Reception to Freshmen—A reception for the benefit of the freshmen at the University of Omaha will be given by the students of the Young Women's Christian association assisted by the students of the Young Men's Christian association Thursday night in Redick hall. Alumni of the university are also included in the invitation. Railroad Traffic Increases—With the summer tourist business over for the season, the railroads are not experiencing any letup, so far as travel is concerned. Instead, it is increasing. For instance, during the period from September 7 to 14 and after the hurrying home in anticipation of a strike of the trainmen had passed, passenger travel on the Union Pacific was up to last year and 35 per cent better than during the corresponding period of 1914. Fine Fireplace Goods—Sunderland. Hog Sheds for the Swine Show Ready On the eve of the National swine show, which will be held here at the local yards, October 2 to 7, the big steel and concrete hog sheds will soon be completed, according to announcement at the exchange building yesterday. General Manager Buckingham of the yards company is considerably elated over the compliment given the new sheds, when but partly completed, by Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Carl Vrooman, who recently paid the yards a visit. Mr. Vrooman, it is the delight of Buckingham to repeat, called the new hog pens "hog parlors," in preference to "hog pens," as they were referred to in description. Last rivets are now being driven in the steel braces and it is expected that the entire job, involving an expenditure of $100,000, will be completed before October 1. With the new three-deck sheds, the capacity of the hog division has been increased from 287 to 612 carloads per day. This increase has made it practically impossible for the hog division to be overcrowded or even overworked during a rush period. The sheds are so constructed that they can be used at times as sheep barns. This combination idea is the personal thought of Mr. Buckingham. It is estimated that the hog sheds have a capacity that will outmeasure the largest day's run of hogs yet recorded in the history of the yards by 212 carloads.

Presbytery Decides To Keep Federation

A petition to dissolve the federation of churches at Columbus, Neb., was presented at the second day's session of the fall meeting of the Omaha Presbytery, which was held at North Presbyterian church, Twenty-fourth and Wirt streets. After a lengthy discussion it was practically decided that the federation will be continued. The meeting, attended by delegates from all of the churches of Presbyterian denomination in Omaha and contiguous territory, concluded yesterday afternoon. Satisfactory reports were made by the different branches of the presbytery, the minutes of the home mission churches telling of much progress in the last six months. Substantial gains in the gifts to foreign missions were reported by the foreign missions committee. A laymen's meeting held Tuesday evening gave evidence of the interest by elders and trustees in the work of the presbytery. Much of the evening was taken up by a discussion of the men's movement in the local presbytery. In the neighborhood of 200 delegates attended the two days' session. Rev. D. K. Miller of Cedar Bluffs, Neb., presided as chairman. The next meeting of the Presbytery will be held in Omaha in April.

Japanese Youth Given Farewell Reception by Christian Church Congregation.

LEAVES FOR JAPAN FRIDAY

Armed with a set of religious books presented him by the Christian Endeavor of the First Christian church and ten years of schooling and experience among the American people, K. Furumi, Japanese student, who has been an active member of the local church for six years, will sail for Japan Friday morning. He leaves for the coast some time today and will board vessel Friday. Furumi was a model young man in the eyes of local church people. He was employed at Union Pacific headquarters. He attended American schools and became well educated. He leaves for Japan at the call of his aged mother and father, who live in his native country. One of the religious laws that bind parent and children among the Japanese is that they always stand by each other in time of need. Members of the Christian church entertained the young man at a reception at the home of one of the members Monday evening. He was presented with a set of religious books and sent on his way with the blessings of the congregation. Rev. Albert N. Porter, pastor of the church, was a speaker at the reception and banquet. About 100 persons were present. Marshall Narrowly Escapes. Arthur W. Marshall, Atkinson, Kan., narrowly escaped being mangled to death last evening at 6 o'clock, when he jumped from the top of a moving freight car in the Missouri Pacific switching yards at Twenty-eighth and K streets, T. J. Mayfield, telegraph operator, who has a station nearby, rescued the man as he attempted to crawl across an open track over which a switch engine was police approaching. Police say that the man was ill at the time and when he jumped from the car he escaped death by a mere chance. Recruits Answer Call. Twenty-seven men turned out for the foot ball practice of the year yesterday afternoon at the city lot at Twenty-fourth and O streets. Coach Patton assisted by two or three alumni, put the squad through preliminary stunts for an hour and a half. The material, although in the majority very light, is excellent and he predicts great foot ball eleven for South High in the future. The coach ordered an additional ten foot ball suits to supply at least a part of the remaining recruits with apparel. Those who turned out for the first practice are: Dewey Curtis, Fay Card, Jimmie Nestor, Lyman Corr, "Bill" Graham, Wayne Emlich, Harold Helms, John O'Connell, George Baker, Earl McMahon, Ben Dvorak, Ben Sullivan, Wilbur Skutsholtz, Harold Bauer, Roy Wilson, Harold Hunter, Harold Alderson, Clifford Alderson, Sidney Miller, "Dutch" Hopkins, Moser Redmond, Art Peterson and Clarence Anderson. A number of veterans, including Ted Korbmaker, Gust Rugie, Fritz Kastner, Van Arthurton and Joe Dvorak, did not show up, but will be out in suits before the end of the week. Magic City Gossip. King and family have returned from a three-months trip to the Pacific coast and Canada. They report an excellent time. The doctor is back with his patients. The vacant property in the rear of the High school will be graded within the next two weeks and made over into a gridiron for the foot ball team. It will be used mostly as a practice field. The Ladies' Aid society of the International church will meet for an all-day quilting bee Thursday at the church at Twenty-eighth and Q streets. Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Stickey will be hostesses. Thursday the Big Path Gold Rooster superstore entitled "The Shadow of Her Past," starring Lina Cavalieri and Lucien Muratore, will be shown at the Bessie theater at usual admission prices. Mr. Connors, narrowly escaped being hit when he ordered him away before calling a policeman, he said. He would not tell where he had left the remainder of his clothing.

