)—Students in the North Platte Junior High school this year are being accorded a privilege that has never before been given to pupils in any city in Nebraska, those of the Falls City schools excepted. Two periods of forty-five minutes each is allowed such children as choose for religious instruction at the church of their choice, full credit being given for the time thus spent. The accredited religious course has been tested in the Falls City schools and found a success and North Platte residents are falling into hearty support of the scheme. The instructors in the new course are the ministers of the various churches of the city.

Coursing Meet Will Be Held at Grand Island

Grand Island, Neb., Sept. 13.—(Special.)—The Grand Island Coursing association will hold its first national futurity meet and Aberdeen cup stake here October 11 to 22. Four hundred greyhounds from California, Colorado, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Nebraska, North and South Dakota will compete for the $6,000 in purses. Some of the best kennels the country over will be here to contest for the Aberdeen cup stake, won by Mr. Cannon for the last two times, and another win will give him the cup permanently. Three hundred and fifty Texas jack rabbits will be secured for this meet.

Osteopaths of Nebraska

North Platte, Neb., Sept. 13.—(Special.)—Forcing the lock of the front door, burglars entered the Van Sey second-hand store here and carried away two rifles, several musical instruments, a coat, a meerscham pipe and a suitcase containing 10,000 mining shares, samples of gold ore and valuable papers owned by C. F. Harshfield of Bellefouche, S. D. No trace has been found of the thieves.

North Platte, Neb., Sept. 13.—(Special.)—In a semi-conscious condition the 8-year-old son of Frank Steele, a farmer living northeast of here, staggered nearly a mile to his home after he had fallen from his pony and sustained a deep gash in his head. Four stitches were necessary to close the wound.

Republican Candidates

Touring First District

Nebraska City, Sept. 13.—(Special.)—Robert W. Devoe, H. P. Shumway and W. H. Reynolds, the republican candidates who are touring the first congressional district, were forced to leave their auto and take the train at Weeping water, on account of bad roads. However, this did not prevent a splendid political rally here last evening.

Judge Paul Jessen presided and short talks were made by Senators Shumway and Reynolds. Mr. Devoe, candidate for attorney general, made the principal talk of the evening, devoting his efforts to an explanation of the workings of the Underwood tariff.

He stated that almost every product of the southern planter was protected by this law, while everything that is raised on the Nebraska farm is open to competition with all the products of the world. He was given splendid attention and made a favorable impression. The candidates left for Auburn by auto.

M. E. CONFERENCE SELECTS OFFICERS

Ministers From Nebraska Churches Elect E. M. Furman Secretary.

GAVEL FROM HOLY LAND

Hastings, Neb., Sept. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—The annual Nebraska conference of the Methodist Episcopal church was opened today by Bishop Homer C. Stuns with the administration of the Lord's supper, assisted by the district superintendents. The conference will last till Monday and possibly Tuesday. The assignment of ministers will be made on the last day.

At the opening today Mayor Madgett offered the city to the preachers and had them welcome to the homes and hearts of the people of Hastings.

Present Unique Gavel.

Rev. A. A. Brooks of Hastings then presented to the bishop and the conference an unique gavel, the wood from which it was made being taken from historic places in the Holy Land. A cross is made of wood cut from an old olive tree growing on the summit of Mount Olive; a heart-shaped piece of tamarack growing on the banks of Jordan; a shield from an old fig tree growing on the west shore of the Sea of Galilee; narrow strips of white wood from olive trees growing on the eastern slope of the Mount of Beatitudes, and red wood from species of locust from the city of Jerusalem. The wood was secured by J. B. Plummer of Hastings in a trip to Palestine and by him was fashioned into the gavel. The bishop responded in a happy strain to the speech of Mayor Madgett and that of Mr. Brooks.

Officers Chosen.

The conference was organized by the election of Rev. E. M. Furman as secretary, Rev. A. V. Wilson as statistical secretary, Rev. H. G. Langley as treasurer and Rev. A. E. Chadwick as postmaster.

Dr. C. E. Cline, representing the board of temperance, prohibition and moral reform of the Methodist church, addressed the body for a short time. The various reports of the conference were then received in a statistical session into which the conference went.

Third Largest Body.

The Nebraska annual conference is the third largest body of ministers of the Methodist church. It comprises nearly 500 ministers, including all the churches in the state of Nebraska except the northwestern part. The anniversary of the board of conference claimants was held this afternoon, when Rev. M. S. Marble, D. D., of Marion, Ind., made the address.

This evening the anniversaries of the Freedman's Aid society with an address by Rev. P. J. Maveety and of the board of education with an address by Chancellor Fulmer of the Nebraska Wesleyan university were held.

