

OBSERVATION CLASS WILL PLEASE STAND

Here Are Some More Queries
to Test Power of Noticing Things You See.

CAN YOU ANSWER 'EM ALL?

By A. R. GROH.

You showed a very gratifying interest, folks, in that article last week testing your powers of observation. I thank you. It was a bright idea. I admit, I bow and again I thank you.

Some people reported that they answered nine out of the ten questions. Others couldn't answer more than five.

One man, who must have been our well-known and highly-respected fellow-citizen, Mr. Careful Observer, declared that he answered all ten of them—answered 'em right, too, by hokum.

So, in response to popular demand, we offer for your kind approval, ladies 'n' gents, ten more questions to test your powers of observation.

Each of these questions is harder than the other nine. Yet you have passed all the things inquired about many, many times. They are all on Farnam street between Fourteenth and Eighteenth streets.

Here They Are.

Where, within the boundaries mentioned, are the following:

1. Ten grotesque faces and two gargoyle carved in the stone above a main entrance.

2. Bee hives carved on the corner of a building about thirty feet above the ground. (That one ought to be easy.)

3. A colossal bronze eagle standing on a rock above its nest and killing a serpent which was eating the eagle's young.

4. The name and initials of an Omaha pioneer in big letters on the rounded corner of a building.

5. Cherubs sitting in floral swings. This is on the terra cotta front of a building.

6. A canon hanging out in front of a store.

7. A building with carvings of the sun, the moon, scales of justice and an eagle on its walls.

8. A bank with window boxes full of greenery.

9. What material are the walls of the city hall built of?

10. What material are the walls of The Bee building built of? Pretty hard list, eh? Afraid you won't pass?

Well, now, mark yourself 10 for each question you can answer correctly. Here are the answers:

1. Gargoyles and faces over entrance of city hall.

2. Bee hives carved in the granite at the corners of the Bee building.

3. The big eagle is up over the entrance to the Omaha National bank building. (Notice the serpent and the young eaglets.)

4. "W. A. Paxton" on the Paxton building, Sixteenth and Farnam.

5. Cherubs on the front of the new Sun theater, near Fourteenth and Farnam streets.

6. Canoe hanging up in front of Townsend Gun company store.

7. Carvings of sun, moon, etc., on Woodmen of the World building.

8. United States National bank.

9. City hall built of grey granite up to the third floor and of red sandstone from there up.

10. Bee building built of reddish granite up to the third floor and of dark red pressed brick from there up.

Did you pass? Passing mark is 50 and I congratulate you if you made that mark. It's more than I could have done.

HUGHES SPEAKING IN HOOSIER STATE

ican appeal in a purely partisan spirit."

Mr. Hughes defined a true American as follows:

"The man who is a true American is one who rejoices in the victories of our institutions in giving opportunities in which everybody shall have a share, not a selected few, but the diffusion of prosperity among the great mass of people in this country."

"It is idle to say that we cannot go ahead because there may be abuses. We can cut out the abuses and go ahead at the same time."

"When a party is in power, the best thing it can do for its own good is to demonstrate that it holds the standard of public administration above the petty demands of partisanship."

Mr. Hughes spoke for only twenty minutes at the suggestion of the throat specialist, who accompanied him. The nominee's voice was husky and showed the effects of constant speaking in the open air.

Before making his address here, Mr. Hughes spoke from the rear platform of his car to a crowd at Monon, Ind. In this address he outlined his stand on the issues of the campaign. The Hughes special left Lafayette at 11 a. m. The next stop was Delphi.

South Dakota Express Rate Hearing Postponed

Sioux Falls, S. D., Sept. 21.—Judge James D. Elliott, in the United States district court here today, issued a new order, replacing that recently filed, which postpones the hearing until Saturday, September 30, on the petition of the express companies for a temporary injunction restraining the prosecution of the original action in the South Dakota supreme court to enjoin the putting into effect the interstate rates ordered by the Interstate Commerce commission. Unavoidable delay in the serving of papers and the necessity of securing two other United States judges to sit at the hearing resulted in the adjournment from Monday until Saturday.

Chris Lyck of the Douglas county fair will offer $20 in prizes on children's day at the fair, October 7, for winners of pushmobile and kite contests. These co. contests will be held under the same conditions and rules adopted by the Recreation board.

VILLA STRUCK HARD BLOW AT CHIHUAHUA

Bandit Chief Captures De Facto Artillery and Loads of Ammunition.

