

CHAMPION HOG TO VIE WITH CHAMPION

Kings of Other Porcine Exhibits Must Show Extra Class to Win Here.

THOUSAND PENS FILLED

While state and sectional exhibitions have created champions upon champions and raised particular hogs to the highest honor pedestals of hogdom in their respective communities, it will have remained for the first annual National Swine Show to be staged in Omaha, October 2 to 7, inclusive, to bring out the grand champions of each breed for the whole United States.

There has never been a porcine stock show held in this country of anywhere near the national caliber guaranteed the big fall classic here. Two shows, one at the St. Louis world's fair, and the other at the Chicago world's fair, have been of national scope, and at neither of those did the quality of swine exhibited rank with that entered at Omaha. This is not idle talk, but the unanimous opinion of the most prominent breeders and showmen in the land.

President Here

One of America's best-known hogmen and one whose name is reckoned with wherever the talent holds forth, spent Saturday in Omaha conferring with local officials of the show—W. M. McFadden of Chicago, president of the National Swine Growers' association, and secretary of the American Poland-China Record, and naturally he would be enthusiastic about a show which he has been largely instrumental in making possible. He returned to the east yesterday evening, but will be in Omaha the last of the week to remain until the final ribbon has been tied at the show.

Mr. McFadden was ultra-enthusiastic, making no bones about it that to his way of thinking the Omaha event would eclipse, overshadow and put in oblivion all hog shows—here, there and everywhere.

Stock From All States

"One thing is certain," observed the National Swine Growers' head, "and that is breeders from every swine-raising state in the union will bring Omaha the pick of their herds. The show will stamp in a decisive manner the popular blood lines of each breed of hogs in the United States. That is one reason alone why every breeder of note in the country will be in Omaha."

Another Significant and Important Reason

Why the country's big breeders are planning to flock to this city is that they realize the National Swine Show will offer the greatest opportunity they ever had to buy breeding stock.

The purest blooded of all the pure-blooded champion porkers in the corn belt have been entered. In one breed—Poland-Chinas—for instance, the state champions of Nebraska, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, South Dakota, Wisconsin and Iowa will be here.

More Than 1,000 Pens

So great has been the demand for reservations that the officials have had constructed more than 200 additional pens outside of those in the huge horse barns on the South Side, where the show is to be held. E. Z. Russell, general superintendent of exhibits and associate editor of the Twentieth Century Farmer, already has entries that will fill 1,010 pens.

The premium fund for the National Swine Show amounts to $11,000. In addition to this there will be a number of special prizes, cups and trophies. Five breeds will have a cash prize fund of $2,000 each. These are Poland-Chinas, Duroc-Jerseys and Chester-Whites. The premium fund is contributed 60 per cent by the record associations representing the various breeds; 40 per cent by the commercial interests of Omaha.

Swine Show Officials

The National Swine Show officials are: Mr. McFadden, general manager; Mr. Russell, general superintendent; J. J. Doty, secretary; W. H. Shellberg, superintendent of confessions.

The National Swine Show committee is composed of Mr. McFadden, L. E. Frost of Chicago and E. C. Stone of Peoria, Ill. The members of the executive committee are: Everett Buckingham, chairman; Mr. Shellberg, secretary; G. J. Ingwersen, A. B. Stryker, A. C. Davenport, Arthur Smith, E. P. Peck and T. F. Sturgess.

And last, but not least, President Wilson on his visit to Omaha will attend the show.

Notes From West Point

And Cuming County

West Point, Sept. 24.—(Special).—The two men arrested for the theft of the Wostoupal automobile pleaded guilty in county court yesterday afternoon, before County Judge Dewald. They will be taken before the district court for sentence next week. The machine was taken from a garage in the south part of town, early Monday morning. It was abandoned the same day at a farm house three miles east of Scribner. The men give the names of Charles Gilmour and Charles Haller. They are strangers.

Leroy R. Holst and Miss Rose B. Delmont were married at Beemer on Thursday evening. Rev. J. H. Tegeler, pastor of the German Lutheran church officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Delmont of Beemer and the groom the second son of the late Fred Holst and a resident of this city. The attendants were Miss Grace Delmont and Robert Hansen. They will make their home at West Point, where the groom is in business.

