

Nebraska FREAR DISCUSSES DEMOCRATIC WASTE

Wisconsin Congressman Analyzes Wilson's Financial Record.

MONEY SPENT IN SOUTH

Hastings, Neb., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Congressman James A. Frear of Wisconsin delivered an address here last night, in which he discussed the financial record of the Wilson administration and the sectional manner in which money so extravagantly appropriated had been expended. Mr. Frear said in part:

"One of the strongest indictments made in 1912 by the democratic platform reads:

"We denounce the profligate waste of money wrought from the people by oppressive taxation through the lavish appropriations of republican congressmen."

"This charge was made in a platform drawn by Mr. Bryan and his associates. In the wild riot of waste and extravagance which has accompanied the Wilson administration we have been confronted with the slogan, 'He kept us out of war.' Every thinking man knows we have been kept out of war, not through the administration, but in spite of its blunders. The cry is raised primarily to prevent inquiry into broken platform promises. Let us stick a pin into one hole at a time and see what becomes of democratic promises and policies. What is the record of 'profligate waste'?"

Seven Hundred Millions More.

Leaving out Panama canal expenditures in both administrations, the total appropriations during the Taft administration, from 1910 to 1913, inclusive, in round numbers, reached $3,800,000,000. During President Wilson's term thus far the total appropriations reach over $4,846,000,000, or more than $1,000,000,000 increase for the four-year Taft period. Deducting extra defense items of about $340,000,000 leaves a net increase of $700,000,000 in appropriations thus far made or 18 per cent excess apart from the extra defense bills. I will not discuss figures to show how and where the waste occurred beyond saying that over 7,000 new places were created, with annual salaries of about $7,700,000. That is a net increase; $9,756,000 more was salary increase to care for 8,000 more positions where huge sums were provided and a discretion left with heads of departments.

Money Spent in South.

"A large part of these appropriations are given to the south. That is natural, because the democratic majority comes from the south and every important committee chairmanship, some thirty-two in number, comes from the south, all excepting Fitzgerald of New York, whereas thirteen southern states only contributed $4,850,000 toward the income tax revenues of 1915, while thirteen northern states contributed $65,308,000 during the same period, or fourteen times as much. Is it not time for the people of this country to inquire why these heavy tax burdens are being levied and where they are distributed? Nearly half of the $43,000,000 for rivers and harbors, in round numbers, goes to the south, although all the actual waterway commerce of the entire south does not amount to one-half of the commerce of the Duluth-Superior harbor. Is it not time to ask an accounting from those who control congress and four years ago denounced republican extravagance?"

Tabloids of Politics

Little Items About the Progress of the Campaign.

Arthur C. Smith has been chosen chairman of a Hughes and Fairbanks Business Men's league. Harry S. Byrne is secretary. The following will serve on the executive committee: Arthur C. Smith, H. H. Baldrige, Gordon W. Watters, Luther Drake, Joseph H. Millard, John C. Wharton, Louis C. Nash, George Brandeis and L. H. Davis. It is expected that during the remaining weeks of the campaign the league will hold noonday meetings, to which leading speakers will be invited. The league will also circulate much literature designed to interest the business men in the candidacy of Mr. Hughes.

National Committeeman Howell is corresponding with Raymond Robins, who may be in Nebraska, September 29 and 30, for a brief speaking tour.

"It is very evident that Senator Hitchcock is now trying to hang to the Wilson coat-tail. His speeches plainly indicate his present methods," stated a prominent democrat, who does not wish his name used at this time, for business reasons. He is one of Omaha's well-known lawyers and a politician-of statewide acquaintance. He says he can read the senator like a book. "The senator fought the administration on the tariff bill and the bank reserve bill and now is following the Wilson band wagon just to get votes. I have always accounted myself a democrat, but my democracy falls short when it comes to voting for Senator Hitchcock this time."

"Preparedness, prosperity and protection," is the slogan of the National Republican league, of which John Hays Hammond is president.

J. C. Robinson, well-known seedman of Waterloo, upon his return from the west, made this statement: "I heard Mr. Hughes speak in Denver before the Mile-High club and I came away enthusiastic over the man."

President Harry S. Byrne of the McKinley club has received a telegram from Henry J. Allen of Wichita, Kan., former progressive candidate for governor, saying he will arrive in Omaha next Monday morning at 11:30 over the Rock Island. Plans are being made to have Mr. Allen speak at noon at the Live Stock exchange, South Side. He will be the principal speaker Monday evening at the Rome hotel, under the auspices of the McKinley Club of Omaha, on the occasion of the state convention of republican clubs. Mr. Allen is most forceful as well as an entertaining speaker.

