METCALFE HELPED CARRANZA'S GAME?

Statement in the Los Angeles Times Omaha Man Helped Engineer Deal. METCALFE MUM ABOUT IT.

According to a lengthy article in the Los Angeles Times of recent date, Richard H. Cole of Pasadena, Cal., assisted by Richard L. Metcalfe, W. J. Bryan, Joseph W. Folk and John Lind,

The article in The Times is preceded by the following comment: "The campaign to secure the recognition by the United States of Carranza as provisional president of Mexico was engineered by Richard H. Cole of Pasadena, at the request of Carranza, who sent three personal representatives to him here.

Mr. Cole lived twenty-six years in Mexico and was well acquainted with the affairs of the republic. He was a close acquaintance of the Madero brothers.

Letter from Cole. The Times reprints a letter sent by Mr. Cole from St. Louis, under date of April 18, 1916, to General Carranza.

When in February, 1915, you requested me to go to Washington, I was prepared for the work in hand, owing to the preliminary investigations which I had conducted in Washington.

Mr. Metcalfe for thirty years was Mr. Bryan's close political adviser. He met me in Chicago and immediately returned with me to Washington.

Close to Bryan. Mr. Metcalfe returned to Washington, an enthusiast for yourself and the constitutionalists, and made a personal report to President Wilson and Secretary Bryan, strongly urging their support to yourself and the cause which you so ably represent.

On March 24, 1915, I introduced Mr. Metcalfe to your attorney in Washington, Mr. Douglas, and to Sr. Arredondo, your special representative, and from that date they were at liberty to and did consult Mr. Metcalfe whenever occasion required it.

Mr. Metcalfe, to your attorney in Washington, Mr. Douglas, and to Sr. Arredondo, your special representative, and from that date they were at liberty to and did consult Mr. Metcalfe whenever occasion required it.

Mr. Metcalfe declined to confirm or deny the article of the Los Angeles Times. He would not be interviewed on the subject.

OMAHA IS NEARER TO THE SEABOARD

Broadway Draws Itself Closer to Farnam Street as the Years Roll By. NEARER AS THE TIME FLIES.

By A. R. GROH. Omaha has retained the same location on the map ever since it was founded. Nothing surprising in that!

It is no nearer to New York "as the crow flies." But then, we can't travel as the crow flies.

It is very much nearer "as time flies," so to speak (rather clever, eh?), and it is nearer also as the railroad runs.

Sixty years ago the shortest route measured 1,471 miles, which could be covered, barring accidents, Indians, bad weather, etc., in as little as six days and nights.

Today you can have dinner in Omaha Saturday evening and breakfast in New York City Monday morning.

You can even "take in" an Omaha "movie" before train time Saturday evening. And in Chicago, Sunday morning, you'll have three hours "between trains," so that you can go to church there if you like.

Thirty-two and a half hours is the fastest running time between the two cities, and you can easily pass half of that lumbering peacefully in a comfortable berth. The distance is precisely 1,398.3 miles.

A writer of those days recommended the longer but more comfortable trip by way of St. Louis. "Those who can spend three more days on the journey for the sake of greater comfort will do well to take the steamer route," he says.

Rail and Steamer. This route consisted of steamer from New York to Albany, rail from Albany to Buffalo, steamer from Buffalo to Detroit, rail from Detroit through Chicago to St. Louis, steamer from St. Louis to Omaha.

The distance by this route was 2,115 miles. The fare by the rail and stage route was $46 and by the rail and steamer route $44.

Today the fare is about $28, and you ride all the way in a Pullman car for $8 additional. There is a little extra fare, also, if you insist on riding on the very fastest trains east of Chicago.

We're only "thirty-three hours from Broadway," and New Yorkers can boast they are only "thirty-three hours from Farnam street."

Wants Injunction To Keep Him from Being Arrested. Attacking the action of the city commissioners in granting the Omaha Rendering and Feed company the privilege of collecting garbage throughout the entire city as injurious to the interests of individuals and asking that an injunction be issued preventing the further arrest of George Urbach, Mr. Urbach and R. B. King, care owner, have filed suit in district court.

According to the petition, Urbach has been gathering garbage from King's Lunch twice daily. After the rendering company was granted the exclusive contract at $1,000 a year he was arrested twice and fined for violation of the city's orders. He asserts that between July 18, 1911, when the council passed an ordinance preventing Urbach from purchasing garbage and King from selling it, he has been constantly violating the ordinance without being molested.

When the rendering company came into the field his troubles began. His sole livelihood is the feeding and fattening of hogs.

The application complains that Miss Banks was illegally arrested while visiting with Ida Casey at 722 North Sixteenth street, pulled from bed, taken to the police station, tried without knowing the reason for her arrest and convicted of being a vagrant and a prostitute. She says she keeps house for her father and three brothers and is a virtuous, God-fearing, respectable woman.

Miss Banks is soon to be married, and during recent illness has been under the care of Dr. Gordon of Omaha," reads the application for the writ. The Rev. Mr. Logan and all the members of Grove Methodist church, consisting of several hundred, her father, brothers and neighbors, will swear that the charges against her are false and untrue. No warrant was issued for her arrest.

Don't wait for time to heal your skin— "Oh it will get well anyhow!" you say? It will, and perhaps it won't. Maybe it will get worse instead.

Resinol. For a free sample of each, write to Dept. 43-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. You'd better try— usually stops itching instantly.

To Chicago. Travelers experienced in the comparative comforts and conveniences of different roads unanimously declare, "Take the 'Milwaukee' between Omaha and Chicago."

Take the "Milwaukee". The reason—perfect service made possible partially from the fact that equipment is company owned and that attendants are company employees.

CHICAGO Milwaukee & St. Paul RAILWAY. Four fast daily trains. Phone or call for reservations. Ticket Office: 1317 Farnam Street, Omaha.

"$100,000,000 Better". THE American traveling man quickly recognizes improvement—and just as quickly passes the word along.

He is putting us under obligations by telling his brethren of the $100,000,000 bettering of the Baltimore & Ohio. The 1916 model Pullman drawing-room, compartment and observation cars, in all-steel trains, perfect roadbed and finished service appeal to him.

The operation of these trains on the nation's capital—Washington—is an additional advantage to him. The liberal stop-over privileges at all important points save him money.

We try to reciprocate his kindness in that way, and by endeavoring to give him just a little better treatment than he expects.