The republican campaign for Cuming county will be launched on Monday evening, when Dr. Wesley A. Lentzberger will address the voters at the auditorium.

Marriage licenses have been issued during the week to the following couples: Rudolph Hasencamp and Miss Mary Nieman, Leroy R. Holst and Miss Rose B. Delmont of Beemer, and to John Zuhlike and Miss Anna B. Vogt of this county.

HUGHES WILL POLL BIG VOTE IN STATE

Beach Tells of Democrats Who Are Going to Cast Ballots for G. O. P. Nominee.

FARMERS AGAINST WILSON

(From a Staff Correspondent.)—Lincoln, Sept. 24.—(Special).—"All reports reaching me indicate Charles Evans Hughes is going to poll a big democratic vote in Nebraska," said Chairman Ed Beach at republican state headquarters yesterday.

"I have been out over the state pretty thoroughly and you can say we are mighty well pleased with the outlook and all indications point to growing republican growth."

"Near Holdrege I met a farmer, a democrat by the way, who named off twelve democrats in his immediate neighborhood, who had had all of the watchful waiting tactics of President Wilson they cared for. These twelve democrats were supporting Hughes for president. That is something like two to the precinct and such a proportion would give the republican ticket an overwhelming majority in this state."

Ninety Per Cent Against Wilson.

"In one township near Kearney, I am informed, there are fifty-six democratic voters in the precinct and one-half of them are supporting Hughes for president. In another locality 90 per cent of the democratic vote in one precinct was said to be precinct was said to be opposed to the re-election of President Wilson."

Chairman Beach yesterday received a letter from Senator Wiltzie of Pender, in Cedar county, yesterday:

"There is a feeling here in this county," Senator Wiltzie writes, "that President Wilson has handled the strike troubles badly. Farmers are not much smitten with the knowledge that they must foot the bills to pay this increase."

Reaction in Sentiment.

"There has come a big reaction of sentiment in the last few days," Mr. Beach declared, "and it has been especially noticeable at state headquarters."

"I met a man at Holdrege, a republican, who had been lukewarm in his support of Hughes. He heard the republican candidate speak at Denver and came away completely enthused. He is now doing some valuable work for us in the state of his own free will."

The coming week will be a busy one at republican state headquarters. Chairman Beach expects to spend a large share of his time in the north-eastern part of the state, meeting with committees in those districts. The county organizations in the Third district are working smoothly and report that the Hughes sentiment is strong there.

Rapid City Business Men Plan Harvest Festival

Rapid City, S. D., Sept. 24.—(Special).—Rapid City business men have united in a big harvest festival, the first annual affair, and will stage the show in conjunction with an agricultural exhibit on October 5, 6, and 7. Many outside attractions have been secured and a big program of races and sporting events have been scheduled for the three days.

The show bids fair to rival the old Stockmen's meetings held here, which used to bring thousands of people to the Gateway to the Hills. It has been two years since a celebration of any kind has been staged in the Hills and considerable enthusiasm is being worked up over the proposition.

Object to Name Cut Meat, But Town Prefers Wososo

Rapid City, S. D., Sept. 24.—(Special).—Congressman Harry L. Gandy has taken up for the people of Cut Meat, a town in Todd county, the petition signed by them asking for a new name for the town, and has received a notice from the Postoffice department at Washington that in the future the town will be known as Wososo, the name the people had selected. They have objected to the name because outsiders have been prone to treat it as a joke.

Wososo is Sioux Indian for Cut Meat.

Cincy Gets Into the Amateur Semi-Finals

Cincinnati, Sept. 24.—The Norwoods of this city swamped the Trolley Dodgers of Birmingham, Ala., here today by a score of 10 to 3 in the first game of the semi-finals of the National Base Ball federation, the southerners could do little with White of the Norwoods, while the locals found Lovelace easy. The two teams will play the second game of the series here tomorrow.

