DENNISON TO LEAD THE ALL-STAR NINE

Manager of Luxus Is Chosen to Boss Sandlot Crew Which Plays Rourkes Sunday.

HOLLAND, MOYLAN TO HURL

Johnny Dennison, manager of the Luxus, pennant winners in the Greater Omaha league, has been chosen to lead the All-Star amateur base ball team which will clash with the pennant-winning Rourkes at Rourke park next Sunday as a part of the big amateur field day program.

Dennison has proved himself to be a crafty manager in amateur circles. He has had some professional experience and it is believed he is the man who can best direct a nine against the professionals.

Dennison will also play first base on the team.

Guy Holland of the Luxus, south-paw, and Jim Moylan of the Ramblers, right hander, have been selected to lead the hurling. Holland is unquestionably the class of the sandlot portenders and Moylan is as good a right hander as any in town.