The case was tried in the Douglas county court, from which the appeal is made.

Tabloids of Politics

Little Items About the Progress of the Campaign.

David A. Fitch has returned from a trip which included New York, Boston and Hartford. "I talked with some of the National Guards returning from the border and they seem unanimous in the opinion that the sending of troops to the border was unnecessary," said Mr. Fitch. "It is surprising to note the intense Hughes sentiment throughout the east. This is not political talk I am giving, but cold facts. President Wilson's so-called strike settlement is also reverting like a boomerang. Business men and others are realizing that the president did nothing more than postpone or invite another strike. The Maine election is looked upon through the east as a political straw showing the wind."

The Douglas Republican League of Nebraska will hold its first public meeting Thursday at Peterson's hall, Twenty-fourth and Burlington. The organization, which is made up of colored voters, will be addressed by the most prominent men of their race in Omaha.

Rev. Titus Lowe Talks

To Students at Hastings

Hastings, Neb., Sept. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—In the opening address at Hastings college this morning Rev. Titus Lowe of Omaha said it was a matter of small moment whether Wilson or Hughes is elected this fall, but the question of real importance was whether the country would have leaders of religious spirit, largeness of heart and breadth of vision to solve the problems of the day. The college has a substantial increase in enrollment and is facing a most prosperous year.

GOVERNOR CARLSON LEADS IN COLORADO

Partial Returns Indicate Renomination of Republican Executive.

THREE OTHER PRIMARIES

Denver, Colo., Sept. 13.—On the face of returns received up to 8:15 o'clock this morning George A. Carlson, governor of Colorado, has been nominated by the republicans of the state as a candidate to succeed himself. At that hour with 396 of the 2,870 precincts in the state, including 114 in Denver, heard from, Carlson's vote was 15,590, while that of Samuel D. Nicholson of Leadville, his opponent, was 14,913.

Nicholson's lead in Denver indicated he would win the city by 1,500 to 2,000 majority. At Carlson's headquarters it was estimated the governor would come to Denver with a lead of at least 4,000. Nicholson managers refused to concede defeat.

Poindexter is Leading.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 13.—With returns coming in slowly today from yesterday's primary election, the outcome in the contests for the republican nomination for United States senator and governor still were in doubt, although Miles Poindexter, incumbent, was leading for the senatorial nomination, and former Governor Henry McBride was ahead in the race for the nomination for governor.

In the race for the senatorial nomination 108 precincts, most of them from King and Spokane counties, out of 2,443 in the state gave for senator first and second choice votes added: Miles Poindexter, 15,606; Will E. Humphrey, 13,962; E. A. Bryan, 11,992.

For governor, 168 precincts give, first and second choice votes added: Henry McBride, 8,764; Roland Hartley, who ran on an "open shop" platform, 7,358; George A. Lee, 4,717; W. J. Sutton, 2,851.

No returns had been received early today on the democratic ticket, on which a small vote was cast because of lack of contests, nor on the non-partisan judiciary nominations.

Senator Page Renominated.

Burlington, Vt., Sept. 13.—Returns from the First district primary held yesterday in Vermont showed that Carrol S. Page, republican of Hyde Park, had been renominated for the United States senate by a vote of 50 per cent greater than the aggregate vote of his two opponents, Governor Charles W. Gates and former Governor Allen M. Fletcher. With all but fifty-eight of the 284 election precincts heard from, the vote was: Page, 23,180; Fletcher, 8,030; Gates, 6,650.

Cole Blease Defeated.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 13.—Governor Richard I. Manning has been renominated for governor of South Carolina over former Governor Cole L. Blease, according to nearly complete unofficial returns from yesterday's democratic "runoff" primary compiled here today. Governor Manning's vote including that cast by National Guardsmen on the border with only eighty-four small South Carolina precincts missing was 68,926 over 64,274 for Blease. Blease led Manning by more than 20,000 votes in the first primary, but failed to obtain a majority over five aspirants.

An Old English Handbill. advertised a public warning about coffee in its early days as a beverage in England. It said: "You are not to drink it after supper unless you intend to be watchful, for it will hinder sleep for three or four hours." That was 250 years ago. Today it is a well-known fact that sleeplessness, brought on by coffee drinking, is due to the presence of the drug, caffeine, in coffee. It is also known that coffee drinking is a common cause of various other ills. POSTUM the delightful pure food-drink was devised especially for people who should not use coffee, but who like a hot beverage with meals. It resembles mild Java coffee in its snappy taste, but contains no coffee, caffeine, nor any harmful element. Postum is good for old and young, and can be drunk freely at any time of the day with pleasure and comfort. "There's a Reason"