Former Omaha Woman Severely Ill in Colorado

Mrs. Joseph W. Paddock, widow of the late Major Joseph W. Paddock, who was a pioneer resident of Omaha, is seriously ill at her farm home near Rockyford, Colo., where she has been living with her son, Ben, for several years. There is little hope for her recovery. Mrs. Paddock is the mother of Mrs. William A. Annin, whose husband was for years a member of the Omaha Field club.

BOX CAR FAMINE STIRS GRAIN MEN

Flood of Complaints Pour Upon the State Railway Commissioner.

SITUATION IS VERY ACUTE

(From a Staff Correspondent.)—Lincoln, Sept. 24.—(Special).—The most serious box car shortage in the history of the state has resulted in a flood of complaints to the State Railway commission. The situation is particularly acute because grain men and farmers are not able to take advantage of the present high prices because of lack of facilities to market the crop.

U. G. Powell, the commission expert, was sent on a still hunt along the Union Pacific line, where the complaints were most aggravated, to find out what he could relative to the shortage.

After visiting the two places named Powell will go to Omaha to see how the grain cargoes are arriving there. Any diminution of shipments there would be regarded by the commission as evidence that the railroads are holding back the shipment of grain unduly from Nebraska towns. Up until this time the receipts have been larger than a year ago.

See No Discrimination.

The railway commission appreciates that the situation is bad, but the members do not believe there is evidence the railroads are discriminating against this state. Information reaching the members indicates this state is in better shape than Kansas and the Union Pacific has been rushing cars there to relieve the shortage.

Commissioner Taylor said he believed the railroads, taken altogether, were furnishing as many cars at this time as they did a year ago, but on account of the demand being much greater than it was in 1915, the shortage is felt more acutely. "The trouble age is felt more acutely. 'The trouble'," said Mr. Taylor, "is that everyone wants to sell and ship at once, so that it has become a physical impossibility for the carriers to meet the demands for cars."

Union Pacific Exception.

The Union Pacific seems to be the single exception to the rule. Its reports show that during September it furnished no more than an average of sixty-nine cars per day to its shippers of gain on Nebraska lines, while it offered seventeen in August, when they were not needed. It has been charged that it sent its cars south and west of the state.

This phase of the case may be investigated by the commission.

Western Nebraska seems to have suffered the worst. At Moorefield, Lieutenant Governor Pearson said he had not been able to buy a single bushel of grain since August and 10,000 bushels of grain was piled on the ground without protection from the weather, he only got two cars in two months. Other elevator men report nearly as serious a condition. Some have been forced to close down with their elevators full and no means of shipping and farmers and grain men are losing thousands as a result.

Mid-Year Class at Central High Elects Officers

The following were elected officers of the mid-year graduating class at Central High school: Margaret Bridges, president; Harvey Rice, vice president; Marian Fenwick, secretary; Emogene Barr, treasurer; Clarence Parsons, Fay Emery, sergeants-at-arms.

Dr. Schalak Wins Golf Trophy for First Time

Dr. Alfred Schalak captured the George Brandeis trophy at the Omaha Field club yesterday afternoon. Schalak shot a gross 94. The event was match play against bogey.

Incidentally it was the first time Dr. Schalak won a trophy in his life.

Maywood Man Injured.

Maywood, Neb., Sept. 24.—(Special).—W. E. Town, a farmer who lives north of town, in Medicine Valley, was seriously injured in a runaway Friday. The team he had been driving became frightened while he was closing a gate and ran over him, bruising him seriously and breaking one leg.

GOVERNOR DECLARES A SPECIAL HOLIDAY

President Wilson and All Who Can Get Here Will See Parade.

LEADERS PERFECT PLANS

Governor Morehead has issued a proclamation declaring October 5 a special holiday in order that everyone may be at Omaha to see the historical parade on that day. President Wilson will also be here on that day.

The schools of Omaha are to be dismissed in the afternoon, the children being allowed a half holiday in order that they may miss none of the important education features of the historical parade.

The high school cadet battalion of Omaha is to march in the industrial parade October 3.

As the time for the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities draws near, arrangements shape themselves more nearly to completion. An information bureau has been established at 1406 Farnam street. This bureau will direct strangers to the various hotels and to other places they wish to go. Also the bureau will receive lists of rooms in the city available for persons who want to room at private homes during the festivities. Thousands of rooms are required each year outside of those the hotels are able to furnish.

