

"What's in a Name, Anyhow?" You Ask Us

CLUBDOM

Calendar of Club Doings

Monday—
Child Conservation league, Dundee circle; Mrs. Miles Greenleaf, hostess; 2:30 p. m.

Tuesday—
P. E. O. sisterhood, chapter B. P.; Mrs. D. V. McVea, hostess; 2:30 p. m.
Business Women's council, luncheon and prayer meeting, courthouse, 11 to 2 o'clock.
Business Women's club stereopticon lecture, Y. W. C. A., 7:45 p. m.
Prairie Park Needlecraft club, club house, 2 p. m.

Wednesday
Woman's Relief corps, George A. Custer branch, Memorial hall, 1:30 p. m.
Dundee Woman's club; Mrs. G. C. Guinter, hostess; 2:30 p. m.
Mothers' Culture club, luncheon, Mrs. George E. Mickel, hostess, 1 p. m.
W. C. T. U., Frances Willard branch, Y. W. C. A., 2 p. m.
W. C. T. U., Omaha branch, Y. M. C. A., 2:30 p. m.
W. W. club, Mrs. H. F. Shearer, hostess.

Thursday—
Benson Woman's club, Benson city hall, 2:30 p. m.
P. E. O. sisterhood, Chapter B. K., evening party at home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Buchanan.
George Crook Woman's Relief corps, Kensington, Mrs. F. J. Ferrell, hostess.

Friday—
Woman's auxiliary to Episcopal churches, Omaha, South Side and Florence branches, Trinity cathedral chapel, 10 a. m.
Society of American Widows, Crouse block, 7 p. m.

PROGRAMS for the two big state conventions, to be held in Hastings the first week in October, that of the Nebraska Woman Suffrage association and the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs, are out. The suffragists meet for their thirty-sixth annual and the club women their twenty-first annual "love meet." Hastings will entertain at the same time the two biggest women of both national organizations, Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles of Los Angeles, who at the New York biennial was elected to succeed Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker as president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of New York, president of the International as well as the National Woman Suffrage association.

A luncheon will be given for both national presidents on Tuesday, October 3, while both women will speak that same evening at the opening meeting of the federated woman's clubs, perhaps the first time the heads of these two big organizations have ever appeared on the same program. That Mrs. Cowles is a voter, since she is a California woman, and Mrs. Catt is not, it is interesting to note.

Omaha women on the program will be Mrs. F. H. Cole, chairman of the civil service reform department for the general federation, who speaks on "Women in Civil Service"; Mrs. C. W. Hayes, state legislative chairman; Mrs. K. R. J. Edholm, state health chairman; Mrs. E. M. Syfert, president of the Omaha Woman's club; Mrs. M. D. Cameron, state recording secretary; Mrs. F. J. Birss, who will lead a conference on "How to Make Our Cities More Efficient"; Mrs. R. E. McKelvy, who will speak on the "Desirability of a Press Department." Mrs. Cole will also give a report of the scholarship trustees.

Monday, October 2, is the opening day of the suffrage convention, the big evening meeting to be addressed by Mrs. Catt. Mrs. W. E. Barkley, state president, will give the state suffragists some pointers on a winning campaign.

Mrs. E. M. Syfert, the president; Mrs. William Berry, Mrs. John W. Gill, Mrs. James Liddell, Mrs. F. J. Birss, Mrs. F. A. Howard and Mrs. David McGahey are the delegates to the federation meeting from the Omaha Woman's club.

Benson's Woman's club will be represented by the president, Mrs. O. S. Brooks, and Mrs. C. A. Tracy; the Woman's Club of the Railway Mail Service by Mrs. O. M. Jones and Mrs. J. K. Bittinger, since the president, Mrs. R. L. Frantz, is unable to attend. The Dundee Woman's club will name its delegates at the meeting Wednesday. The South Side Woman's club will send its president, Mrs. P. J. Farrell, Mrs. J. B. Watkins, Mrs. R. P. Falkner and Mrs. N. M. Graham.

