

What is Going On in Society Circles

At the Country Club.
Little Miss Elinor Kountze celebrated her tenth birthday at a party at the Country club Saturday afternoon from 4 to 7, in company with sixty-six of her friends. Dancing and games, indoors and out, provided amusement for everyone, and supper at 6 o'clock was the climax of the afternoon. Favors of every shape and description delighted the little guests. Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Redick had eighteen guests at dinner Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wheeler had nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Towle entertained a party of young people at the club last evening. Those present were:

Misses—Josephine Congdon, Helen Ingwersen, Mary Hart, Albert Silbermann, Warren Breckenridge.	Misses—Marion Towle, Naomi Towle, Frank Revia, Jr., of Falls City.
---	--

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Metz had twenty guests at the dinner dance Saturday evening for their guest, Miss Katherine Torrance of Los Angeles. Mr. F. H. Davis entertained a party of fourteen in honor of Mrs. Chauncey Dewey of Manhattan, Kan., who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Eatham Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Carlisle had ten dinner guests at the club last evening. Miss Margaret Colcord of Oklahoma City was the guest at a party which included her hostess, Miss Eugenie Patterson, Miss Miriam Boyce, Mr. Cuthbert Potter, Mr. Allen Tukey and Mr. Leon Callahan.

Others who entertained parties at the club were F. H. Bucholz, five; F. E. Hovey, five; Stockton Heth, four; F. W. Judson, four, and George H. Mayne.

At the Field Club.
Tuesday evening of this week the members of the Field club will have their annual meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Fradenburg gave a dinner party at the club Saturday evening. Asters were used on the table. Covers were laid for:

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Rector had as their guests a party of fourteen. A centerpiece of asters and Marguerites was used on the table.

At Carter Lake Club.
Carter Lake club house has taken on a gala aspect today in preparation for the big harvest home dinner to be given today evening. Masses of golden rod and other wild flowers have been used in profusion all over the building, shocks of corn guard the entrances and heaps of golden pumpkins tell of goodies to come. In a conspicuous place big turkey gobblers strut in their cage, which bears the appeal, "Help." The menu has sounded so tempting to many of the club members that large reservations are beginning to pour in.

J. A. Freeland will entertain a party of sixteen at the dinner. D. H. Christie, C. H. T. Rippen, Mr. Whitmore and R. C. Strehlow have each made reservations for twelve guests. Tom Woods will have a party of ten.

Country Clubs Close.
The Country club will formally close for the season Saturday, September 30, with the usual dinner and dance, but lockers and facilities for golfers will be available until further notice. The same date has been chosen by both the Field and Happy Hollow clubs for their closing dinners, although the golf links at both clubs will be open much later.

Comus Club.
The Comus club members will entertain their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lanstrom Monday evening to replace the basket picnic to have been held Sunday, which the fall weather has rendered impracticable. The next regular meeting of the club will occur Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. F. Dimick.

Bridge-Luncheon Planned.
The invitations were received this week for the bridge-luncheon to be given by Miss Gertrude Metz on Wednesday, October 4, for her guests,

Back Lace Front Lace

A front lace corset to be thoroughly comfortable should be properly protected behind the lacing.

This is necessary in a front lace corset adjusted across the soft front of the body.

You would not wear a shoe without a protecting tongue. Why a front lace corset?

Redfern front lace models have a protecting tongue (patented) extending from top to bottom of the corset.

This and the soft top clasp insure not only protection, but perfect comfort.
