Lowden's Plurality Bigger Than Dunne's

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Late returns from the Illinois primary tonight indicated no change from the earlier estimates, with the exception of the probable nomination of Joseph O. Kostner of Chicago over Everett Jennings, in the democratic race for congressman-at-large.

The late returns also strengthened the lead former Senator William E. Mason has over B. M. Chipherfield, in the republican fight for the same office.

Defeat of Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara by Henry W. Hutman of Chicago, in the democratic nomination for lieutenant governor, was assured by latest downstate returns.

Governor Edward F. Dunne's plurality for democratic nomination for governor probably will be 95,000, and Frank O. Lowden's plurality for the republican nomination for the same office apparently is 100,000.

William Lorimer has conceded his defeat for congressman.
