MASS MEETING OF AMATEURS TONIGHT

All Players Who Will Take Part in Field Meet Sunday Are Urged to Be on Hand.

DENNISON OUT FOR BLOOD

A big mass meeting of all amateur base ball players who intend to take part in the amateur field day program at Rourke park Sunday afternoon will be held in the council chamber of the city hall tonight at 8:15.

The mass meeting has been called so that details for the extensive program can be thoroughly outlined to the competing players, and so that the entry list can be compiled. All players who have entered or intend to do so are urged to be on hand.

Johnny Dennison, the demon Luxus pilot who has been chosen to manage the All-Star amateur nine which will clash with the Rourke's in one of the ball game events Sunday, is out for blood. Johnny has declared himself, and avers that his All-Star nine will go on the field with the avowed intention of handing the professionals a wallop.

Has Good Team.

Johnny has a good team of All-Stars, and amateur fans are confident that he will put up a stiff fight for honors. Bunny Holland and Jim Moylan, who will do the hurling, are a couple of pretty nifty curvers, and even such sterling sluggers as Ray Miller, Ernie Krueger, Cy Forsythe and Kewpie Kiduff aren't going to run up any procession of home runs.
