

Council Bluffs Social Notes

Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock Miss Anna Theresa Hombach, daughter of W. P. Hombach, and Mr. John E. O'Brien, Omaha, were united in marriage by Rev. Father Herman, assisted by Rev. Father Stenson of Omaha, at St. Peter's Catholic church. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. At each side of the altar were large vases of roses and the pews were decorated with daisies tied with pink tulle. As the bridal party entered the church, Miss Dorothy Schneider at the organ played the Lohengren wedding march and after the ceremony the Mendelssohn march, Miss Lowe, Omaha, sang "Luzie's 'Ave Maria'". The bride, a charming girl, wore a beautiful gown of ivory satin with trimmings of silver lace. Her long veil was arranged in cap style and caught with silver clasps. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and swansonia. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Maloney, was gowned in orchid taffeta and wore a picture hat of maline, with a wreath of Mrs. Ward roses and a bouquet of the same. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Leo O'Brien. The wedding breakfast was served to the relatives and friends at the Hombach home on First avenue after the ceremony. Pink and green were used in decorating the house, Russell roses and ferns being used. A large basket of roses formed a centerpiece for the bride's table. Girl friends of the bride assisted in the serving. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien left on their wedding trip and upon their return will make their home in Omaha. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue broadcloth, trimmed with Hudson seal, and hat to match. The bride is a graduate of St. Scholastica's academy, Atchison, Kan., and a former student of St. Francis' academy. She is a member of the St. Francis' Alumnae association and is on the executive committee. Mr. O'Brien is a graduate of Drake college, Des Moines, and of Ann Arbor, Mich. He holds the position of professor of chemistry at Creighton.