REPORT BY GENERAL BELL

Washington, Sept. 21.—An official account of Villa's raid on Chihuahua City last Saturday received at the War department today from Brigadier General Bell at El Paso says the bandit chief captured some of Carranza's artillery and sixty automobile loads of arms and ammunition, liberated 200 prisoners from the penitentiary and made off after being joined by from 1,000 to 1,500 soldiers of the Carranza garrison.

According to General Bell's information Villa himself went to the governor's palace and made a speech from the balcony after his forces had captured the palace, the penitentiary and federal buildings.

The report reveals the fact that on September 14 Villa sent a letter to General Trevino, commander at Chihuahua, saying he would be in the city at 3 p. m. Saturday to "shake hands."

General Bell expresses the opinion that the raid was completely successful and that Villa accomplished even more than he said he would.

Trevino's personal guard deserted him, appears, and in the confusion many government soldiers were killed by their own comrades.

Text of Bell's Report.

General Bell's report follows:

"Evidence increases to show that Villa was completely successful in his attack Saturday upon Chihuahua and accomplished all and more than he said he would do. There is diversity of opinion and statements as to the number of men with which he entered Chihuahua. Some reports state he only had about 500, while others give him 1,500, but all agree that he was able to secure possession of the penitentiary, the governor's palace and the federal buildings and hold them for several hours and all this with a Carranza garrison at Chihuahua, which some place at not less than 6,000. Liberated over 200 prisoners, secured and carried away more than sixteen automobile loads of arms and ammunition under an escort of deserting Carranza troops. He left Chihuahua with from 1,000 to 1,500 more men than he entered with."

Villa retired leisurely and without molestation. The firing by Trevino's artillery occurred after Villa troops had withdrawn.

Villa Sends Letter.

"On September 14 Trevino received a letter from Villa stating that he, Villa, would be in Chihuahua to shake hands with Trevino on the 16th and hoped that he would have a suitable reception for him, that he might be hungry and would like to have something to eat.

"On the 15th of September it was reported that Villa personally entered Chihuahua was seen by many of his friends there and reconnoitered the city. Of course, he was in disguise.

On the night of the 15th the Villistas approached Chihuahua from a camp which he had maintained for two days within twenty-two miles of that city. After Villa's column had secured possession of the penitentiary, the governor's palace and federal buildings, Villa himself went to the governor's palace, into the main balcony, displayed his face and made a short speech, which in substance was as follows:

What Villa Said.

"Vive Mexico. You do not have your liberty. I will give you your liberty, for I am your brother. I am going to return in a few days."

"It appears that there had been a banquet attended by most of Trevino's officers and that about 2 o'clock this banquet was finished and most of the officers of the Carranza garrison were asleep. As soon as Trevino heard of the trouble he started toward the governor's palace, but his personal escort deserted him and went over to Villa.

"The party that attacked the federal building rode into the building on horseback and the guard there deserted to them. It is reported that many of the Carranza troops who were killed were killed by other Carranza troops, probably as a result of artillery fire from Santa Rosa hill."

Turkey Agrees to Red Cross Relief
Work in Armenia

Washington, Sept. 21.—Turkey has yielded to diplomatic negotiations for an extension of American Red Cross work in Ottoman territory beyond the present limited operations in famine-stricken sections of Syria. The State department today notified Red Cross headquarters that the Turkish government had agreed to remove its restrictions and preparations were taken up at once for beginning a great relief campaign in co-operation with the Red Crescent society of Turkey. President Wilson, by proclamation, has set aside October 21 and October 22 for Armenian and Syrian relief days, and it is expected that the funds in hand will be largely increased by contributions received then. Already in the sections where the Red Cross is operating, such cooperation has proved successful. About $200,000 has been sent on ready to the branches of the society at Constantinople, presided over by the American ambassador and the other at Beirut.

increases strength of overloading the skin and pores, tend to age the complexion. Mercosil wax has just the opposite effect. It keeps the pores clean, permits them to respire, removes particles of cuticle, which are constantly appearing and which give the complexion that aged look. Whenever my skin begins to get the least bit oil-soluble, muddy or greasy, I go to my druggist for nuxated or mercosil wax. I apply this nightly like cream, for a week or so, washing off mornings. This is what keeps my complexion so fresh, white and velvety.

I owe the use of nuxated and flaxlinseed oil to my druggist about it. Sherman & McConnell Drug Stores always carry it in stock.

This Will Remove Hair or Fuzzy Growths

(Toilet Tips)

A safe, certain method for ridding the skin of ugly, hairy growths is as follows: Mix paste with some powdered aloetone and water, apply to hairy surface about 2 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and hairs are gone. This is entirely harmless and seldom requires repeating, but to avoid disappointment it is advisable to see that you get genuine aloetone.—Advertisement.