Wilson Sentiment In Boone County Is On the Wayne

Albion, Sept. 22.—(Special.)—While Boone county has for several months appeared to show a leaning toward President Wilson, those acquainted with the situation believe that a change has begun to take place and that from now on Hughes will be found getting the better of the argument.

Normally Boone is republican by a small majority and republicans hope to see the whole ticket climb to the top by the time the votes are counted.

One of the leading republicans of the county said today that he could see that the people were beginning to take more of an interest in the campaign and that the argument of democrats to let well enough alone was not meeting with so much favor as it did a week or two ago. "People are beginning to talk and discuss the situation and when they begin to do that," said he, "it simply means votes for Hughes, for as soon as the campaign becomes one of education and the people understand the real situation, they will find that all of this talk about Wilson keeping us out of war, ending the strike and giving us good times won't stand up in a fair and honest discussion of the question."

John L. Kennedy is very strong in Boone county, as is also Judge Sutton. One of the leading democrats of the county, one closely in touch with the situation, said today that Kennedy would carry the county by a big majority and that Sutton would not be far behind him. This appears to be the general sentiment among democrats and republicans alike.

Madison County Fair Will Open Tuesday

Madison, Neb., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—The Madison county fair, which opens next Tuesday and closes Friday, promises to be the best exhibition of the kind ever held in Madison county. The total number of entries will exceed 2,000. With their rounds well-lighted and an interesting program with a spectacular display of fireworks for each evening, the night fair is a feature. There will be base ball each day with a $100 purse, except Tuesday, Tilden, Battle Creek, Creston and Madison teams will compete. Harness races, automobile polo games, open-air entertainments and band concerts are features of the afternoon and evening programs. The pigs of the Boys' Pig club and the exhibits of the Girls' Sewing and Cooking club, the better babies contest and the state farm exhibit requiring a special car for its transportation, accompanied by two expert demonstrators, are additional attractions. Thursday is children's day, when all school children under 16 are admitted free without tickets.

Resinol

itching skin

"I had a terrible case of eczema which covered both my hands. My fingers began to itch, then tiny water blisters came which formed sores all over my hands. I suffered for two years, getting very little rest or sleep because of the terrible itching. I used very many remedies, but they all failed to give me any relief. I tried Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and got immediate relief. My hands were completely cured. They are soft and white and without a blemish, and I shall never be without Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap in my home." (Signed) Mrs. Jacob Schwartz, 1263 W. Cary St. Richmond, Va., Jan. 21.

All druggists sell Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. For a free sample of each, write to Dept. S-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. You'd better try them.

"Preparedness, prosperity and protection," is the slogan of the National Republican league, of which John Hays Hammond is president.

Notes from Beatrice And Gage County

Beatrice, Neb., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reed, who reside near Blue Springs, are in a local hospital seriously ill from an attack of typhoid fever. Their two sons, who have also been suffering from the scourge, are improving. Fourteen of the relatives who attended the funeral of Walter Reed in Sicily township are ill of the disease, and the state chemist has secured a sample of the water from the well on the Reed farm, to determine, if possible, the cause of the outbreak.

J. J. Gould, who was bound over to the district court Monday on the charge of assaulting Gladys, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton of this city, was released from the county jail on bail of $2,000. Fearing harm from someone, he returned to the jail and asked that he be placed behind the bars. A number of his friends visited the jail in an automobile and took him to the Burlington station, where he left the city on a northbound train. His brother, Ira Gould, of this city, appears as bondsman. Since Gould's arrest his wife and three sons have arranged to locate at Boone, Ia. He is nearly 60 years of age and has always borne a good name in the community.

The Gage county fair will be held in Beatrice September 23 to 29 and the exhibits promise to be unusually large. A number of fast horses have been entered for the races.

Fred Altergoot, who was arrested here last week for the murder of Louis Banks at Stockton, Kan., on August 23, last, was arraigned at Stockton last Wednesday, pleaded guilty and was given a life term in the Kansas penitentiary.