Lists of delegates to the suffrage convention are also well-nigh completed. Mrs. R. E. McKelvy, president; Dr. Fay, Mesdames George C. Covell, C. S. Hartwick, A. O. Carson, Thomas Brown, Herbert McCoy and T. R. Ward are the delegates from the Omaha Suffrage association; the alternates are Miss Edith Ward, Mesdames Thomas Duffy, F. J. Birss, Mary Carmack, A. O. Etan, Sherman Felt and R. F. Gilder.

From the Equal Franchise society will go the president, Mrs. J. M. Metcalf, and Mesdames E. M. Fairfield, C. H. Johannes, Z. T. Lindsey, Edward Burke, James Richardson, E. W. Gunther, Halleck Rose, C. W. Russell and Mary Carmack.

Equal Franchise society will hold its annual meeting at the Hotel Fontenelle Thursday, October 12, at 3 o'clock. This will be one of the important fall meetings. Mrs. W. E. Barkley, state suffrage president, will be present, and reports will be given of both the national suffrage convention held at Atlantic City and the state meeting as well.

The Political Equality league will be represented by Mrs. F. D. Weed, its president; Mrs. Myrtle Kelly, Miss Belle Dewey and others.

Local Women's Christian Temperance unions entertained the largest state convention that has ever been held, last week, at the First Christian church. The convention exceeded by 100 delegates any previous state meeting, over 300 being the total. The church was crowded for every session, especially in the evening, when young people took part in the program. The presence of Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, wife of the former secretary of state, who has espoused the temperance cause so strongly, lent additional interest to the meeting. Mrs. Bryan was elected delegate-at-large to the national temperance convention in Indianapolis in November.

Such a graceful, diplomatic and capable executive as Mrs. Mamie M. Clavin of University Place has seldom presided over such a large body of women in Omaha. Mrs. Clavin was re-elected to the presidency, as were all of the state officers but one.

(Additional Club News on Page Four)

Here Are Two Omaha Young Women Whose Names Are Exactly Alike, and Maybe They Can Answer You as to the Fun the Situation Involves

MILDRED
BERNICE
RHODES

• HEYNS PHOTO •

MILDRED
BERNICE
RHODES

• HEYNS PHOTO •

SOCIETY

Social Calendar

Monday—
Annual Golfers' dinner at Happy Hollow club. Bridge-luncheon for Miss Lucile Bacon, given by Mrs. Arthur Pinto.
Luncheon for Miss Ethel Tierney, given at Carter Lake clubhouse by Tuesday Whist club.
Doyle-Lewis wedding.
Luncheon at Country club for Miss Dorothy Denison Dunlop; Mrs. C. W. Russell, hostess.
Box party at Boyd for special Ak-Sar-Ben maids, given by Miss Nancy Boyer.

Tuesday—
Ak-Sar-Ben fall jubilee begins.
Brogan-Rice wedding in Austin, Texas.
Dramatic tea for Omaha Woman's Press club; Mrs. Martin Harris, hostess.
Dinner at Happy Hollow club, given by Miss Henrietta Gilmore for Miss Helen Jackson of Westfield, N. J.
Luncheon at Field club, Mrs. E. P. Smith, hostess.
Bridge-luncheon for Miss Lucile Bacon, Mrs. C. T. Kountze, hostess.
Luncheon at Field club, Mrs. R. D. Pollard, hostess.
Afternoon affair for Miss Ethel Tierney, given by Miss Viola Morearty.
Rohrbaugh-Heaton wedding at Wahoo, Neb. Luncheon at Field club, Mrs. C. B. Bowen, hostess.
Closing bridge tournament at Field club.
Dinner dances at Happy Hollow and Seymour Lake Country clubs.

Wednesday
Carruthers-Britton wedding.
Bridge-luncheon for Miss Lucile Bacon, given by Mrs. J. W. Griffith.
Luncheon at Fontenelle, given by Mrs. George M. Ribbel for her daughter, Mrs. John Pullman of Nogales, Ariz.

Thursday—
Luncheon of Delta-Tau-Delta fraternity at University club.
Le Mars Dancing club party at Keep Dancing academy.

Friday—
Seymour Lake Country club closing dinner dance.

