HOOSIER CAPITAL, IN FESTAL SPIRIT, HOST TO HUGHES

Republican Candidate Given One Joyous Welcome by Thousands Amid Bunting, Noise and Fire.

CHEER HIM ALONG THE WAY Streets Around Station and

biles swung into tine behind the noniinee's car for the parade through the city to Tomlinson hall. Behind the cars came the men on foot, thousands of torch-bearing marchers. Republican leaders, who staged the big demonstration said that the line of marchers ers extended for more than two miles.

The streets around the station and along the line of march were choked by throngs the like of which the nominee has not met anywhere since the day he started on his presidential campaign. Bluccoats by the hundred kept the way clear.

Noise and Fire a Tonic.

The red fire, the cheers of the crowds, the marching thousands, how-ever, acted as a tonic. Mr. Hughes was smiling from the time he left the train. He spent most of the time during the parade standing up of his car waving his hat in asknowl-his car waving his hat in acknowledgment.

The speech which Mr. Hughes delivered here tonight wound up his Indiana campaign so far as this trip is concerned. Mr. Hughes will remain here as the guest of Mr. Fairbanks till early Monday, when he will leave for Dayton, O.

When introducing Mr. Hughes, Charles W. Fairbanks, the chairman of the meeting, said of him: "We recognize in him a man who is in sympathy with our highest ideals—the advocate of every good cause; the sincere and helpful friend of the great body of wage carners in America. He body of wage earners in America. He stands for policies which mean better wages for more people and for more of the time, than do the policies of the democratic party.

Enemy of Grafters.

I consider it a happy augury of suc-cess in state and nation."

Refers to 1907.

"How about 1907?" asked a man in the balcony, when Mr. Hughes as-sailed the democratic party for the business depression of 1913. "How about 1907?" the nominee quickly repeated, pointing his finger at the questioner. "We had a monetary condition in 1907, which the republican party the very next year recti-fied by the Aldrich-Vreeland bill which saved this country from panic in 1913." The crowd yelled.

Through the Big Sixth Voters A Strong for Republican C dates

This is a country of magnificent distances, sure enough. I am writing from Bassett, up in Rock county. Observing that the voters are not as distances, sure enough. I am writing from Bassett, up in Rock county. Observing that the voters are not as numerous here, as elsewhere in the state, I asked Mr. Kennedy why he was spending so much time here. He quickly put me right on this, saying. "It is my opinion that too many men have pretended to represent a state or a district without being familiar with its needs and possibilities. Before this campaign is over I am going to know Nebraska familiarity from one end to the other.' Now Mr. Kennedy is right to the other.' Now Mr. Kennedy is right cause of the demo-cratic administration is going to cause campaign is over I am going to know Nebraska familiarity from one end to the other.' Now Mr. Kennedy is right in this and the people up here ap-preciate it, too,I want to tell you.
