FREAR DISCUSSES
DEMOCRATIC WASTE
Congressman Analyzes Financial Record of Administration with Its Southern Bias.
SPEAKS AT HAVELOCK

Havelock, Neb., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Congressman James A. Frear of Wisconsin discussed the sectional record of the Wilson administration and the effect of the Underwood tariff act on industries of the United States. Mr. Frear said in part:

"We are advised by our democratic brethren that it is unkind to criticize the Wilson administration. 'Don't knock,' they say. When did the democracy first learn the new Golden Rule which would prohibit criticisms of the bungling and wasteful Wilson administration? Was it during Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Harrison, McKinley, Roosevelt or Taft's administrations? All these presidents were assailed by democratic orators, who now beseech us not to knock.

"History will record that the most wasteful administration from the days of President Washington down to Wilson is that of the present time. "Business prudence requires the adoption of a budget system to stop wholesale grabs from the public purse. The democratic platform of 1912 and 1916 is silent on the subject. The republican platform demands its enactment as a check against extravagance and waste which characterizes this administration.

South in Full Control.

"No stream can rise higher than its source. It is the southern industrial and economic policy, or lack of policy, that controls legislation today. It is not sectionalism when I say the south is no accident. It is not waving the bloody shirt to protest against every important democratic chairmanship being assigned to the south. Every one knows that no republican or progressive can be elected in Mississippi, Georgia, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, Alabama, South Carolina or other southern states. Only one ticket generally is offered, and yet these states and other southern states which contribute only about 7 per cent of the government's revenues control every important committee assignment, with one single exception. They are solid for Mr. Wilson, Mr. Bryan, Mr. Parker or any other democrat. They invite northern democrats to help gather plums, but when it comes to determining policies or legislation thirty-one committee chairmanships from the south determine the issue.

"A secret democratic caucus, dominated by such influences has been in control of the congress of the United States during the last four years. With limited industrial progress, and comparatively little high-class labor, the south absolutely controls the government's pursestrings.

Underwood Bill Sectional.

"The Underwood bill protected southern interests, from the Texas Angora goat to pineapples and peanuts. It cut to the bone when the great agricultural interests of the country were concerned. It slashed deep into tariff protection given to northern industries. That bill was a sectional bill. It promised to reduce the high cost of living, but it never reduced a single necessary one cent. It did close factories prior to the war, but when Europeans left their factories for the trenches our own factories were compelled to help supply those who were formerly our competitors. Europeans, men, women and children, will again be competitors, and nothing can save us from the logical effect of the Underwood law when that day comes. Our own factories will cease filling war orders and the consumer now in the trenches will then be a competing producer for our own home market. The democratic platform declared the government has no constitutional right to levy duties excepting for revenue. The markets of the country are thus thrown open to the Japanese textile laborer, who earns 18 cents a day, and to every European laborer, while we seek to benefit or raise the standards of American labor by limiting hours of work and passing laws to raise the scale of wages.

Will Sure Reduce Hours.

"The Underwood bill will effectually limit hours of work to less than eight hours as soon as the European war stops the present abnormal demand. No thinking wageearner, whether on the farm or in the factory, can fail to understand the following fact, taken from official sources: "The total value of importations for the year ending June 30, 1916, were $2,107,000,000. The total value of imports for the last republican year of 1915 reached only $1,112,000,000. Under the Underwood act importations increased $1,000,000,000 in one year, displacing many products of American labor; yet customs receipts to the government fell

JOHN L. KENNEDY SPEAKS AT O'NEILL

MUCH HUGHES SENTIMENT

O'Neill, Neb., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—John L. Kennedy of Omaha, republican candidate for United States senator, left here this morning for points in southern Nebraska, after a four days' campaign in Boyd, Keya Paha, Rock and Holt counties which closed here last night when Mr. Kennedy addressed a large gathering in the vauvass tabernacle.

Mr. Kennedy took up his opponent's proposition that Wilson is the issue, and found little consolation for his opponent in this contention, since Mr. Hitchcock's attitude on most questions during the last two years has been adverse to and embarrassing to President Wilson.

Mr. Kennedy observed that in theory our government is made up of three great departments, the legislative, the judicial and the executive departments. He was roundly applauded when he pointed out that President Wilson had, during the last two years, gone completely outside the proprieties of such a form of government in usurping the functions of the people's law makers in bringing about legislation.

Mr. Kennedy declared that he was in favor of rural credits, but that in his opinion the present bill is defective in that it requires too much red tape, and appears to be drawn for the benefit of the lender down east rather than the rural borrower of the west. It is an attempt to apply the ideas of McAdoo, a New Yorker, to conditions peculiar to Nebraska and the west.

In Rock and Holt counties there is much Hughes sentiment, and all references to the head of the republican ticket bring forth applause. Mr. Kennedy spoke for the national and state republican tickets here.

On Monday September 25, Mr. Kennedy and Congressman C. F. Reavis will begin a tour of three days and will visit the following places in the First congressional district:

Monday, Dubois, 10:30 a. m.; Table Rock, 1:30 p. m.; Heitauer, 4 p. m.; Barchard, 7:30 p. m.
Tuesday, Mayberry, 9:30 a. m.; Lewiston, 11 a. m.; Tate, 1 p. m.; Armour, 3 p. m.; Bookwater, 4 p. m.
Wednesday, Elk Creek, 10 a. m.; Graf, 11:30 a. m.; Cook, 2 p. m.; Chamaille, 4 p. m.; Vesta, 5 p. m.; Crab Orchard, night meeting.

Operation Upon Matthews.

Lincoln, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Leo Matthews, secretary of the Board of Control, underwent a minor operation Monday at a Lincoln sanitarium. His condition will keep him from work for a week.

A NEW START IN TYPEWRITER DEVELOPMENT
Remington Self Starter

THE Self Starter (Column Selector) is the leading feature of the new Remington model 10—the correspondence machine. Here is an idea that is revolutionizing all former typewriter standards. It is giving typewriter users a new conception of what every good efficient writing machine ought to be able to do.

The Self Starting Remington does just what its name implies. One touch on a Self Starter key sets the carriage instantly—and you are ready to write. You don't have to "crank up." In other words there is no time lost in fumbling or fussing to set the carriage by hand to start the writing line.

The Self Starter adds 25 per cent. to the letter writing speed of the typist. This is not a claim; it is a fact. We can prove it by actual demonstration. Call in. at our office any time and let us show you the Remington Self Starter and how it works.

Congressman Reavis Unable to Sub for Borah in Wyoming

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Congressman C. F. Reavis has declined an invitation from the republican national speakers' bureau to go to Sheridan, Wyo., and speak on Wednesday of this week in place of Senator Borah of Idaho, who was billed there but could not go.

Owing to the fact that Congressman Reavis is busy with his own campaign he could not leave the First district, as he has his own speaking engagements laid out to cover most of this week.

The republican national committee has 150 speakers at its disposal, and Mr. Reavis' friends consider it a decided compliment to him that he was asked to substitute for Senator Borah at an important speaking point. The congressman has announced that he will devote all of his time in the campaign to his home district.

Nebraska Rate Hearing To Come Before Judges

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Hearing of the squabble of federal and state jurisdiction growing out of the Nebraska rate case instituted last week by the railroads of Nebraska will be held next Saturday at Sioux Falls, S. D., together with a similar case from South Dakota. State officers are expected to intervene in the South Dakota suit.
