A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—Adv.

OMAHA FOLKS PAY BILLS PROMPTLY

Never in the History of the City Have the Monthly Obligations Been Met So Well.

PROSPEROUS CITY CAUSE

Bills are being more promptly met in Omaha today than they have ever been in the life of the city.

This is shown by the records of the office of the Associated Retailers of Omaha. More people are living up to the agreement entered into with the retailer, which is usually to pay the bill on or before the tenth day of the month following the month in which the purchase was made.

Few people realize the enormous credit business the large stores are doing, and what it means to have accounts drag for a period of months. There are large department stores here that have as much as $150,000 to $200,000 in accounts standing on the books all the time.

For the last few years the retailers here, through the Associated Retailers of Omaha, have been carrying on a kind of campaign of education seeking to instill into the minds of their customers the importance of meeting accounts promptly when due.

The promptness with which bills are met at present in Omaha is believed by the retailers to be partly due to this campaign, although the retailers are not slow to admit that it is partly due to the generally prosperous condition of Nebraska at present.

Value of Promptness.

Secretary J. W. Metcalfe of the Associated Retailers of Omaha, after making a survey of the card index in his office giving the credit standings of the customers of the various stores as they are reported to his office, said:

"More people today realize the value of individual credit rating than ever before in the history of our organization. More of the customers are now living up to their agreements with the retailer to pay by the tenth of the month following the purchase. The credit buyer formerly didn't realize that by holding back money due the retailer on accounts he was making the retailer pay interest on large sums of money he is forced to borrow to do business, and that thus the customer is directly increasing the store's cost of doing business. They now seem to realize more fully their obligation for the accommodation they are getting. The retailers are really the biggest bankers in the community. They loan out money, not as money, but in the form of merchandise."

Brisk Wheat Business Boosts Omaha Receipts

Omaha Thursday sold 300,000 bushels of wheat, 100,000 bushels of it going to the seaboard for export. The balance went to millers of the country who are seeking high grade wheat to blend with the slightly inferior grades.

Wheat receipts were heavy, there having been 245 carloads on the market. Prices were a cent up, the sales being made at $1.49 to $1.55 1/2 per bushel.

Corn was unchanged to a cent higher, selling at 79 1/2 to 81 1/2 cents per bushel. The receipts were forty-one carloads.

Oats were unchanged and sold at 42 1/2 to 43 1/2 cents per bushel, with eighty-two carloads on sale.

To Help Nature Shed a Bad Complexion

Beauty devotees are enthusiastic over the beautifying qualities of mercolized wax. Nothing discovered in recent years accomplishes so much, so quickly, without harm, at such small expense. The principal reason for its wonderful merit is that it works in harmony with physiological laws. Instead of hiding complexion defects, it removes them. It actually takes off the aged, faded, sallow, freckled or blotchy surface skin, gently, gradually, causing no inconvenience. It is Nature's way of renewing complexion. When the natural process is retarded because of deficient circulation or nerve tone, mercolized wax comes to the rescue and hastens the skin shedding. The new complexion which appears is a natural one, youthful, healthy, exquisitely beautiful. If you've never tried mercolized wax, get an ounce of it at the drug store, use it night like cold cream, washing it off in the morning.

Another natural beautifying treatment—for wrinkled skin—is to bathe the face in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxatite in a half-pint, witch hazel. This is remarkably and instantaneously effective.—Advertisement.

BOY VAGRANT HAS MONEY AND STYLE

Son of Chicago Business Man Sure He Can Care for Himself Anywhere.

HE HAD WEIRD TRAVELS

The rear of an engine brought into Omaha at midnight last evening a young but experienced tourist in the person of Merritt Williams, 13, son of Thomas F. Williams, 4343 North Lowell avenue, Chicago, official of the Vista Auto Lamp company. Juvenile authorities found Merritt, all tugged out in the latest style, contentedly eating a chicken pot pie (family style), in the railroad station restaurant.

The wanderer's story starts with the tale of a boy's bicycle repair shop in which Merritt was one of many managers. Chicago police suspected the shop owners of stealing bicycle parts to replenish their stock and Merritt decided to leave his business in Chicago at once. Without money, the boy set forth on his travels.

"I picked up Leonard H. Luck (he's 17), and we hooked a train out of Chicago. But some I. W. W. kicked us off after we rode about thirty miles. Leonard got off easy, but when I tried to drop from the car, a Worker stepped on my fingers and I had to hold on until another hit him on the nose."

Works on Fruit Truck.

The two boys finally "made" Milwaukee, where they earned several dollars on a fruit truck. By boxcar they went to St. Francis, Wis., and by blind baggage to New Butler and Adams. Merritt got work in a restaurant, saved his money and bought clothes. The tourists "hit" Minneapolis and St. Paul, Worthington and North Platte, doing odd jobs all along the line.

At North Platte, Merritt's chum got sick of the vagabond life and went home. But Merritt kept right on going. He earned $25 in that city and bought another new outfit, the one he was wearing when the police here saw him. The young Ulysses sees to it that he gets the best of everything at Riverview home. "My ma won't worry much about me," the lad assured the authorities. "She knows I can take care of myself."