The Wortham shows are to arrive this morning from Sioux City. They will move to the Jubilee Grounds, Fifteenth and Capitol avenue, and set up for business at once. The grounds will not open formally until 1:30 Tuesday afternoon, September 26.

There is to be no confetti on the grounds. This will be the first year that confetti will be absent. No big barrels of the stuff will block the way down the center of the highway, and no persons will be poking handfuls down their neighbors' necks.

The decision to make this change in carnival management, it is believed, will meet with popular favor and will result in making this big feature attraction of Ak-Sar-Ben week of such a character that it will round out the entire program into utmost completeness.

Wait in the Heaven World Until Another Humanity Comes

According to Elliott Holbrook, the day of judgment, as referred to in the Bible has no terrors for the informed student of theosophy. "Evolution," said he, "is as sure as any law in nature."

Humanity upon earth has certain standards set for it and all those who fail to come up to the standard which fits them for the path are not sent into a place of torture, but they simply wait in the heaven world until there is another humanity in which they again take up the work and go on to perfection. Those who do come up to the requirement pass out of this humanity into a higher world."

Bishop Stuntz to Speak At the Commercial Club

Rev. Homer Stuntz, D. D., bishop of the Methodist church in the Omaha district, will speak to the Commercial club at a public affairs luncheon next Friday noon. "Business Relations with South America," is to be his subject. He has but recently been transferred from a long work in South America.

Police Prepare for Big Fall Festival by "Cleaning House"

Forty-eight individuals without visible means of support were stowed away in the city jail Sunday. The police are "cleaning house" preparatory to the advent of Ak-Sar-Ben festivities, and known vagrants will not be tolerated about the city.

The First Lady Barber.

Samson snored peacefully in the chair while Delilah snipped at his locks. "Do you want it cut round or square on the neck?" she asked.

"No answer."

"Would you like a sea-foam or shampoo?"

"No reply."

"Hair is getting a trifle thin on top. Would you like a little tonic?"

Silence.

"Have your whiskers trimmed?"

More silence.

"Next!"

Whereupon Samson climbed out of the chair, stared into a mirror, then rushed into the street and walked down a temple.—In-Shanapolis Star.

HUGHES DRAFTED, AVERS KENNEDY

He Is Candidate for President Because People Wished It, Asserts Omaha Man.

GIVEN GOOD RECEPTION

Atkinson, Neb., Sept. 23.—(Special).—"Charles Evans Hughes is the republican candidate for president because the rank and file of the republican party wished it, and not because any special interest or set of politicians desired it," said John L. Kennedy, republican candidate for United States senator, in his speech to a large Saturday afternoon crowd. He stated that in truth and in fact Mr. Hughes had been drafted by the people of the United States and that in leaving the high place as a member of the United States supreme court to make this campaign he had answered the call of the people.

"Have you heard from Maine?" he cried.

The crowd answered, "Yes, Yes."

Then he responded, "As you have heard from Maine, so you will soon hear from the entire nation."

He Lauds Kinkaid.

Mr. Kennedy was introduced by D. H. Cronin of O'Neill, who preceded him on the program. Mr. Cronin was introduced by S. W. Kelly of Atkinson, editor of the Atkinson Graphic. A great many of Congressman Kinkaid's old friends were here to see him today and they applauded wildly when Mr. Kennedy spoke of the high regard and deep affection which he and all public men felt for Mr. Kinkaid, because of his great service to the Sixth district. Paul Humphrey, Mr. Kinkaid's secretary, was in Atkinson meeting many of Mr. Kinkaid's constituents. Mr. Kennedy was escorted from Atkinson to O'Neill, where he speaks tonight, by a large contingent headed by O. O. Suter, chairman of the republican county central committee of Holt county.

A. C. McFarland, editor of the Lynch Journal, who has been traveling with Mr. Kennedy over Boyd, Keya Paha, Rock and Holt counties, returned home from here today. He stated that he was greatly pleased with the political outlook as he found it in these counties, and that he believed the onward march of republicanism had not been checked by the strenuous press raid which the democratic papers have been making of Mr. Hughes during the past month and a half.

