Indians Sell Many Carloads of Cattle—Here and in Chicago

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Thirty-four carloads of cattle from a shipment of fifty-one cars, seventeen of which were sold at Omaha yesterday, were sold at the market here today by Indians from the Crow reservation in Montana, the first important sales from an investment of funds derived two years ago by the sale of lands of the reservation. The fifty-one cars brought $97,993.

Cato Sells, United States commissioner of Indian affairs, supervised the sale for the Indians. He said it was the first direct benefit the Indians had received from the government policy of using the grazing lands on the reservation for the benefit of the Indians.

"All of these cattle were range grazed and grass fed," he said. "Not a pound of corn or other feed than grass or hay had been given them."

"Two years ago we purchased for the Crows 7,000 2-year-old heifers, 2,000 yearling steers and 350 bulls. Including the increase in the herd, the Indians' profit on the original purchase in twenty-seven months, after paying all expenses, has been $350,000. The first year the Indians cut and stacked 5,000 tons of hay to winter their herds and last winter 7,000 tons."

WILSON IS ALARMED TO STUMP NEW YORK

Hears From Seabury, and Decides to Waive Dignity and Make Speeches.

TOLD MUST CARRY STATE

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 27.—As a result of the conference today between President Wilson and Judge Samuel Seabury, democratic candidate for governor of New York, the president is expected to make one or more speeches in New York within the next few weeks. Final arrangements have been made, but Judge Seabury remained at Shadow Lawn over night and will discuss the New York political situation with Mr. Wilson further in the morning.

The president has been told that it is imperative that the democrats carry New York and it is said concentrated efforts will be made to present the democratic case to New York voters.

No Connection They Say

The announcement of a long itinerary for speeches in New York to be made by Charles E. Hughes, the republican nominee, was read with interest by democratic leaders here today, but it was said that Mr. Hughes' plans would have no effect on those of the president.

In spite of the determination of Mr. Wilson to make only nonpolitical speeches on his forthcoming trips away from Shadow Lawn, it appeared probable tonight that he would find means for getting his views on partisan question before the country. His addresses here will be more of a political character than those in other places.

To Talk to Dems Only

Elaborate arrangements are being made to turn the reception of the president Saturday to members of young men's democratic clubs into a big political event. It will be the first time since his notification speech that the president has addressed a purely democratic audience.

STOLEN SILKS FOUND; THREE ARE ARRESTED

Clerk in Brandeis Stores Accused and Confesses, Implicating Outsiders.

ALLEGED PACT TO ROB

Stolen silks valued at nearly $1,500 were recovered last night by Detective L. T. Finn of the Brandeis store, when he arrested Reba McKendrick, a saleswoman in the store who lives at 204 South Twenty-sixth street. Her confession led to the arrest of Florence Williams, a dressmaker, living at 609 South Seventeenth, and Minnie Turner, 614 North Seventeenth, on a charge of receiving stolen property.

Detective Finn has known for months that valuable silks and patterns have been disappearing from the store, but could find no trace of the manner of disappearance, until yesterday, when his suspicions centered upon Miss McKendrick. When he trapped her as she pocketed some money, paid over by a decoy purchaser, she made a written confession.

Passed Goods Over Counters. She said she passed hundreds of dollars' worth of merchandise over the counter to Miss Williams and Miss Turner, and checked in only a few dollars in return. The stealing, she declared in her confession, has extending over a period of six months during which time thousands of dollars' worth of stuff has been taken from the store. Her share of the lot, she said was less than a hundred dollars for the entire thefts. Several months ago, she said the Turner woman approached her with the scheme and later introduced the Williams woman. These two, she said, made several trips a week to the store.

The store checking system finally developed the leak and Finn commenced tracing the thefts.

After the McKendrick girl confessed, she was taken to police headquarters and locked up. Detectives Dolan and Lahey then accompanied Finn to the homes of the other two women and they were arrested. Owing to the fact that but one article was actually seen stolen, Miss McKendrick was arraigned on petit larceny count and fined $25 and costs. The other girls were given suspended fines.
