Errorless Game, Played in Record Time, Won by the Josies.

SERIES TO THE DRUMMERS

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 24 .- (Special Telegram.)-When you were a small boy, or girl, did you ever "save the best till the last," that last piece of McClelland, 3b pie, or the dainty cake? Well, the baseball magnates must have done that very thing, for the fans of St. Joseph for with the ringing down of the final curtain on base ball in this city for the 1916 season, the best base ball game of the season was uncorked.

Many things happened at yesterday's Among them were the breaking of the Western league time record for the playing of a game. Errorless base ball by both teams, two of the finest catches seen on the grouns this year, splendid pitching by both Williams and North and just enough hard Capture Listless Game from hitting to make the game mighty interesting all the way.

Last Just Short Time.

Last Just Short Time.

Just one hour and seven minutes was consumed in the playing of the game and but for a three-minute delay in the seventh inning the world's record would have been closely approached.

Oh yes, we very nearly forgot, St. Joseph won the game and with it the entire series from the pennant-winning Omahans, for they made it three in a row from Pa Rourke's boys.

Not until the fourth inning did either team score. Then the Drummers tallied twice. Wright singled and scored on a double by Otto Williams, on which Williams was caught out trying to stretch the hit into out trying to stretch the hit into three bases. McCabe struck out; then along came Kenzie Kirkham with a home run, and that was onother of the big leatures which we did not recount above.

Carea Their Shalling

Cease Their Shelling.

Cease Their Sheiing.

In the fifth three more were registered by the Drummers and with that trio, they ceasd heeir bombardment. McClelland flew to center, Fusner singled and Beers was out to shortstop. Johnny Williams singled, sending Fusner to third, and Wright singled scoring Fusner and sending Williams to third. Otto Williams then hit safely, filling the bases and McCabe doubled scoring Wright and John Williams. The Rourkes secured their brace of runs in the seventh. Marshall doubled Topeka and Sioux and Forsythe singled, scoring Marshall. Forsythe went to second on the throw in and Kilduff singled, sending "Cy" to third. Kilduff was forced at second on a fielder's choice, by Irelan. North singled, scoring Forsythe. Smith was an easy out and Thompson flew to center, North and Thompson dying on the bases.