Saturday—
Closing dinner dances at Country, Field, Happy Hollow and Carter Lake clubs.
Carnival en masque at Carter Lake club.
McCaffrey-Schoup wedding in Council Bluffs.
Percival-Hamilton wedding in Peoria, Ill.
Afternoon party for Miss Ethel Tierney, given by Miss Helen Anderson.
Bridge party for Miss Lucile Bacon, Mrs. Osgood Eastman, hostess.

SUPPOSE your name was Miss Rhodes and you were attending high school, where you were constantly being confused with a Miss Rhoades. Of course you would insist on letting everyone know that your name was Mildred Rhodes, but wouldn't you be surprised to learn that the other young lady's name was Mildred Rhoades also? Then, when in desperation you insisted on being called by your full name, Mildred Bernice Rhoades, wouldn't you be absolutely flabbergasted to know that the other young lady's name was Mildred Bernice Rhoades as well?

This is the situation which confronted the two girls, Mildred Rhodes and Mildred Rhoades, the whole year they spent in Central High school together. Both are the daughters of well-known Omahans, but they bear no relation whatever to each other. Mildred Rhoades is the daughter of W. E. Rhoades and Mildred Rhodes is the daughter of W. H. Rhoades.

Aside from a near similarity in the fathers' initials, the fathers of the two Mildreds are engaged in somewhat the same line of business. Mr. Rhoades buys and sells banks and bank stocks, while Mr. Rhoades is connected with the United States National bank.

You can't distinguish the two Mildreds by telling which organizations their mothers belong to, either. It is a queer coincidence that both Mrs. Rhoades and Mrs. Rhoades are members of the Fine Arts society, Visiting Nurse association, Old People's home and Young Women's Christian association.

The young ladies are rejoicing in the fact that this year they may perhaps preserve their own identity, because Mildred Bernice Rhoades is going away to Smith college, while Mildred Bernice Rhodes will attend Brownell hall, where she is president of the senior class.

Most of the young people are now safely set to work in colleges, boarding schools, preparatory schools and high schools, and the grown-ups are left to their own devices. The first important event, of course, is Ak-Sar-Ben. Tuesday the big annual circus will begin. Already the stores have put on their festive habiliments, the crowds are beginning to gather and the air is filled with anticipation. Carnival will reign until Saturday, October 7. During this time carnival parties will be the order. Theater parties will follow the parades and numerous guests will be entertained in the homes of well-known people. The ball on Friday evening and the masked ball on Saturday evening will be the culmination of the fall jubilee. Then all hidden things will be revealed and joy will reign in the realm of King Ak-Sar-Ben over the accession to the throne of another regal queen and king.

Wedding affairs and weddings are filling the autumn air. This week will see the climax of three school romances. On Tuesday, Miss Helen Heaton and Mr. Merrill Rohrbaugh will be united in marriage. Mr. Rohrbaugh is prominent in fraternity circles, as is also Mr. Searle Holmes, whose marriage will take place the following day. On Saturday will occur the marriage of the Rev. George A. Percival and Miss Jean Hamilton.

The marriage of Dr. Francis A. Brogan to Miss Mary Cleo Rice, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Benjamin Herbert Rice, will take place on Tuesday. Each of these weddings will take place out of town. The Rohrbaugh-Heaton wedding will take place in Wahoo, Neb., the marriage ceremony of Mr. Searle Holmes will be performed in Lansing, Mich., the marriage of Rev. Mr. Percival and Miss Hamilton will be solemnized in Peoria, Ill., and the Brogan-Rice wedding will be celebrated at the home of the bride's parents in Austin, Tex.

Miss Leona Schoup of Council Bluffs and Mr. Sherman McCaffrey will be united in marriage Saturday of this week in Council Bluffs at a large church wedding. The Doyle-Lewis wedding, on Monday, and the Carruthers-Britton wedding, on Wednesday, are other events of the week.

This week we bid farewell to the Country clubs for another season. We have had many joyous times in them this warm summer and we pronounce fervently the words, "Requiescat in pace."

(Additional Society News on Next Page)