He found a great deal of feeling favorable to John L. Kennedy for senator and Judge A. L. Sutton for governor. This precinct is for Hughes and will keep its reputation as being the banner republican spot of the county.

Cheer Hughes' Name.

Stuart, Neb., Sept. 24.—(Special).—Applause greeted the mention of Charles E. Hughes' name today by John L. Kennedy, republican candidate for United States senator, who addressed a large gathering of republicans and democrats on the street here this afternoon. Mr. Kennedy was introduced by Judge J. A. Rice of Stuart. The Stuart had a concert immediately before the speaking. Other speakers were: D. H. Cronin, editor of the O'Neill Frontier, who is a candidate for re-election to the Nebraska legislature, and Joe Hunter of O'Neill, republican candidate for county treasurer of Holt county.

Numerous persons from O'Neill, Ewing and Atkinson drove here to hear Mr. Kennedy, and among them were O. O. Snyder, chairman of the republican county committee; W. K. Gougin, county attorney; H. D. Grady, republican sheriff; Paul Humphrey, secretary of the legislature; Moses P. Kinkaid; S. J. Weckes and R. O. Anderson of Ewing, republican candidate for county clerk. Pretty Miss Olivia Studevant of Atkinson, republican and progressive candidate for county superintendent, was an active worker among the voters who gathered here today. Her election is confidently predicted by many republicans and democrats.

Speaks On Good Roads.

Mr. Kennedy spoke at length on the issues of the campaign, and on local matters of interest such as good roads and the need of a better hay market, but he won his audience when he referred to the congressman Kinkaid as the most loved of the members of the house of representatives, and Judge Sutton as the product of Rock county of whom Rock county and Nebraska is proud. He said that if Judge Sutton was elected governor, as he was confident he would be, there would be no unseen power lurking behind his chair directing his administration. The mention of the name Kinkaid or Sutton evoked much applause.

Kansans on Border.

Several veterans of last year's Kansas university team are on the Rio Grande and the coaches at Lawrence are anxiously hoping for their return at an early date.

KENNETH MURPHY GIVEN FREEDOM

Youth, Sent to Prison for Life, Has Sentence Commuted, Will Attend School.

CASE COMES FROM CHERRY

(From a Staff Correspondent.)—Lincoln, Sept. 25.—(Special).—Kenneth Murphy, the youth who was sentenced from Cherry county several years ago, with three other companions, to a life term in the penitentiary for the murder of Charley Sellers, a ranchman, had his sentence commuted by Governor Morehead today in order that the lad might enter Northwestern university to complete a medical course.

The young man had been out on probation for more than a year with Lincoln friends, who took a great interest in his case, standing sponsor for his good behavior. Murphy has been an ideal paroled prisoner and in view of the fact there were so many extenuating circumstances connected with the case, Governor Morehead decided to give him his complete freedom. Murphy was 17 years of age when he was brought to the penitentiary and his friends said he was "a victim of bad associations."

The Sellers case attracted much attention in northwest Nebraska several years ago.

Attendance at Harlan County Fair Is 8,000

Alma, Neb., Sept. 24.—(Special).—The annual exhibit of the Harlan county fair closed Friday evening. It was a record breaker for attendance and quality of free attractions. The total attendance for the four days was about 8,000. The attractions were of a high order, comprising a troupe of Russian dancers and musicians, Scotch bagpipers and dancers.

Hon. Silas R. Barton, candidate for congress, and ex-Governor Shallenberger spoke from the same platform. A noticeable thing was the great number of red, white and blue Hughes buttons worn by the visitors, while not a single Wilson badge was seen on the grounds or in town.

President H. T. Moore and Secretary C. E. Alter say they are pleased with the financial outcome and that there will be a neat balance after paying all expenses. The street illumination and electric welcome arch was above the ordinary this year.

HYMENEAL.

Reuter-Bredelhoff.

Avoca, Neb., Sept. 22.—(Special).—Henry Reuter and Miss Sophie Bredelhoff, two popular young people living southeast of here near Berlin, were married Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bredelhoff, at Berlin. They will make their home on a farm near that city.
