

Nebraska NEW YORK'S VOTE PROVES CLINCHER

Chairman Beach Says Nothing Else Needed to Show Trend of Sentiment in Nation.

IT MEANS HUGHES WINS

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Sept. 20.—(Special.)—Chairman E. D. Beach left today for Kearney, where he will meet with the republican county committee to discuss campaign affairs.

From Kearney Mr. Beach will go to Holdrege to attend an evening meeting of the county central committee of Phelps. Mr. Beach will take up matters of local organization with the committee and endeavor to secure a line on the campaign.

The renewed enthusiasm of republican workers throughout the state is vividly depicted by the correspondence received at state headquarters, C. C. Johns, incharge of the publicity bureau, said today. Hundreds of letters are pouring in from republicans over the state, indicating an unusual interest in the campaign and expressing confidence that Mr. Hughes will carry Nebraska.

Pleased With New York.

Chairman Beach of the state committee said he was well pleased with the results in New York.

"The New York primary is additional proof of the claims of republicans that a majority of the progressives are returning to republican ranks under the progressive leadership of Mr. Hughes. We are delighted with the vote in New York. The democrats, in Judge Seabury, had the very strongest man they could pick and even his personal popularity was not sufficient to carry the state.

"In New York, as in Maine, the republican party is coming into its own and what happened in the primary will be repeated, only more emphatically at the November election."

Speaking Dates.

J. V. Craig, manager of the speakers' bureau of the republican state committee, announced today that the list of speakers who will campaign in Nebraska include the following:

Congressman J. W. Fordney of Michigan, Fremont, September 21; York, September 22.
Congressman J. A. Frear of Wisconsin, Hastings, September 23; Fairbury, September 24; Lincoln, September 25; Auburn, September 26; Tecumseh, September 27; Pawnee City, September 28.

Congressman Sidney Anderson of Minnesota, Stromsburg, September 29; Wahoo, September 30; Minden, September 31; Holdrege, September 28.
Congressman W. A. Rodenberg of Illinois, Plattsmouth, October 2; Nebraska City, October 3; Falls City, October 24.

Beatrice Woman Killed In Auto Accident

Beatrice, Neb., Sept. 20.—(Special Telegram.)—In an automobile accident near Lincoln this morning, which resulted in the death of Mrs. Emma Purdy, four others were more or less severely injured. They are:

Miss May Purdy, Beatrice, driver of the car; severely cut about head and body.
Mrs. Mary Bowen, Beatrice; nose broken, left arm crushed and head bruised.
Miss Velma Carey, Liberty, and Mrs. Lella Yocum of Wakefield, Kan., both severely bruised.

The party was returning home from Lincoln and in going down a steep hill Miss Purdy lost control of the car, which turned over, pinning Mrs. Purdy underneath it. She died enroute to a hospital in this city. She was 47 years of age and had lived in Gage county for many years. The injured are in a hospital here and will recover.

Reception For Minister.

Stromsburg, Neb., Sept. 20.—(Special.)—A public reception was given by the Eden Baptist church of this place, to the new pastor, Rev. J. L. Barton and his wife. The church was filled with people from the town and surrounding country, and several from Polk were present. The ministers of the city were invited and those who took part in the program were: Rev. J. O. Backlund of the First Baptist church, Rev. P. A. Harrison and Rev. O. L. McClerey. Ministers from out-of-town were: Rev. R. A. Jensen of Osceola, Rev. A. H. Nickel of Polk, Rev. Dilley of Octavia and Rev. Ray E. York of Lincoln, state secretary of the Baptist association.

News Notes of Aurora.

Aurora, Neb., Sept. 20.—(Special Telegram.)—A. O. Hartquest, a prominent business man of Aurora, had both bones of his right forearm badly crushed while cranking his automobile today. He will be laid up for some time.

Judge E. E. Good today ordered the jury called for October 2 instead of September 25. Six cases were set for trial, the first being Stephenson against the Union Pacific. This is a personal injury case arising over an accident near Ord, where a cyclone blew a train from the track. A similar case went to the supreme court, which decided against the railroad company.

