

Troop of Boy Scouts Formed at North Side Church
At a meeting of Troop No. 2 of the Boy Scouts in the North Side Christian church Thursday evening plans were started for the division of the troop into two companies, one for the advanced scouts and the other for the beginners. J. W. Hinzle, jr., will have charge of the younger division and Rodman M. Brown will be scoutmaster of the older boys. The new troop starts off with a membership of thirteen. Boy scouts, however, are not superstitious.

Damaged Auto Nets $350; Damaged Person Nets Nothing
Judgment for $350 for damages to his automobile was given Dr. William H. Walker by a jury in Judge Redick's court this morning. Dr. Walker sued A. T. Klopp of the Klopp-Bartlett Printing company, alleging that his son, Lester, while joy riding at Fairacres, crashed into his machine. He was allowed nothing for personal injuries, which he declares he sustained.

Jury Finds Boy Pickpocket Guilty in Ten Minutes
It took the jury only ten minutes to return a verdict of "guilty" when the charge of larceny from the person lodged against Kenneth Brown, a colored stripling, was threshed out before Judge Redick by Deputy Prosecutor Fitzgerald and Public Defender Horton. Brown was accused of stealing a purse containing $6 from Jake Schwartz at the circus grounds, August 28. Joe Walker, South Side newspaperman, and Officer Dan Baum testified that Brown was carrying a jumper to aid him in picking the pockets of victims in the jam at the conclusion of the show.

Boys' All-Wool Suits Two Pairs (Full Lined) Knickers $4.25
JUST THE BARE STATEMENT of $4.25 for GOOD WOOL SUITS this season would be remarkable in itself—but read this little story. We bought these at such an advantageous price, that we were enabled to sell them up to this time at $5.00 and $6.50, and at these figures they were very unusual values. There are about 400 suits left that we are going to close out for Saturday, to make a rousing children's day, at $4.25 a suit—and don't forget that this includes two pair of fully lined Knickerbockers.
The fabrics are good serviceable Wool Velours, all heavy weights, attractive patterns and colorings, all in the new models. They are fine looking and will outwear any suits we know of.