Freight Rates Hurt Omaha's Business

Flat Distance Scale Gripples Local Jobbers' Power to Compete for Trade.

NEIGHBORS TO BENEFIT

Omaha dry goods jobbers will pay 12 cents more in freight to get their goods to the retailers of O'Neil, Neb., than will the Sioux City houses under the flat distance scale of freight rates to go into effect October 25. Omaha hardware jobbers will pay 10.2 cents per hundred more to ship their hardware to O'Neil merchants than will the Sioux City jobbers. Omaha grocery jobbers will have to pay 7.2 cents per hundred-weight more to get their goods to O'Neil than will the Sioux City jobbers. In the above O'Neil is merely chosen as a representative point at which Omaha and Sioux City will meet in competition for business. The discrimination holds in a greater or less degree all along the Northwestern line in northern Nebraska. Lincoln Has Advantage. Lincoln has an advantage over Omaha in competing for business at Hastings, for example, on the Burlington of 7 cents per hundred-weight on dry goods. Fremont on the Union Pacific lines has an advantage over Omaha in competing for business, for example, at Central City of 3 cents on dry goods, 1.8 cents on hardware and 8 of a cent on groceries. Fremont, however, has few large

Lead on Kansas City. Though Omaha jobbers are somewhat lamenting these conditions they are pleased to know that they beat Kansas City in competition for southern Nebraska business by about 10 cents on dry goods, 13 cents on hardware and a dime on groceries. Similar advantage is in Omaha's favor as against St. Joseph. These cities formerly cut in heavily on southern Nebraska business. For example, Kansas City to Superior: Groceries, Hardware, Dry Goods. In spite of the fact that copies of the city ordinance relating to expectorating are conspicuously posted by all street cars, Patrolman Guy Wright yesterday noon scored a unique record by arresting Charles Roseman for spitting on the floor of a street car. The ordinance has been in force for many years, but old police officials say they cannot remember an arrest ever being made for such an offense, even during the "anti-spit" crusade of a year ago.

UNIFORM OR NOT FOR SCHOOL GIRLS

Discussion is Started as to Whether Some High School Girls Overdress.

BOARD MEMBER SAYS YES

Is there need of dress reform among the girls of the three public high schools of Greater Omaha? Do some of the daughters of well-to-do parents embarrass other girls by wearing up-to-the-minute and expensive clothes? Will the adoption of a uniform solve the problem? Uniform for high school girls! That is what some of the School board members are considering. The same proposition is now before the Board of Education of Kansas City, Mo., and is a live issue in educational circles. Uniforms for high school girls was broached in Omaha nine years ago, but at that time the school officials did not believe public sentiment supported the idea. One Member for It. "Yes, indeed, I am in favor of the uniform plan for our high school girls. I supported the matter nine years ago and will support it again. Some of the High girls wear low-neck dresses, others wear short skirts almost to the degree of immodesty," said Dr. E. Holovitchner of the Board of Education. The doctor referred to compulsory uniforms or high school girls in Europe. He views with alarm the tendency of some high school girls to display their wealth in the form of clothes in the class rooms. He says this situation has a tendency to establish a rivalry among the girls and works against the democracy of the public high school. Wants Modest Dress. Mrs. E. M. Syfert, president of the Omaha Woman's club, said, "I approve of a simpler and more modest dress for our high school girls, but am not ready to endorse the uniform idea. I know that finishing school girls urge simple dress among their attendants." R. F. Williams, another member of the Board of Education, said, "I have been discussing this matter with my wife and we agree that a little more

Gets Service On Company Through Insurance Board

Soliciting business by mail and accepting business secured through members places the Iowa Traveling Men's association of Des Moines, Ia., within the jurisdiction of the Nebraska courts, although the company has not complied with the state law requiring the appointment of an agent or representative on whom legal service may be had according to a decision handed down by Judge Troup. The company has been sued by Margaret J. Hughes, widow of a Nebraska traveling salesman who carried a $5,000 policy in the company. Payment has been declined and on special appearance before Judge Troup the company, through Attorney A. A. McLaughlin, claimed it was not doing such business in Nebraska as to place it within the jurisdiction of Douglas county courts. In order to secure service on the company the papers were served on the secretary of the State Insurance board and in turn forwarded to the Des Moines office. The hearing of the $5,000 case will be continued before Judge Troup. Street Railway Company Pays Even Funeral Bills Judgment for $2,000 and an additional $200 for funeral expenses has been awarded Jasper E. Goodwill, executor of the estate of Jasper J. Goodwill against the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company by District Judge Wakeley. Goodwill was accidentally killed while in the employ of the company and settlement has been made with his widow.

How To Get Rid Of Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness or Head Noises.

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, or if phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels, you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms can be entirely overcome in many instances by the following treatment, which you can easily prepare in your own home at little cost. Restive from your thoughts 1 ounce of Eucalypti (Double Strength). This will not cost you more than 75c. Take this home and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. A decided improvement is sometimes noted after the first day's treatment. Breathing becomes easy, while the distressing head noises, headache, dullness, cloudy thinking, etc., gradually disappear under the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell, taste, defective hearing and mucus dropping in the back of the throat are other symptoms which suggest the presence of catarrh and which are often overcome by this efficacious treatment. Nearly ninety per cent of all ear troubles are said to be directly caused by catarrh, therefore, there must be many people whose hearing can be restored by this simple home treatment.—Advertisement.