Swartz Held for Trial.

Pender, Neb., Sept. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—At the preliminary hearing of Louis Swartz of Emerson, charged with statutory assault, conducted in Judge Roy B. Cartberg's court today, the evidence was such as to warrant binding the defendant to the district court. Bond was fixed at $2,500, which was furnished by the defendant, and he was released to appear for trial at the next term of the district court. Swartz is a resident of Dixon county, but the crime is alleged to have been committed in Thurston county, hence the case coming on for trial here.

Minister Is Stricken.

Boone, Ia., Sept. 20.—(Special Telegram.)—Rev. Elliott Voeles, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, while milking a cow which he kept at his stable on Dr. Allen's place, was seized with heart ailure and died before he could be carried into the house.

W. Mills King of Oklahoma City, Okl., and Miss Maude Luella Shackleton were married yesterday at 10 o'clock at the Episcopal church, Rev. W. A. Mulligan officiating. They will make their home at Oklahoma City.

Deaf Man Composed Score for State Ode

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Sept. 20.—(Special.)—A deaf man is the composer of the musical score recently chosen by a committee of judges for the Nebraska state ode, written by W. H. Buss of Fremont. Information of this fact has reached State Superintendent Thomas in a letter from John Prindle Scott of New York, to whom the $100 prize was awarded for the best melody to fit the words of the poem.

Mr. Scott states that he prepared himself for a public singer's career, which he followed for ten years, but was compelled to abandon it several years ago when deafness came upon him suddenly.

Scott says he intends to come to Nebraska for the semi-centennial celebration when his song will be sung.

Engineer Hageman Hit By Train at Sweetwater

Ravenna, Sept. 20.—(Special.)—C. O. Hageman, Burlington freight engineer, was struck by the engine of passenger train No. 42 yesterday morning and badly injured. Mr. Hageman had sidetracked his train at Sweetwater to allow the passenger to go by and was on the ground beside his engine. He opened a steam cock and the sudden rush of steam caused him to step back just as the passenger train came by. He was struck on the shoulder and thrown violently to the ground. The passenger train stopped and took the wounded man to the hospital at Grand Island. A broken arm and a badly bruised shoulder were the wounds discovered by first diagnosis.

Powell Finds Few Cars Held in Omaha Yards

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Sept. 20.—(Special.)—Reporting on the box car shortage said to exist in the state because of delay in returning cars from Omaha, U. G. Powell, expert for the Nebraska Railway commission, said he found the situation in Omaha generally excellent.

"There are no cars held up in Omaha," Mr. Powell declared, notwithstanding reports to the contrary. Mr. Powell said he found few cars in Omaha and in every instance those were returned as soon as they have been emptied.

Golden Wedding Observance Of Mr. and Mrs. O. Durand

Fairbury, Neb., Sept. 20.—(Special.)—The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver H. Durand was celebrated Tuesday, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. George Garber, six miles northwest of Fairbury. Owing to Mr. Durand's prominence in Grand Army circles, the entire Russell Grand Army of the Republic Post No. 77 of Fairbury, together with the Women's Relief Corps, attended. Mr. Durand was commander of the Nebraska Grand Army of the Republic several years ago.

Been "Going It" Too Hard?

Lots of folks who are tired, cross, nervous, rheumatic and achy, are showing all the signs of early kidney trouble without realizing it. It's often the result of our great American fault—making one continual rush of work or pleasure without taking enough rest.

fresh air, exercise or sleep. Such an attack isn't hard to get rid of—just give body and nerves a rest and help the kidneys get stronger. Try Doan's Kidney Pills. They have helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Don't wait. Chronic kidney disease is serious.

Omaha Proof

F. A. Anderson, Shoemaker, 3704 North Sixteenth street, says: "I don't know what started it, but I got a pain in my back over my right kidney, which was very annoying. Sometimes when I would get up the least move made me feel as if someone was putting a knife into my back. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I haven't been bothered since."
