

New Quartet Just
Jeers at Old Age,
All Are Pioneers

The Association of Douglas County Pioneers has a new and interesting organization in its midst. Four pioneers of Douglas county, whose ages are all above 70, have formed themselves into a quartet. Their voices are strong and stirring, despite their age, and they are planning to entertain the association at many of its meetings.

Last Friday afternoon at a meeting of the organization they made their initial appearance. The second appearance will be at the pioneers' basket picnic, which is scheduled for next Saturday from 12 o'clock on at Hanscom park. On that occasion they will furnish music and will have an important place on the program of addresses by association members. The members of this interesting Bee Want Ads Produce Results.

Two Kite Flying Contests
Are Set for This Afternoon

Kite flying contests will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Morton park, and at 4 o'clock in Clearview park, South Side.

Doctors Sued for Not Living Up to Agreement

Suit for $25,000 damages has been filed in district court against Dr. Arthur C. Bunce and Dr. Edwin C. Henry by Mellissa E. Nelson. The amended petition alleges that she called Dr. Bunce to her home November 16, 1912, and was told that she was suffering from appendicitis. She asserts she agreed to an operation with the provision that it be performed by Dr. Henry. While on the operating table at the Swedish Mission hospital, she says, Dr. Bunce performed the operation under the direction of Dr. Henry, contrary to the agreement.

Autumn Style Exhibit

Beginning Here on Monday, September the Eighteenth

THE Opening Display of Suits, Coats, Dresses, Blouses, Hats, etc., and all the most beautiful Silks, Laces and other materials for afternoon and evening wear--The Premier Fashion Event of the year. MONDAY we draw aside the curtain and reveal the most fascinating---the latest and greatest efforts of master designers in the realm of Women's Wear:

THE Brandeis Stores have ever been the first to exhibit the latest and most authentic styles. The most fascinating fancies of Fashion are shown here as soon as they are originated. Our wonderful prestige gives us the entree to the most exclusive ateliers abroad and the choice of the best efforts of master designers in this country.

In this Fall and Winter Exhibit are the cumulative efforts of years--with an ever present desire to present to our public the best that the world affords, we add to the service of previous seasons and show even a better and broader display of Apparel.

For months and months we have been preparing for this event--we have been working co-operatively with the best makers here and abroad--and the result will more than justify this supreme effort.

THE different Apparel will be shown upon living models, and the exhibit will be so arranged that every woman can easily acquaint herself with the precise characteristics of the garment she fancies and know the amount for which it may be purchased.

While makers have of course adopted the more sombre tones of Autumn, this is more than neutralized by an enhancement of beauty in line and contour and the adoption of new collars and fur trimmings.

With a greatly enlarged and beautified store, this Fall Opening begins more auspiciously than ever. The Second Floor will, of course, be the center of attraction, but this exhibit extends all over the Main Floor and through the entire store.

Truly, never has a Fall season opened with greater promise. Makers seem to have anticipated every thought and desire of Fashion's devotees.

In the Fabric World, this season will witness the employment of some of the most beautiful and fascinating effects. Tinsel, gold and silver and all the colors of the painter's palette charmingly woven and interwoven.