Jury Drawn for District Court at Red Oak

Red Oak, Ia., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—The trial jurors for the October term of the Montgomery county district court were drawn Tuesday afternoon by Clerk F. P. Greenlee, Auditor Peter Ostrom and Recorder S. E. Pryce. The October term will open on the 17th, but Clerk Greenlee has not yet been notified who will be the presiding judge. Judge Arthur of Logan is sick in an Omaha hospital and will be unable to do any more work this year, consequently it was necessary for the judges of the district to rearrange their assignments in order to take care of the assignments of Judge Arthur. Only a few cases for the new term have been filed, but several old cases are left over on the docket from the last term.

Madison Court News.

Madison, Neb., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Alonzo Garvey and Martha Newman were married at the county court room, Judge McDuffie officiating. Both are from Battle Creek.

A marriage license was issued to John F. Bredehoff and Martha Fenske, also of Battle Creek.

The will of Augusta Minnie Stein, late of Norfolk, Neb., was admitted to probate and Philip J. Fuesler of that city appointed administrator with bond fixed at $4,000.

FIRST AID OFTEN RESULTS IN MESS

Railroad Surgeon Condemns Meddlesome Laymen Who Attempt to Give Help.

KEOKUK GETS NEXT MEET

"Meddlesome laymen," in the sense of administering first aid to the injured, came in for a scoring at the Friday morning's session of the Medical Society of the Missouri Valley, which is holding its twenty-ninth annual meeting in Omaha.

Dr. C. W. Hopkins of Chicago, chief surgeon of the Northwestern railroad, in his paper on "First Aid to the Injured," declared that in "civil practice the weak sentimentalism prevailing among laymen often results in loss of life or limb or material increase in pain and suffering and in prolonged disability."

He declared in none too gentle tones the activities of the busy-body members of the community who are always ready to rush to the scene of an accident and volunteer their services, which, he averred, more often resulted in a mess that proved a handicap to the doctors.

According to Dr. Hopkins' statements, it is well understood by surgeons that the character of the first treatment given an injured person frequently determines the final result.

Too Often Ignorant.

It is all well and good, he explained, when a layman really knows what to do, contending however, that the average person is vastly ignorant when it comes to taking the initial responsibility when an accident occurs.

Following the close of the morning session the society elected officers for the ensuing year, Dr. C. R. Woodson of St. Joseph succeeding Dr. John F. Lord of Omaha as president. The other officers chosen were Dr. E. W. Rowe of Lincoln, first vice president; Dr. C. B. Hickenlooper of Winterset, Ia., second vice president; Dr. O. C. Gebhart of St. Joseph, treasurer; Dr. Charles Wood Fassett of Kansas City, secretary. Dr. Gebhart and Dr. Fassett were re-elected.

Keokuk Gets Meeting.

Keokuk, Ia., was named as the next meeting place.

Dr. F. B. Dorsey of Keokuk was elected chairman of the committee on arrangements for the 1917 convention.

At the closing day's sessions papers were read and discussions led by the following: Dr. Robert H. Babcock of Chicago and Dr. A. D. Dunn of Omaha, Dr. G. W. Wise Robinson of Kansas City and Dr. C. R. Woodson of St. Joseph, Dr. Frank D. Dickson of Kansas City and Dr. W. H. Orr of Lincoln, Dr. Leigh F. Watson of Oklahoma City, Dr. H. J. Lehnhoff of Lincoln and Dr. J. W. Shuman of Sioux City, Dr. James M. Patton of Omaha and Dr. P. L. Leonard of St. Joseph, Dr. C. H. Newell of Omaha and Dr. Daniel Morton of St. Joseph, Dr. L. A. Dermody of Omaha and Dr. W. T. Reynolds of Kansas City, Dr. E. L. Delaney of Omaha and Dr. W. J. Frick of Kansas City, Dr. Michael Y. Wohl of Omaha.

To Visit Clinics.

Clinics will be held at the various hospitals in Omaha this morning.

Dr. Patton is chairman of the committee in charge of this feature of the convention.

Five Men Dig Way Out Of North Platte Jail

North Platte, Neb., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Digging a hole eighteen inches square in the brick wall of the "bull pen" in the county jail, five men effected the first jail delivery to be attempted here in five years. Ed Long and William Hunt, serving thirty days for intoxication; Elmer Daggett, serving a similar sentence for carrying concealed weapons; and two Mexicans serving short terms for trespassing on railway property, are the men who are missing. How the men obtained tools to dig away the mortar is still unknown. The men escaped sometime between 10 p. m. when the sheriff retired, and 6 a. m. when he again visited the "bull pen."
